ssalām-u-Alaikum! Dear readers! Dawat-e-Islami's Majlis-e-A Tarajim, a department responsible for reproducing Shaykh-e-Tariqat Amir-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat, founder of Da'wat-e-Islami 'Allamah Maulānā Muḥammad Ilyās 'Aṭṭār Qādirī Razavī's دمي بوقائد هليه books and booklets into various languages of the world, is pleased to present the book 'Namaz kay Ahkam' in English under the title of 'Laws of Salah.

For the ease of the reader and in an effort to reconcile the pronunciation of Arabic letters into Latin, a transliteration chart has been added to represent those letters correctly.

Terms of Islamic Jurisprudence have not been translated as a caution because in most cases, an English word cannot be a fully juristic substitute. However such terms have been defined to some extent in the glossary.

For the citations of the various sources, the APA citation style has been used. The "pp," and "p," in the citation stand for the page number and "vol." stands for volume. The bibliography has also been given at the end of the book.

No doubt, this translation has been accomplished by the Grace of Allah Almighty معدمال, by the favour of His beloved and blessed Prophet and the spiritual support of our great Shaykh, the founder of Da'wat-e-Islāmī, 'Allāmah Maulānā Muḥammad Ilyās 'Aṭṭār Translator's Notes

Note: Recite Durud Sharif once before and after the Du'ā.

Method of Wudū*

Please read this booklet from beginning to the end.

There is strong probability that you will become aware of your several mistakes.

Excellence of Durud Sharif

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind Los (1 set) Jo has narrated, "Anyone who recites Durad upon me three times in the day and three times in the night due to love and devotion for me, Allah Jos will forgive the sins he committed during that day and that night." (Amarghib Wattarhib, pp. 328; vol. 2, Hodis 23)

The Imain Allah (a) then saw drops of water dripping from the body of a third person and said, "Repent of taking wine and listening to music." He replied, "I repent." Hadrat Sayyiduna Imam Abu Hanīfah (a) Jahra had been given the power of Kashf (spiritual insight) and was able to see the faults of people. He prayed Allah (a) to take back this faculty of intuition from him. Allah (b) answered his prayer and henceforth he could no longer see the sins of people being washed away during Wudii. Seven Benefits of Keeping Wudii

Imām-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat Imām Ahmad Razā Khān جَهِ مِعْهِ says, "Some saints المعَاد have said that anyone who stays in a state of Wuḍû at all times may be awarded with seven bounties by Allāh عادمال

- 1. Angels will be enthusiastic to avail his company.
- The holy pen will keep on writing good deeds for him.
- His organs will perform Tasbih of Allah Jule.
- He will never miss his Takbir-e-Tahrimah (first Takbir of Şalāh).
- When he sleeps, Allah Jasta sends Angels who will protect him from the evils of jinns and human beings.
- 6. He will feel easiness in severe fits of death.
- He will remain in the safeguard of Allah Jsa52 as long as he is in the state of Wudū." (1654, pp. 762, 703)

Double Šawāb

No doubt, it is difficult to perform Wudū when it's cold or when we are tired or suffering from flu, headache or any other illness, but if someone performs Wudû in such a state of difficulty, according to Ḥadīš he will be awarded twice the Šawāb. (Al-Mu')um-ul-Award-lit-Tobrānī, pp. 106, vol. 4, Hadīš 5366)

Method of Wudu (Ḥanafi)

Now rinse your mouth three times with handfuls of water (closing the tap each time) using right hand making sure that water reaches all parts of the mouth and gargle as well if you are not in fasting. Now sniff water three times in nose up to soft flesh using three handfuls (now half handful is sufficient) of right hand (closing the tap each time) and if not in fasting, snuffle water up to the inside end of the nose. Now clean the nose by left hand (keeping the tap turned off) and insert small finger inside holes of the nose. Wash the whole face three times such that water must flow on every part from the top of the forehead (the point where the hair naturally begins to grow) to the bottom of the chin and from one earlobe to the other. If one has beard and he is not in the state of Ihram (Special state for Haj / 'Umrah) then do Khilal (with the tap turned off) of beard by inserting the fingers into the beard from the neck and bringing them out towards the front. Now wash the right arm from the tips of the fingers up to (and including) the elbow three times and then wash the left arm in the same manner. To wash up to half of the upper arm is Mustahab. Most people take a small amount of water in their band and pour it over their arm towards the elbow three times. But in this method, there is risk that water would not flow over the edges of wrist and arm, Therefore, wash arms as mentioned. Now there is no need to pour a handful of water over the arms. In fact, doing this (without a valid justification) is wastage of water. Now (with the tap closed) perform moistening of the head. This should be done by joining the tips of the three fingers, other than the index fingers and thumbs, of both hands and placing them on the top of forehead. Move back these fingers from forehead to the back of the neck without letting the palms touch the head. Each palm should then be placed on either side of the bead and pulled across the sides back towards the forehead. During this, the index fingers and thumbs should not touch the head at all. Now use the index fingers to wipe the insides of the ears, the thumbs for the back of ears and the small fingers should be inserted inside the holes of ears. Now moisten the back of the neck using the back of fingers of both hands. Some people, in addition, wipe the front of the neck, the forearms and wrists; this is not Sunnah. Make a habit of turning the tap off before wiping the head. To waste water by leaving the tap open fully or partially is a sin. Now wash both feet three times, first the right and then the left, beginning from the toes up to the top of the ankles. It is Mustahab to wash up to halfway up the shin. To do Khilál between the fingers of both feet is Sunnah. The tap should be kept turned off during Khilal. Its Mustahab method is to start doing Khilâl from little toe of the right foot to its big toe using the small finger of the left hand, and then, doing Khilāl from the big toe of the left foot to its little toe using the same small finger of the left hand, (Cammen books)

Hujja-tul-Islâm Imâni Muḥammad Ghazālī المراجعة says, "While washing each organ, one should hope that the sins of that organ are being washed away." (المراجة المراجة المراجة

Also recite this Du'à after Wudu (with Durud Sharif before and after it).

O Allāh . List! Make me amongst those who repent abundantly and make me amongst those who stay clean.

(Jame Timill, pp. 121, vol.), Hadil 55)

All Eight Portals of Heaven get Open

One Hadiš mentions, "If a person does Wudû properly and reads Kalimae-Shaĥādaĥ, all 8 portals of Heaven are opened for him and he may enter through any one he desires." (Eman Dārimī, pp. 196, vol. 1. Hadiī 716)

The Excellence of Reciting Sūra-e-Qadr after Wuḍū

One sacred Hadis mentions, "If a person reads Sura-e-Qadr once after Wudu, he will be amongst the Siddiqin and if he reads it twice he will be amongst the Shuhada and if he reads it three times, Allah Jesse will keep him with His prophets SELLED on the Day of Judgement." (Kanz-ul-Tannah, pp. 132, vol. 9, Hadis 20085, Al-Havi-ill-Fatawa-lit-Suyaji, pp. 462, 493, vol. 1).

Eyesight Never Goes Weak

If a person looks up to the sky after Wudû and reads Sûra-e-Qadr, Jas's Ants u his eyesight will never become weak. (Masaail-ul-Qaran, pp. 291)

Four Faraid of Wudu

- 1. Washing the face
- 2. Washing both arms including the elbows
- 3. Moistening a quarter of the head
- Washing both feet including the ankles. (Fasting v-Alamgiri, pp. 3, 4, 5, vol. 1, Bahar-e-Sharrat, pp. 288, vol. 1)

Definition of 'Washing'

Washing an organ means flowing of at least two drops of water on each part of that organ. If the organ is simply moistened by rubbing a wet hand over it, or if only one drop of water flows over a section of it then it will not be considered washed and the Wuḍū or Ghusl will not be valid in that case. (Farawā Radowiyyah (Jad id), pp. 218, vol. 1, Bahūr-e-Shariai, pp. 288, vol. 1)

Fourteen Sunan of Wudů

Some Sunan and Mustahab acts have already been mentioned under the heading "Method of Wuḍū (Ḥanañ)," Further details are as under.

- Making intention
- Reading المنافظة بنام الكانكية If إلكانكية is read before making Wudii, angels will write good deeds for him as long as one is in the state of Wudü. (Majing '-uz-Zawaid, pp. 513, vol. 1, Hudis 1112)
- Washing both hands up to the wrists three times

- 4: Using Miswak three times
- 5. Rinsing the mouth three times using three handfuls of water
- 6. Gargling, if not in fasting
- Sniffing water into the nose three times using three half handfuls of water
- 8. Doing Khilal of beard (when not in the state of Ihram)
- 9. Doing Khilal of the hand fingers
- 10. Doing Khilal of foot toes
- 11. Moistening the whole head only once
- 12. Moistening the ears
- Maintaining the order of the Farăid (i.e. washing the face first, then the arms, then wiping the head and then washing the feet)
- Washing next part before the previously washed one dries. (Bahāre-Shari'et, pp. 293, 294, vol. 1)

Twenty-Nine Mustaḥabbāt of Wuḍû

- 1. Facing the Qiblah
- 2. Making Wudn at an elevated place
- 3. Making Wudu sitting
- 4. Stroking hand on organs while washing them
- 5. Doing Wudu calmly
- Moistening the organs of Wudû prior to washing, especially in winter
- Avoiding taking assistance in making Wudū from anyone without necessity
- 8. Rinsing the mouth using the right hand

- 9. Sniffing water into the nose using the right hand
- 10. Using the left hand to clean the nose
- 11. Inserting the small finger of the left hand into the nostrils
- 12. Moistening the back of the neck using the back of the hands
- Inserting the wet small finger of each hand into each ear whilst wiping the ears
- 14. Displacing the finger ring if it is loosely fit and it is sure that water has flowed on skin beneath it. If ring is snug fit, it is mandatory to displace the ring so that water may flow beneath it.
- Doing Wudū before the beginning of the time of the Şalāh if one is not a Ma'zur-e-Shar'i [Detailed rulings regarding Ma'zur-e-Shar'i are presented ahead in this booklet].
- 16. For a person who performs Wudû perfectly i.e. whose no due part remains unwashed, taking special care for washing of inward corners of his eyes towards nose, ankles, heels, soles, thick muscles above heals, the gaps between fingers and elbows is Mustahab. For non-caring people, it is Fard to take special care for these parts as it has been observed that such parts often remain dry due to carelessness. Such carelessness is Haram and to take care is Fard.
- Keeping the lofa (ewer) towards left side. In case of using a tub or dish for Wudü, keep it towards right side.
- 18. While washing the face, wide-spreading the water on the forehead such that some additional upper part may get washed
- 19. Enhancing the brilliance of face and
- Arms and feet; this means spreading water over a bit more areas around the Fard areas, e.g. washing the arms to half length above

- the elbow and washing the feet beyond the ankles up to half length of the shin.
- 11 Using both hands for washing the face
- Starting from the fingers when washing the hands and feet
- Wiping away droplets of each organ by hands after washing so that drops of water may not fall upon body or clothes especially when one has to enter a Masjid because dripping of Wudn waterdrops on to the floor of the Masjid is Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmi
- Remembrance of the intention for Wudu at the time of washing / wiping of organs
- Reciting Durud Sharif and Kalima-e-Shahadat in addition to منابع الله at the beginning
- Do not unnecessarily mop the washed organs and if mopping is necessary, avoid drying them completely i.e. leave some wetness, because on the Day of Judgement it will be weighed with the pious deeds.
- Do not jerk hands after Wudû to remove droplets of water as it is Satan's fan.
- Sprinkling water on that part of Shalwar (A type of loose trouser) which is closer to urinary organ.
 - When sprinkling water on to the Shalwar, it is better to keep the front part of the Shalwar hidden under the kurta. In fact, keeping this part of the Shalwar concealed during the whole Wudu and at all other times using Kameez or a shawl is closer to modesty.
- Offering two Rak'at Nail Şalāh after Wudū if it is not a Makrūli time. These Nawāfil are called Taḥiyya-tul-Wudū. (Bahār-e-Shari'at. pp. 293-300, vol. 1)

Fifteen Makruĥāt of Wuḍū

- L Sitting in a vile place for Wudû
- 2. Draining the water used in Wudû in a vile place
- Dripping water droplets from wet Wudü organs into ewer ex (While washing the face, drops of water usually fall into wat carried in the hands. This should be avoided.)
- 4. Spitting saliva, phlegm or rinsing mouth in the direction of Qiblal
- 5. Using water in excess (Sadr-ush-Shari'ah Muffi Maulana Amja 'Ali excess's says in Bahar-e-Shari'at Part two, Page 23, Publishe in Madina-tul-Murshid Bareilly Sharif, "Half a handful of water sufficient for sniffing into the nose, so taking a complete handful for nose is wastage.")
- Using so less quantity of water that Sunnah cannot be followed. (Neither turn the tap on so much that causes wastage of water no so less that causes difficulty in following Sunnah; instead it should be moderate.)
- 7. Splashing water on face
- 8. Blowing onto water while pouring over the face
- Washing the face with only one hand as this is a custom of Rawafit and Hindus
- 10. Wiping the front of the neck
- 11. Rinsing the mouth or sniffing water into the nose using left hand
- 12. Cleaning the nose with the right hand
- 13. Using three sets of unused water to moisten the head three times.
- 14. Using hot water heated by sun beams

Closing the eyes and lips tightly. If these parts remained unwashed due to be kept tightly closed, the Wudu would not be complete. To abandon any Sunnah of Wudu is Makruh and to leave any Makruh of Wudu is Sunnah. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 500-301, vol. 1)

An Important Ruling about Used Water

it you are without Wudu and your hand, fingertip, fingernail, toenail to any other part of your body that must be washed during Wudu ontes into contact with water covering less than the surface area of 25 square yards or 225 square feet for example, water in a bucket or tub, that water will become Musta'mal (used), and it can no longer be used for Wudu or Ghusl, regardless of whether this was done deliberately or mintentionally. Similarly, if Ghusl is due and any unwashed part of the body comes into contact with water, this water cannot be used for Wudu or Ghusl. However, it doesn't matter if washed hand or washed part of body comes into contact with the water. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 333, and 11 (Please study part 2 of Bahar-e-Shari'at for more information on Musta'mal water.)

 the angels feel so severe distress by it that nothing else causes so severe distress to them.

Beloved Rasūl of Allāh Janus at Janus Janus Janus Janus Radaris and at night to offer Şalāh, you should clean your teeth with a Miswāk because when you recite the Qurān an angel places his mouth on yours and anything coming out of your mouth enters the mouth of that angel."

(Shu but huan, pp. 181, vol. 7, Hadii 2117) There is a report natrated by Hadral Sayyidunā Abū Ayyūb Anṣāri An Janus Janus in the book Kabīr written by Imām Tabarām an Janus Anton that there is nothing more troublesome for both angels than seeing their companion offering Şalāh with pieces of food stuck in his teeth. (Mu Janu Kahu: pp. 177, vol. 4, Hadīi 4061, Fatāwa-e Radariyyah, pp. 624-625, vol. 1)

A Great Madanī Point of Taşawwuf (Sufism)

Hujja-tul-Islām Imām Muhammad Ghazāli المنابعة says, 'When you pay your attention towards Ṣalāh after completing your Wuḍū, now imagine: "The parts of my body that people can see are purified but standing in the court of Allāh كالمنابعة without a purified heart is shameful because Allāh المنابعة sees hearts as well." He further adds, "One should remember that the sanctity of the heart lies in repentance, abandoning sins and adopting nice ethics. A person who neglects the inner purity and pays attention to the outer purity only is like a person who invites a king to his house for a feast and in order to please the king he cleans, polishes and colours the outside of his house but neglects the interior. How will the king feel when he enters his house and sees filth everywhere? Will he be happy or displeased? Every wise person may understand how the king would react." (Ibno-ut-Viana. pp. 185, vol. 1)

Vive Rulings Regarding Bleeding from Wound

- Blood, pus or yellowish fluid came out, flowed and it could reach to a part of the body that is Fard to be washed in Wudu or Ghusl, Wudu will become invalid. (Bahārse-Shurt'as, pp. 304, vol. 1)
- If the blood just emerged on the surface and did not flow, for example when the skin is cut slightly with the point of a sewing pin, knife or while using a toothpick or Miswāk to clean your teeth or while biting an apple causing impression of blood on apple or if traces of blood seen on finger after inserting it into nose but not capable of flowing. Wudu will not be affected. (1914)
- If it flows but not onto the surface of skin that must be washed in Wudû or Ghusl (e.g. you have a spot in your eye that bursts but the fluid remains within the cyclids or you feel bleeding inside your ear canal but the blood stays inside), Wudû will not be affected. (thid, pp. 27)
- Even if the wound is quite large and the fluid is visible, Wudû will not become null (invalid) unless the fluid (pus/blood) flows from the wound, (ibid)
- If one kept on cleaning the emerging blood from the wound and did not let it flow, then ponder whether the cleaned quantity was capable of flowing or not. If yes, Wudu will become invalid and otherwise, not. (ibid)

Do Injections Nullify Wudu?

- In case of inter muscular injection, Wudu will become invalid provided blood comes out in such an amount that could flow.
- However, in case of Intravenous (IV) injection, blood is first drawn into the needle and its quantity is enough to make it capable of flow, hence it would nullify the Wudü.

- Similarly, when liquid glucose is injected into veins via a drip, the Wudû will no longer remain valid because in such cases blood rises into the tube in the amount that could flow. If somehow, blood does not enter the tube, Wudû will not be affected.
- Getting blood out of body through a syringe for a blood test will also nullify the Wudū. This blood is as impure as urine. Therefore do not offer Ṣalāĥ with a bottle of blood in pocket.

Tears of an Ailing Eye

- I. Tears that flow out due to an infection or illness of the eyes are impure and would also nullify Wudu. (Bahār-a-Shari'at. pp. 310, pol. 1). Unfortunately, many people are unaware of this ruling and they mop away such tears like ordinary tears with their sleeves or clothes thus making their clothes impure.
- The fluid discharged from the eye of a blind man due to disease is impure and nullifies Wudu. (Bohör-e-Shari'at, pp. 306, vol. 1)

Pure and Impure Fluid

 Any fluid that is discharged from the human body but could not nullify Wudū is not impure. Examples are blood or pus that cannot flow, or vomit that is less than a mouthful. (Bahār-e-Shari'at, pp. 369, vol. 1)

Blisters and Pimples

- I. If a blister is burst by rubbing and its fluid flowed, Wudū would become invalid; otherwise not. (ibid, pp. 305)
- If the pimple has completely healed; just its dead skin has remained with an opening on the top and space inside, if water fills inside the skin that is pressed to take the water out; neither Wudu will

- become invalid nor that water is impure. However, if some wetness of blood etc. was present inside it, Wudu will become invalid and that ejected water is also impure. (Fetawa Radawiyyah (Ind id), pp. 355-156, vol. 1).
- If there is no flowing fluid in pimple or if itching does not cause fluid-flowing; there is just stickiness, no matter how many times clothes touch it, they will remain pure. (Baliane-Shiri'as, pp. 310, vol. 1)
- While clearing the nose, if dried up blood came out, it would not affect the Wudüt however, repeating the Wudü is preferred. (Fatime Radawiyyah (Jad ki), pp. 281, vol. 1)

When does Vomiting Nullify One's Wudu?

Voiniting food or water that is a mouthful invalidates Wudu. It is considered a mouthful when it cannot be prevented easily. This vomit is as impure as urine, so it is vital to protect the clothes and body from long stained by it. (Bakar-e-Shart'm. pp. 306, 390 etc., vol. 1)

Rulings about Laughing

- If an adult laughed in a Şalāh, consisting of Rukū' and Sujūd, so loudly that people in vicinity heard his laughing, his Wudū and Şalāh, both became invalid. If he laughed loudly such that only he listened to it, his Şalāh will become null (invalid) but there will be no effect on his Wudū. Smiling (without creating a sound) will not nullify Wudū and Şalāh. (Marāqii Fatāḥ, pp. 91)
- If one laughs loudly in a funeral prayer, his Şalāh will become invalid but there will be no effect on his Wudū. (ibid, pp. 92)
- Although laughing when not offering Ṣalāh does not invalidate Wuḍu, renewal of Wuḍu is Mustaḥab. (Marāqil Folith, pp. 84)

Our Holy Prophet المنافظة المنافظة never laughed loudly so we shoul attempt to revive this Sunnah and avoid laughing loudly. Our below and blessed Prophet المنافظة has said: "Smiling is from Alla أبادية and laughing is from Satan." (Al-Mu'Jam-us-Sashir. pp. 104, vol. 2)

Does Looking at a Person's Sitr Nullify Wudu?

Many amongst the public believe that unveiling one's own knees or 81 (private part of body below navel up to knees) or looking at one's ow or someone else's knees or Sitr nullifies Wndū; this is a wrong conceptiowever, to keep the Sitr covered is one of the manners of Wudū; I fact the Sitr should be covered immediately after Istinjā (excretiowashing). To unveil the Sitr unnecessarily is prohibited and to unveil before others is Harām, (Bahār-e-Sharēar, pp. 309, vol. 1)

The Wudu Done during Ghusl is Sufficient

Once Wuḍū is done during Ghusl (ritual bath), it does not need to be repeated again. Even if one does not perform Wnḍū during Ghusl, h will be considered to have performed it because the organs of Wuḍo get washed during Ghusl. Changing clothes does not affect Wuḍū.

Blood in Saliva

- If there is bleeding in the mouth and the blood dominates the saliva, it will invalidate the Wudū; otherwise not. The blood will be considered dominant if the saliva is reddish and this saliva will be impure. If the saliva is yellowish in colour, saliva will be considered dominant over blood and therefore the Wudū will not become invalid and this saliva will not be considered impure (Bahar-a-Shari'at, pp. 305, vol. 1)
- In case of blood being dominant over saliva, taking water from a cup or container by touching mouth will render the container and all its contents impure. Hence, in such a case, it is advisable to take water in hand from the cup for rinsing of mouth. Also take care against sprinkling of this impure water on clothes.

Urine and Vomit of an Infant

- The urine of an infant, even a one day old, is as impure as of anybody else. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 390, vol. 1)
- If an infant vomits a mouthful of milk, it is as impure as urine, but if the milk has not reached the stomach and has reversed from the chest, it will not be impure, (Bohar-e-Sharrat, pp. 310, vol. 1)

Five Rulings about Uncertainty in Wudů

- If you are dubious as to whether or not you have washed a particular organ in Wudū and if this is the first such incident in your life, wash that organ and if you have had the same doubt occasionally, ignore it. If you have similar doubt after Wudū, ignore it. (Bahare-Shart'at pp. 310, vol. 1)
- If you had Wudû but later had doubt whether or not it has become invalid, you are in the state of Wudū, because doubt does not affect the Wudû. (tbid, pp. 311)
- Repeating Wudů in case of Waswasah (satanic whisperings) is not a caution; instead it is obedience to Satan. (ibid)
- Wudū will remain valid until you are so sure that you can swear that your Wudū has nullified.
- If you know that any organ has been left unwashed during Wudu, but cannot recall which one is that, wash your left foot, (Durve-Mukhiar, pp. 310, vol. 1)

If Dog Touches the Body!

Clothes do not become impure if they come into contact with the body of a dog, even if it is wet. However, the saliva of dog is impure, (Bahar-e-Shart'ut, pp. 395, vol. 1)

When and When not Sleeping would Nullify Wudů

There are two coincident conditions for the invalidation of Wudu due to sleep:

- 1. Both buttocks not being seated firmly
- Sleeping in a manner that does not prevent deep sleep
 If both above conditions co-exist, sleeping would nullify the Wudu

Following are ten positions of sleeping that do not affect Wudů

- Sitting with both buttocks seated on ground and both legs stretched out in one direction. (e.g. sitting on a chair, in a bus/train seat)
- Sitting with both buttocks on the ground and both shins encircled by hands; regardless of whether hands are on ground or head is rested onto the knees
- 3. Sitting cross-legged, whether on ground or a bed etc.
- 4. Sitting with folded legs and straight (as in Qa'dah)
- 5. Sitting on a saddled horse or mule
- Sitting on the bare back of horse or mule provided it is walking uphill or on plain path
- Sleeping against a pillow with the buttocks firmly resting on the ground, even if he falls down on the removal of pillow
- 8. Standing

- In Ruků' position
- In the position defined for Sajdah of men according to Sunnah i.e. belly and thighs separated, arms and sides separated

Sleeping in above positions will not mullify Wudu. Even if one is in Salāh, the Salāh will not be nullified either, even if one sleeps deliberately. However, the part of Salāh that is spent asleep must be repeated. If any act is offered partly awake and partly asleep, the part offered awake does not need to be repeated but the part offered asleep must be repeated.

Following are ten positions of sleeping that nullify Wudir

- In a half sitting position (with the buttocks not touching the ground)
- 2. Sleeping on one's back
- i. Sleeping on one's belly
- Sleeping on one's side.
- 5. Sleeping with one elbow raised
- Sitting down leaning to one side with one or both buttocks lifted off the ground
- 7. Sitting on the bare back of an animal walking downwards
- Sleeping in the position of Tashahhud with the stomach pressed against the thighs and both buttocks not pressed firmly
- 9. Sitting with legs folded and head resting on thighs or shins
- In the position of Sajdah if it is done according to the female method (stomach pressed against the thighs, arms against sides, forearms on the ground)

Sleeping in any of these positions will nullify the Wudu regardless of whether or not a person is in Şalāh. However, deliberately sleeping in any of the mentioned postures will nullify the Şalāh too. If it is unintentional, only the Wudu will break and not the Şalāh. After completing Wudu, one can resume the Şalāh from where he left off (under certain conditions) but if he is unaware of the conditions he should start from the beginning. (Fatīmā Radawiyyalı (Jad fd), pp. 365 to 367, vol. 1)

The Wuda Spots in Masajid

Cleaning the teeth with a Miswak sometimes results in bleeding that dominates the spit making it impure. Unfortunately, as the Wudū spots in the Masajid are usually shallow, clothes and body are splashed with drops of impure spit when rinsing mouth. This is even worse in household washbasins as their hard surfaces cause more splashing.

Have a Wudū Spot Constructed in Your Home

People nowadays tend to do Wudū in washbasins at home whilst standing, which is contrary to Mustahab. Regretfully, people spend huge amounts of money on the construction of huge luxurious palaces but do not consider making their own little Wudū spot in the house, I plead to all Islamic brothers who are enthusiastic about following the Sunnah; if possible, do get a Wudū spot made with at least one tap in your home. Make sure the water does not splash everywhere when it falls, in fact have a drain constructed to prevent impure spit from splashing on the clothes and body. A sketch of Wudū spot has been added at the end of this booklet and can be used as a guideline for anyone wishing to get Wudū spot constructed. Drops of water usually splash around the ankles whilst washing excretory organs in the toilet; therefore, one should wash the ankles afterwards as a caution.

Construction Plan for Wudū Spot

A honsehold Wudu spot should cover an area of 40 square inches and be raised 16 inches off the ground with a 9-inch high seat (10,5 inches wide). The distance between the seat and the wall ahead should be 26 inches. The drain should not be wider than 3.5 inches. There should be a sloped surface at the front of the platform but this slope should not cause the drain to be wider than 3.5 inches. Leave slightly more space than the length of your feet for standing (approximately 11.5 mch). Cut another slope 4.5 inches wide in the centre of the foot-rests, but remember, this slope should not allow the drain to become wider than 3.5 inches. The slope should be smooth all the way down without my bumpy surface. The tap should be fitted at a height of 32 inches from the drain and it should be a mixture tap. The water will drop onto the deeper slope in the centre and will therefore make it easier for you to protect your clothes and body from being stained by blood or any other impurities, Just detter. With slight changes, these guidelines can also be used for Wudû spots in Masājid.

Ten Madanī Flowers of a Wudû Spot

- If possible, use the plan at the back of this booklet to get Wudu spot constructed in your home.
- Ignore mason's arguments and ensure slope of 2 inches in upper floor (where feet are placed) in your domestic Wudu spot as per given sketch.
- If more than one tap are to be installed, there should be a gap of 25 inches between the taps.
- Get a plastic nipple installed at the nozzle of the tap as per requirement.

- If the water header is installed outside the wall (i.e. not concealed), the seat should be made one or two inches additional farther.
- It is better to construct the Wudū spot temporarily at first. Test its perfection by performing Wudū and then get the finishing works done.
- If tiles are to be installed at Wudū spot / bathrooms, always use Slip Resistant Tiles to minimize fall bazard.
- 8. It is even better to install four-section tiles to eliminate fall hazard,
- If above type of tiles are not available, end of foot area and its adjacent slope, at least 2 inch of both, should be made rounded using rough stone so that foot may be cleaned by rubbing on it.
- 10. When making a drain in your kitchen, bathroom, toilet, on the roof, Wudū spot in the Masjid or anywhere else where water may accumulate, increase the slope 1.5 times of what suggested by the mason (e.g. he says 2 inch, you order 3 inch). Mason will do say, "Don't worry, not a single drop will stay." If you got trapped in his plan, it may result in improper slope. If you would not rely upon him, Jayadi (Sa) you will see the benefit as it has been observed mostly that water accumulates on several spots of flooring.

Six Rulings for those who cannot retain their Wudu

1. Wudū is nullified by the passing of urine (even a drop), breaking wind, seepage from injury, flowing of tears from an ailing eye, flowing of water from the navel, ears, or breasts, the passing of fluid from a pimple and diarrhoea. If someone is suffering continuously from any of these ailments and he could not be able to offer Salāh with Wudū during complete span from starting to ending of a Şalāh timing, he is a Shar'i Ma'zur (lawfully exempted).

- He may offer as many Şalah as he likes with one Wudu during that span; his Wudu will not become invalid by that ailment. (Bahor-c-Short'at, pp. 385, vol. 1. Dur-re-Mukhtar, Rad-dul-Muhtar, pp. 553, vol. 1)
- The Wudû of a Ma'zur becomes invalid as soon as the time of Fard Salāh ends. This ruling is applied when cause of exemption is found during Wudû or after Wudû. If this is not so and there is no other cause nullifying Wudû, then Wudû will not become invalid even after elapsing of time, timbure-Shari en, pp. 386 val. 1. Dur-re-Mukhiōn, Rad-dul-Muhim, pp. 385, val. 1. After elapsing of time of a Fard Şalāh, Wudû of Ma'zur becomes invalid. For example, if someone does Wudû for Aşr it will become invalid as soon as the sun sets and Wudû done after sunrise would become invalid as soon as the time of Zuhar Şalāh ends as till then, time of any Fard Şalāh had not elapsed.
- 3. Once 'Uzr has been established, that will remain valid as long as the cause is found at least once in the total span of the Şalāh. For instance, if someone experiences a constant discharge of urine droplets in full span and he does not get opportunity to make Wudū and offer Fard Şalāh, he is a Ma'zur. Now in second span, he gets the opportunity to make Wudū and offer prayer but still droplet leaks once or more in this second span, he is still Ma'zur. However, if a Şalāh span pasts such that not a single droplet leaks, he would not remain Ma'zur. Whenever that previous condition repeats i.e. ailment persisted within the whole span, he will again become Shar'i Ma'zur. (Bohār-e-Shan'at, pp. 185. vol. i)
- 4. Although the Wudû of a Ma'zur person is not nullified by the reason which has made him Ma'zur, yet if any other Wudū-nullifying cause exists, Wudû would become invalid. For instance, someone with the 'Uzr of breaking wind will lose his Wudū due to passing of urine droplet. If 'Użr is due to urine droplets, Wudū will be lost on breaking of wind. (thid, pp. 586)

- 5. If a Ma'zur performs Wudû due to Ḥadaś (any act that nullifies Wudû) and during Wudû the reason of his 'Użr is not existing but after Wudû that reason was found, Wudû will be lost (this ruling will apply when Ma'zur performs Wudû due to reason other than causing him Ma'zur. If he is performing Wudû due to his 'Użr, the Wudû will not be lost if that 'Użr occurs after Wudû). For instance, someone was Ma'zur due to loss of control on urine. He faced breaking of wind and thus performed Wudû. During Wudû urine stopped but after Wudû, some urine drops trickled away, Wudû will be lost. However if this trickling takes place during Wudû, the Wudû will remain valid. (Bahār a Shari'at, pp. 387, vol. 1, Durre Mukhār, Rad-did-Muhtar, pp. 557, vol. 1)
- 6. If the 'Uzr is such that it causes impurity of his clothes, then in case the stain caused impurity of cloth area larger than the area of a dirham (an old currency used symbolically for sizing) and he has opportunity to offer Şalāh after purifying the clothes, then it is Fard for him to first purify the clothes and then say Ṣalāh. And if he knows that while offering Ṣalāh, the clothes will become impure to same extent, then purification is not binding and he may offer prayers with same clothes. Even if his prayer mat becomes impure, his Ṣalāh will be valid. (Bahār-e-Shart'at. pp. 387, rol. 1) (For detailed rulings regarding the Wudu of a Ma'zur refer to Bahār-e-Shart'at, Part 2)

Seven Miscellaneous Rulings

 The passing of urine, stool, Wadī, Maži, semen, worm or pebble from front or rear excretory organs of a man or woman will nullify Wudû, (Funova-e-Managiri, pp. 9, vol. 1)

- The passing of even a minor amount of air from the rear will mullify Wudu. The passing of air from the from of a man or woman will not mullify Wudu. (thid) (thehare Shart'on, pp. 304 vol. 1)
- Unconsciousness millifies Wirdu. (Famure Alungir, pp. 12 wil 1)
- some people say that pronouncing the name of pig nullifies Wudu.
 This is false.
- If one's Wudu breaks due to some reason (e.g. breaking of wind)
 whilst he is performing it, he has to re-start Wudu, the organs washed earlier will be considered unwashed. (Financia Requirely) (19)

- To touch the Holy Quant, or any Quantic verse or its translation in any language without Wudū is Harām, thahar-a-Smari at, pp. 326, (37 cm; vol.).
- There is no harm in reciting the Quran seeing its script without touching it or by heart without Wudit.

Wasteful Use of Water in Wudû

lowadays, many people open the taps too much when doing Wudu sating a great deal of water. Even worse, some people open the tap in thance as soon as they reach the Wudu spot and then start rolling their drives up thereby causing wastage of water. The majority of people leave the tap on whilst doing Mash of the head. We must all fear Allah 3 and avoid such wastage because the accountability of each drop a even minute acts will be held on the Day of Judgement. Here are f Ahādis warning against wastage. Read them and tremble with Allal fear:

1. Wastage at Canal

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the more generous and kind Andreas Basis passed by Hadrat Sayyidunā Sate Dadi De who was performing Wudū. Beloved and blessed Rasūl Allāh Andreas De asked, "Why is this wastage (of water)?" Hadi Sayyidunā Sa'd as Basis De replied, "Is wastage of water accountable Wudū?" He Andreas Dadi De replied, "Yes, even if you are at a was course," (Sunan Ilm Majah, pp. 254, vol. 1. Hadis 425)

Fatwā of A'lā Ḥaḍrat

إنَّهُ لَا يُعِبُ الْمُسْرِفِينَ

(Part 8, Al-An-ām, Verse, 141) (Kantul India [Translation of Quran])

has addressed wastage in absolute sense, hence this wastage (in Wuduwill be condemned and prohibited. Assertion for negation of wastage in Wudu is present in Hadis Sharif and negation actually desires Tahrim (prohibition) [i.e. commandment for prohibition of wastage in Wuduexists and this prohibition demands to declare it Haram]. (Fatam-Budowiyyah (Ind id), pp. 731, vol. 1)

Mufti Ahmad Yar Khān's Commentary

The renowned Mufassir Hadrat Mufti Ahmad Yar Khan same explains one: 141 of Sürah Al-An'am mentioned by A'la Hadrat same has be saying, "Spending on prohibited things is a wastage, donating one's everything thereby causing poverty to his own family is the wastage, spending more than required is a wastage; that is why making the organs of Wudu four times (without a Shar'i reason) is unsidered a wastage." (Nür-al-'Irfan, p. 232)

1. Don't Waste Water

Highest Sayyiduna 'Abdullah bin 'Umar was also do narrates that the heated Prophet and as do also as a person performing Wudu and aid, "Do not waste, do not waste." (Susan Ibn Majah, pp. 254, vol. 1, Hadis 424)

J. Wasteful Usage is a Satanic Act

Hadrat Sayyidunā Anas المنظمة quotes a Ḥadīš, "There is no good in using large amount of water in Wudu, this act is induced by Satan." (Kunz-ul-Ummal, pp. 144, vol. 9, Badīš 26255)

4. Asking for a White Palace in Heaven?

Hadrat Sayyiduna 'Abdullah bin Mughaffal المعالمة أله heard his son uying the following words in his supplication, "Yā Allāh المعالمة الم

Dear Islamic brothers! The renowned Mufassir Ḥaḍrat Muftī Aḥmad Yār Khān ﴿ وَهُو اللَّهُ اللَّهُ comments on this Ḥadīš by saying, "Exceeding limits in Du'à refers to mentioning useless specifications like that his son did. It is better to ask for Firdaus (the greatest Heaven); as this specification is typical and not personal. Exceeding limits in Wudū might be in two ways: exceeding the numbers (in place of three) and exceeding the organ coverage e.g. washing the feet up to the knees, washing the arms up to the armpits, both these are prohibited." (Mirat of Manalith, pp. 293, vol. 1)

Wrongdoing/Offence

A Bedouin asked the beloved Rasúl of Allah المراه ا

Learn Wudů in a Practical Way

Dear Islamic brothers! From this blessed Hadis, we came to know that practical demonstration of Wudū is proven from Sunnah. Following this Sunnah, Muballighin may demonstrate the method of Wudū to Islamic brothers washing each required organ three times without wasting water. Take strict care that no organ is washed four times. Then anyone from the learners, on his own accord, may get his Wudū checked by demonstrating to the Muballigh so that mistakes may be eliminated. This Madanī exercise may be accomplished in a better way in the company of devotees of the Exalted Prophet while travelling with Sunnah-inspiring Madanī Qāfilahs of Dawat-e-Islami. You must learn correct method of Wudū. It is very difficult to comprehend the correct method of Wudū by merely reading it quite a few times; you will have to practice it again and again.

Wasteful Use of Water in Masājid and Madāris

Waqi; rulings are different for this water and that for our domestic water. Those who splash water badly at Wudū spots of Masājid or wash two organs more than three times purposelessly during Wudū due to morance or carelessness must ponder following blessed Fatwa, tremble with the fear of Allāh Japa and repent of doing, so in the future. Allā Hadrat Imām-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat Imām Alphad Razā Khān (1888) sa says, To use more than required amount of Waqf water in Wudū is Harām oranimously, as permission has not been granted for spending it more han required and water in Islamic Madāris is of the same kind which is reserved for those who perform Shar'i Wudū." (Fatawa Radawiyyah Idud in pp. 658, vol. 1)

Dear Islamic brothers! One who does not prevent himself from wasting water should use his own water e.g. he may perform Wudû by his domestic water. Allāh Assas forbid, it doesn't mean that there is no binding on wasting one's own water. Rather one must learn Shar'i Wudû by exercising intensively at home so that he may not commit a Harām by wasting water at Masjid.

Seven Guidelines by A'lā Ḥaḍrat to Avoid Wasteful Use of Water

- Some people overfill the handfuls. The overflowed amount goes waste. Care must be taken in this regard.
- The handful does not always have to be filled to the top with water; one must think as to for what purpose he is taking the water. For instance, only half a handful of water is needed for sniffing into the nose, then what is the purpose of taking full handful; a full handful is not needed even for rinsing the mouth.

- 3. Nozzle of ewer should be moderate in size i.e. neither so narrow to ooze water late nor so wide to splash water more than requirement. To know its difference, if Wudū is made using a bowl, excessive water will be consumed. Similarly wide tap will cause excessive consumption. If ewer has wide nozzle, take care and do not passfull jet, instead set thin stream. (Similar precautions should be adopted while opening the taps).
- Moisten the organs by wet hand before washing, as then, water flows swiftly and small (quantity of water) does the function of large. In winter season specially, this act is more desirable as it has been observed that the flowing water leaves some spaces dry due to skin dryness.
- 5. If there are hairs on wrists, these should be trimmed away as they need more water. Shaving these render them harder; hence trimming via a machine is better as it removes properly and the best and Ahsan (preferred) one is Nûrah (a type of hair removing powder) as its application in such organs is proven from Sunnah. Umm-ul-Muminin Ḥadrat Sayyidatunā Umm-e-Salamah & Marah, says, "Whenever Rasūlallāh Andrews & Joseph Jacob Nūrah, He hard had be would apply it to his blessed Sitr with his own blessed hands and it was applied to other parts of the blessed body by the chaste wives & Dad & Dad & Da Majah, pp. 226, vol. 4, Hadis 375) If one does not do so, moisten such hairs before washing so that they get flattened. If water flowed in the roots of erected hair and didn't flow over the hair tip, Wudū will not be valid.
- 6. While using a ewer for Wudu, the stream of water should be moved from the nails towards the elbows / ankles constantly so that all parts are washed only once in one go, otherwise the slow movement of the organ will result in water being poured on the same spot several times (which will result in a sort of wastage).

- Some people pour water from the nails towards the elbows (or toes to the ankles) and then keep flowing the water as they bring it back to the nails to start a second wash and then bring it back (with the water still flowing) for a third wash whereas in fact this results in washing the organ five times instead of three. Instead of this, the jet of water should be stopped when it reaches the elbows or ankles, it should be resumed from nails again. Washing from nails towards elbows/ ankles is Sunnah and not the reverse one (To wash from elbows/ankles towards nails is not Sunnah).
- A comprehensive saying is that one should be moderate. Imam Shafi'i ماله المعالمة has very rightly said, "With moderation, a little is sufficient but without moderation, even ample amount of water does not suffice." (Futawa Radowiyyah (Jad (d), pp. 765-770, vol. 1)

Jourteen Madani Pearls to Avoid the Wasteful Use of Water

- Ask repentance (towards Allah Jeste) for unlawful wastage done in the past and make every possible effort to avoid it in the future.
- Think and plan well for arrangements that may lead to performing of Wudu and Ghusl according to Sunnah with minimum consumption of water. Make yourself fear the fact that the accountability of each drop and even a tiny particle will be held on the Day of Judgement.
- While doing Wuḍū, turn the tap on carefully. During Wuḍū, keep one hand on the tap as long as possible and keep turning the tap off when water is not needed.
- Less water is consumed in doing Wudu with ewer as compared to tap. Perform Wudu by using lofa if possible. If one cannot avoid use of tap, he can wash easily-washable organs with ewer possible. Using tap for Wudu is permissible; however, one sho take measures to get rid of wastage.

- Make the habit of turning the tap off perfectly so that not a sing drop of water leaks during Miswilk, mouth wash, gargling, no wash, Khilal of beard and fingers of hand / foot and Mic (moistening).
- During winters specially, avoid draining cold water present in pr line for receiving bot water while performing Wudu/Ghust washing clothes/utensils. Cold water may be collected in some tur
- 7. While making foam from soap for washing of hands / face, mal careful use of water. For example, for washing of hands, a few drot of water may be taken in handful for making foam of soap. Openio of tap with soap in hand may cause wastage of water.
- 8. After use, soap should be placed in a soap holder that contains to water. Deliberately placing of soap in water will cause wastage, soap by softening. Don't place/leave soap on surface of wash bas as, otherwise, soap will be dissolved and wasted due to presence water over there.
- Do not put to waste water left in glass after drinking or left in jug after dining. Instead pour it back into cooler etc.
- It has become a norm nowadays to spoil a lot of water during washing of fruits, clothes, utensils, floors or even a tea cup or in spoon. This is very sorrowful situation.
- 11. In most of the homes, lights and fans remain 'On' useless, throughout day and night. Make a habit to turn lights and fan 'Off as soon as requirement is over. All of us should fear from accountability in Hereafter and should refrain from wastage.

- Lise a ewer in latrine as using a shower for purification consumes plentiful water and also contaminates the feet. Everybody should sprinkle some water on edges of W.C. after passing urine and also pour some water into the hole of W.C. from some height (protecting clothes from splashing of dirty water). (protecting and growth of germs will reduce. Using a first tank for this purpose consumes plentiful water.)
- (). If a tap drips, take immediate actions to rectify the fault; otherwise wastage of water will continue. Sometimes taps of Masajid / Madaris are found dripping continuously and no body bothers. The managing committee should take remedial actions promptly as per their responsibility for the sake of betterment in the Hereafter.
- 14. Be extra careful to make full use of each food grain and each drop during eating, taking tea or beverages, cutting fruits etc. Special care should be taken not to waste a single drop or piece when eating, drinking, slicing fruits etc. and to use every single bit.

Embracing Islam by Virtue of Wudū

A person states that he offered Islam to a university student in Belgium. The student asked him scientific benefits of Wudu. He could not answer. He carried him to a religious scholar but he also had no knowledge about it. Another person possessing scientific information told him everal benefits of Wudu but he also could not tell benefit of Mash (moistening) of neck. That student went back. After sometime he came and informed that his professor informed during the lecture, "If a few drops of water are sprinkled on neck and its surroundings, protection is obtained against the diseases of vertebral column and spinal cord."

Hearing that he said, "I grasped the blessing hidden in moistening of neck, hence I want to embrace Islam" and he became Muslim.

Seminar in Western Germany

The problem of depression is growing in the western countries, brain failures are being reported and more mental asylums are being established. Long queues of psychiatric patients may be seen before Psychiatrisis. A Pakistani physiotherapist who holds a diploma from Western Germany states that a seminar on the topic "What cures other than medicines are possible for depression" was held in Western Germany. One of the doctors revealed an amazing discovery in his speech by saying, "I get washed the face of patients of depression five times per day and after few days their disease reduced. Then I get washed face, hands and feet of a similar group of patients five times a day and they healed up to a great extent." The same doctor accepts in the end of his speech that the problem of depression is short in Muslims as they wash face, hands and feet (i.e. during Wudů) several times daily.

Wudu and High Blood Pressure

A heart specialist assures that if a patient of hypertension is asked to perform Wudū and then his blood pressure is checked, his B.P. will be definitely lower. A Muslim Psychiatrist states, "The best cure for psychiatric patients lies in Wudū." The western experts get washed body parts of psychiatric patients several times like Wudū.

Wudu and Paralysis

Even the order of washing organs during Wudū is beneficial. Washing of hands in the first step motivates the nervous system of the body and mon slowly effects transmit towards veins of face and brain. The order of washing hands, then mouth-wash, then nose-wash and then washing of remaining organs reduces probability of paralysis. If face washing and Mash are done first, the body may suffer several diseases.

The One Who Values Miswak

Dear Islamic brothers! There are many Sunan in Wudu and each Sunnah is source of blessings. As an example consider Miswak. Even children know that use of Miswak in Wudu is Sunnah and see what a lot of benefits are associated with this Sunnah! A businessman says, "I met a newly Muslim in Switzerland and I gifted him a Miswak. He became uppy. He kissed the Miswak and then touched it with his eyes. Tears celled up from his eyes. He took a handkerchief out of his pocket, migliged if, and took out a tiny Miswak, which was approximately two inches in length. He said that when he had embraced Islam, he was given that as a gift; he was using it with great care and then it was nearly finished making him anxious.

Allah Jose had blessed him to have a gift of Miswak from him. Then he added that he had a persisting infection in his teeth and gums. The dentists had no cure for it. He started to use the Miswak and after a lew days, he felt better. He went to see the doctor who was very surprised to see that he was cured. The doctor said that he could not be cured in such a short period of time with the medicine he had prescribed. Just recall carefully what he had used. He pondered and recalled that he had become a Muslim and had recently started to use the Miswak. Due to use of the Miswak, he was blessed and healed. When he showed the Miswak to the doctor, he was stunned,"

To Strengthen Memory

Dear Islamic brothers! Miswak has many benefits in this world and the Hereafter. Miswak contains many chemical ingredients which protect the teeth from many infections. It is quoted in the margins of Taḥṭāvī-"Use of Miswak strengthen memory and eyesight, cures headaches and relieves the veins in the head, eliminates sputum, improves digestion, increases brain power, increases birth rate, delays aging and strengthens the back." (Hanking-nat-Taḥṇāwr Ala Maragil Falah, pp. 69, Bab-ul-Madāṇa, Karachi)

Three Aḥādīš about Miswāk

- Whenever the Holy Prophet And Sould would enter his blessed home, he would use the Miswak first. (Solid Muslim, pp. 182, vol. 1. Hadd) 1521
- Whenever the Exalted Prophet من الله تعالى الله تعالى would wake up from his sleep, he would use the Miswäk. (Sanan Abii Diiwiid, pp. 54, Hadis 57)
- Make use of Miswak necessarily because it cleans your mouth and pleases Allah 3x35x (Manual Imam Ahmad, pp. 438, vol. 2, Hudti 5869)

Cure for Blisters in the Mouth

Physicians have stated, "Sometimes blisters develop in the mouth due to warmth or acidity of the stomach and result in spread of particular type of germs in the mouth. To cure this infection, chew a fresh Miswäk and circulate the saliva thus formed in your mouth for a few minutes. By doing this, several patients have been cured."

Harmful Effects of Toothbrush

According to research, 80% of illnesses are caused due to dirty teeth or poor stomach. Sometimes the teeth are not cleaned properly and therefore many germs grow in the gums. These germs spread up to the stomach and cause different infections. Remember! The tooth-brush is not an alternative to the Miswak, Experts have concluded that:

- After the toothbrush has been used once, germs settle on the brush and do not remove away even by washing the brush. Instead they multiply in the brush.
- The toothbrush destroys the natural bright coating of the teeth.
- 3. Use of tooth brush dislocate gums gradually thus causing gaps in between the gums and the teeth, making it easy for the food particles to stuck in the cavities. These particles rot and germs grow there. As a result, infections of eyesight in addition to other diseases take place. Eyesight goes weak and sometimes culminates into blindness.

Do You Know How to Use Miswak?

You may think that I have been using the Miswak for several years but my teeth and stomach are still disturbed.

My simple Islamic brothers! Guilty is yours and not that of Miswäk. To my (writer of this book) approximation, there may be one among millions who performs Miswäk according to its guidelines. Most of us just rub the Miswäk haphazardly on our teeth while performing Wudu. It may be said that we performs "a custom of Miswäk" and not the "Sunnah of Miswäk".

Fourteen Madani Pearls

- Thickness of Miswak should be equal to the little finger.
- Miswak should not be longer than a hand span otherwise Satan will sit on it.

- The bristles of the Miswak should be soft. Hard bristles will cause a gap between the gums and teeth.
- If Miswak is fresh then its good; otherwise soak it in a glass of water until it becomes soft.
- Cut the bristles everyday. The bristles are effective only when they contain bitterness.
- 6. Rub the Miswak over the width of your teeth.
- 7. Use the Miswak three times.
- 8. Wash it each time.
- Hold the Miswäk in your right hand with your little finger under the Miswäk, the middle three fingers gripping it and the thumb towards the bristle end of Miswäk.
- First clean the top right row of the teeth then top left row, Then clean the bottom right row and then the bottom left row of the teeth.
- There is a risk of enlargement of the spleen of a person who uses Miswak while laying on bed/ground.
- To perform Miswak while holding in fist, there is a risk of piles disease.
- Miswak is preceding Sunnah for Wudu but if one has fouling breath, using Miswak is Sunnat-e-Muakkadah. (Fasawa Radowtovah (Jod Id), pp. 223, vol. 1)
- 14. Don't throw away the used bristles or used Miswak. Instead, place it at a safer place e.g. bury under the ground or sink into the sea etc. as it is sacred, being tool for acting upon a Sunnah, (Bahārse-Shar) at, pp. 294, vol. 1, Dur-re-Mukhāran-Rad-alut-Muḥtār, pp. 250, vol. 1)

Amerits of Washing of Hands

Wudo, the hands are washed first. Let us see benefits of this act.

Benefits of Rinsing the Mouth

one of all hands are washed in Wudü. Thus hands become clear from rms; otherwise these germs would have entered our mouth during wouth rinsing and would have reached stomach thereby causing several officians. A lot of hazardous germs accompanied with air and the instituents of food stuck in our mouth and on teeth via saliva. Hence oning of mouth and doing Miswak in Wudü clean the mouth foroughly. If mouth is not cleaned, following diseases may break out.

- Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) one of its initial symptoms include the swelling of the mouth.
- Tearing of the periphery of mouth
- Moniliasis of the mouth and lips
- Rotting and blistering of mouth
 - If the person is not in fasting, it is Sunnah to gargle the throat, One who gargles regularly will not suffer from tonsillitis and he will be saved from several types of throat infections including throat cancer.

Benefits of Sniffing Water into the Nose

The lungs need air, free from germs, smoke and dust, having ab80% humidity and a temperature slightly greater than 90°F. To provi this quality of air, Allāh desie has bestowed the bounty of nose, humidify the air, nose produces about one-fourth gallon of moistu-Hairs inside the nose act as dust catchers. There is a microscoscrubber that has invisible bristles. These bristles kill the germs comwith the air. In addition, these bristles also perform a protective featocalled Lysozyme. With this, nose protects eyes from infection. Designation one who performs Wodu rinses his nose with water and thus a important organ (nose) get serviced. The electric properties of water fortify the ability of bristles and thus a Muslim is saved from sevecomplex diseases of nose by virtue of Wuqu. The rinsing of nose very beneficial for the patients of persisting flu and having woundnose.

Benefits of Washing the Face

Nowadays pollution level of smoke etc. is increasing in atmospher Different chemicals, lead etc. keep on depositing on eyes and face face is not washed, face and eyes would suffer several diseases. An Engli-doctor wrote a paper on the topic "Eye, Water and Health." In the paper he said giving stress, "Keep washing your eyes several times dail otherwise you would face dangerous diseases." Washing of face preven or minimize mars on face. The expert beauticians have consensus of the fact that all types of creams and lotions leave spots on face. It make face beautiful, it is necessary to wash it several times. Beycharsenior member of 'American Council for Beauty', reveals, "Muslindo not need any chemical lotion as their face is protected against disease due to being washed during Wudu." The experts of environment protection say, "To prevent face allergy, wash it frequently." [34-54-44-54]

ाक is only possible during Wudu. टेड्डॉन्स्ट्रेडिक by washing face during widu, the face is massaged, the blood circulation improves towards face, dirt is removed and its beauty becomes two fold.

Protection from Blindness which the genuine secretions of the eyes reduce or finish completely and the patient eventually becomes blind. According to medical reports, eyebrows are washed occasionally, this disease may be prevented, which will One who performs Wudu and washes his face, his eyebrows are also washed. Those lucky Muslims who have adorned their faces with the beautiful beard should listen carefully what Professor George to states, "When one washes the face, the germs present in the beard with away. The roots of the hair become stronger when water wets bem. On fingering (by the blessing of acting on Sunnah of Khila) in the beard in the beard the risk of lice reduces. In addition, presence of wetness in the beard saves from diseases related to muscles of neck, thyroid glands and throat.

Benefits of Washing the Arms

There are three major veins in the elbow that are linked to heart, liver and brain. This organ usually remains covered. If water or air is not allowed to interact with elbows, several mental and neurological complications may arise. In Wudu, arms including elbows are washed and this act fortifies heart, liver and brain and deadle allow as fety against these diseases is obtained. Moreover this washing links a person with the radiations stored in the chest and halo of radiations starts to flow and results in strengthening of the muscles of hands.

The Benefits of Doing Mash (Moistening)

There is a major artery between head and the neck which links vertebracolumn, spinal cord and all body joints. When a person performs Mash of the neck during Wudu, the electric radiation emitting from han' enters the major artery and from there, transmits to all sections of neurological system via vertebral column and the neurological system is fortified.

Doctor of Insane People

Someone has stated, "I was doing my Wudū at a place in France; person standing there was gazing at me. When I completed Wudu, h. inquired me from where I belonged? I answered that I am a Muslin from Pakistan. He then asked me how many mental Institutes are then in Pakistan. I was surprised to listen to this strange question; however I replied that there might be two to four such institutes. He asked no what I was doing few minutes back. I replied that I was performing Wudu. He asked whether I do so daily. I replied that I do so five time daily. He amazed and said that he was a surgeon in a mental hospital and his hobby was to investigate the causes of mental disorders. According to his research, signals transmit from brain to the whole body so that organs may work. The brain floats in a fluid all the time That is why it is not shaken if one runs. Had it been rigidly placed, it would have been damaged. Some feeble nerves emerging from brain acting as conductors spread into body via neck. If hairs are lengthy and the back of neck is kept dry, dryness may occur in these conductor. and human brain may go out of order resulting in a mental upset Hence he thought that moistening the neck back might be a remedy, Just now he saw me moistening the neck back and said that you people may not suffer mental upset." In addition, moistening also prevents surstroke and Meningitis.

Benefits of Washing the Feet on undergo dirtiness at most. Infection first starts from the gap between oners of foot. Washing feet during Wudu removes away dirt and germs. Remaining germs are removed when Khilal between fingers is done. Washing feet in Wudu according to Sunnah removes diseases like sleep bortness, dryness of brain, heart sinking and depression.

The Residue from Water of Wudu

there is cure in drinking the water left from Wudii. Regarding this, a Muslim doctor stated,

- The first effect of this drink is upon the bladder, restrictions in urinary track are cleared and urine comes smoothly.
- One is freed from unlawful lust of sex.
- 1. It removes warmth of liver, stomach and bladder."

Islamic Jurists have narrated, "If one performs Wuḍū using water by a lota or some pot and if some water is left over, it is Mustaḥab to drink that water while standing and facing towards the Qiblah." (Tubyie-ul-Huyu-aig. vol. 1. pp. 14)

Man on the Moon

Dear Islamic brothers! The topic of Wudu and science was being discussed and nowadays people are more inclined towards science. There are many people in our society who are very impressed by English researchers and scientists. Such people must know that there are so many issues that scientists have failed to resolve but our Exalted Prophet And John Andrew James According to their claim, scientists have now landed on the moon but the Holy Prophet Andrew Andrew occasion of the Ma'rāj (Ascension) about 1459 years ago, Once I got, chance to attend a eulogy contest at the occasion of 'Urs Mubārak (A'lā Ḥaḍrat المحالمة المحالمة at Dār-ul-'Ulūm Amjadiyyah, 'Alamgīr Road Bāb-ul-Madīnah Karachī in which following poetic line of Ḥadāiq-i Bakhshish Sharīf was title of the contest:

The Miracle of Splitting of the Moon is quoted in Ṣaḥiḥ Bukhāri: When the disbelievers of Makkaĥ domanded the Exalted Prophet حل المعال عنوالموسلة to show a Miracle, the foly Prophet حل المعال متوجوله والمحالة displayed splitting of the moon into two seces. Allāh علامعال says in the 1st and 2^{std} verse of Parah 27, Sūra-tul-Ismar:

The Hour came near and the moon was split. And if they see a miracle, they turn away their faces and say, "This is a continual of magic."

(Parah 27, Sura Al-Qamar, Verses 1-2) (Kanzul Iman [Translation of Quran])

The renowned Mufassir, Ḥakim-ul-Ummat, Muftī Aḥmad Yār Khān المُعَالِينَةِ narrates about the section والمُعَالِينَةِ (and the moon was split) that in this verse, the great miracle of Splitting of Moon by the Exalted Prophet معادمات has been mentioned. (Nār ud- Irfān, p. 635)

Only for the Sake of Allah January

Dear Islamic brothers! After hearing the medical benefits of Wuyou would have been pleased but I must tell you that all the mediscience is based upon uncertainties. Scientific research is never final a suffers changes with the passage of time. However the commandmen of Allah Look and of His beloved Rasul Look for the sunnah only for a

Wada of Inner Being says, "When you turn your attention towards Şalāh after completing your Wudu, contemplate, 'The visible organs of my body that people see have been purified apparently, but to implore in the court of Allah without sanctifying the heart is against modesty as Allāh witnesses hearts as well.' He further explains: One making Wudü apparent organs should remember that the purity of the heart is obtained by repentance, abandoning bad habits and by adopting good morals A person who neglects the inner purity and only pays attention to the outer purity resembles the person who invites a king to his house for feast, and in order to please the king, he cleans, polishes, and colour the outside of his house but leaves the interior dirty and full of garbage

When the king would enter his house, whether he will be pleased or displeased! (Phyo-ul-'Ulim. pp. 185, vol. 1)

Sunnaĥ does not Need Scientific Support

Dear Islamic brothers, remember! The Sunnah of beloved and blessed Rasúl And Descripe doesn't need scientific support and our objective is to follow Sunnah and not the science. Let me say that when the European experts conclude something after deep research of several years, they actually confront smiling and sparkling Sunnah of the Holy Prophet And Sunday Ja. No matter how luxurious life one spends in excursions all over the world, but the true happiness will enter your heart only and only by remembrance of Allah Jane.

The tranquillity of heart is associated with intense love for the Holy Prophet Andrew James. The comforts here and Hereafter depend upon practising Sunnah and not on sitting before TV, VCR or Internet. If you are committed to avail comforts here and in Hereafter, strictly adhere with Salah and Sunnah. And to learn these, travel with Madani Qafilah's of Dawat-e-Islami regularly. Every Islamic brother is urged to travel in Madani Qafilah for twelve months in one session at least once in lifetime, for thirty days in every twelve months and for three days in every thirty days to learn Sunnah.

The Girl with a Beard

If you want to develop the spirit to learn the intentions for fasting and other deeds, please travel with devotees of Prophet in the Madani Qāfilahs of Dawat-e-Islami, the international non-political religious movement of the Quran and Sunnah and earn the blessings of both the worlds.

In order to persuade you, I present a blessing which took place in a Madanī Qāfilah. Therefore, an Islamic brother of Ranchor Line Bābul-Madīna (Karachi) made the statement:

A Strange Punishment!

Hadrat Sayyiduna Junaid Baghdadi المعالفة states that Ibn-ul-Kuraybi المعالفة said, "Once I had nocturnal emission so I intended to perform Ghusl. Since it was an extremely cold night, my Nafs (psyche) lazily suggested, "A long part of night is still remaining; what is the hurry! You may perform Ghusl at dawn." I immediately swore to give a strange punishment to my Nafs by taking bath at the very same moment wearing clothes and drying the clothes on my body. So I did that. Surely a disobedient Nafs who is sluggish in abiding by Allāh's commandments must be punished in such a way. (Kimiya-e-Sa'izdet, pp. 892, 196, 2)

Dear Islamic brothers! Did you see! Our past saints would bear severe pains to thwart evil plans of Nats. The foregoing parable contains a great lesson for the Islamic brothers who, in case of nocturnal emission at night, miss the Jama'at of Fajr or (Allah Asia forbid) even miss Salah out of lazlness feeling shyness from their family members ignoring the horrible shame of the Hereafter. Whenever Ghusl becomes Fard, one should immediately perform Ghusl. A Haddi Sharif states, "Angels do not enter the home in which there is a portrait, a dog or a Junub (a person for whom Ghusl has become mandatory due to sexual intercourses, nocturnal emission, or ejaculation of semen with lust)." (Sunon Abia Diamat 199-105, vol. 1. Haddi 227)

Method of Ghusl (Hanafi)

Make the following intention in heart without uttering any word with tongue: "I am going to take bath for acquiring purity." First wash both hands up to wrist three times. Wash excretory organs whether impurity is present over there or not. Now, if there is impurity on any part of body, remove it. Perform Wudū as done for Ṣalāh but do not wash feet. In case of performing Ghusl on some stool, wash feet as well. Now moisten the body with wet hand, especially in winter season (during this, soap may be applied). Now pour water three times over right shoulder, three times on left shoulder, on head and then three times on the whole body. Now shift apart from place of Ghusl and wash feet if not washed during Wudū. Do not face towards Qiblah during Ghusl. During bath, rub all the body by hands. Take bath at such a place where nobody could see you. If such place is not available, a man should

Thick cloth is not available, two or more thin cloths can be wrapped as Sitr as thin cloth will stick with the body and colour of thighs / mees may be exposed (Allah Jasz forbid). A woman must take more autions. Neither talk during Ghusl nor recite any invocation. After both, body may be wiped with a towel etc. Wear cloths immediately after the completion of Ghusl. If it is not a Makruh time, offering two look at Salah is Mustaliab. (Well Known books of Honoff Junsprudence)

Three Farnid of Ghush

- | Rinsing the mouth
- Sniffing water inside the nose
- Ablution of the whole apparent body. (Fatawa-e-Alamaja, pp. 13, vol. 1).

Rinsing the Mouth

faking a little water into mouth and then spitting it out quickly is not sufficient. It is essential to pass water in mouth over every part, every cavity from lips to the end of throat.

Water must reach the cavities behind the back teeth, gaps and roots of teeth, all sides of the tongue and the brim of throat. If you do not have fast, you should gargle as well (it is Sunnah to do so). If bits of betel nuts or fibres of meat are stuck in the teeth, they must be removed. If there is a fear of harm in case of removing them, removal is exempted. Prior to performing Ghust, the fibres of meat etc, were stuck in the teeth but the one bathing did not feel them and, therefore, offered Şalah having performed Ghust without removing them, later, he came to know that fibres of meat etc, were stuck in the teeth, it is now Fard for him to remove them and pass water over there. The Salah offered is valid, If a loose tooth has been fixed with some compound or fastened with wire and water could not reach below compound or wire, it is exempted (Balkie-r-Shari'ot, pp. 316, vol. 1. Francia Radinosyads, pp. 439-440, vol. 1) The thorough rinsing of mouth is Fard once in Ghusl and such thorough rinsing three times is Sunnah in Wudū.

Sniffing Water into the Nose

Quickly splashing a bit of water onto the tip of one's nose is not sufficient; it is essential to wash nose up to the end of soft bone i.e. up to the start of bard bone. This can only be done by snifting water upwards but remember, if even a part equal to a bair tip is left unwashed. Ghush will be invalid. If dried mucus has accumulated inside the nose, it is Fard to remove it. It is Fard to wash the nasal bairs, 1844, 1614, pp. 442-1430.

Ablution of the Whole Apparent Body

It is obligatory to pass water on each and every part and down (soft fine hair) of apparent body from hairs of the head up to soles of the feet. There are some such body-organs which may remain unwashed, if special care is not taken, and Ghusl will not be valid on this account either. (Buhār-e-Shari'm, pp. 317, vol. 1)

21 Cautions for both Man and Woman during Ghusl

- If a man's hair is braided, it is Fard to wash these hair from roots up to the tips having on-braid them.
- Women only need to wash the roots, it is not essential for them to undo their braids. However, if the hair is braided so tightly that water cannot reach the roots, it is essential to undo braids.
- If the hole of the pierced nose or ears is not closed, it is obligatory to pass water through the hole. During Wudit, flowing water through

- the hole of the nose only is needed but during Ghusl it must flow through the holes of both the nose and ears.
- Every single hair of the eyebrows, moustache and beard must be washed from root to tip and the skin beneath them must also be washed.
- Wash all parts of the ear and the mouth of the ear canal.
- The hair behind the ears will have to be lifted in order to wash the back of the ears.
- The joint between the chin and the throat will not be washed unless you lift your head upwards.
- 8. The arms will have to be lifted properly in order to wash the armpits.
- 9. Wash all sides of the arms.
- Wash every part of the entire back.
- 11. Lift the folds of the belly in order to wash it properly.
- Pour water into your navel. If you suspect that the navel has not been washed properly, then insert a finger inside it and wash.
- 13. Wash every down of the body from root to tip.
- 14. Wash the fold between the thigh and the area beneath the navel.
- If you are performing Ghusl in a sitting position, you must remember to wash the fold between thigh and shin.
- Wash the part where both buttocks join, especially when performing Ghusl in a standing position.
- 17. Pass water on all sides of the thighs
- 18. Pass water on all sides of the shins.

- 19. Pass water on lower side of the penis and testicles up to the end.
- 20. Pass water on surface beneath the testicles up to the end.
- An uncircumcised man should lift, if possible, the foreskin and wash penis and make water enter the additional skin, (Bahār-e-SharF ω, pp. 317, 318, vol. 1)

Six Cautions for Women

- 1. Lift up the sagging breasts and pass water beneath.
- 2. Wash the line where the belly and breasts meet.
- Wash all external parts of the vagina (above and below every fold of skin).
- It is Mustabab but not Fard to wash internals of vagina by inserting finger.
- If a woman is bathing at the termination of her menses or postnatal bleeding, it is Mustahab to clean traces of blood from within the vagina using some piece of cloth. (Bahar-e Sharr'ar, pp. 318, vol. 1)
- It is Fard to remove nail polish; otherwise Ghusl will be invalid. However, there is no harm in henna colour.

Bandage of Wound

If a bandage is wrapped over a wound and opening the bandage is harmful for the wound, just wiping over the bandage will be sufficient in this case. Likewise, if washing an organ may cause harm to a wound inflicted on some part of that organ, wiping instead of washing is sufficient. The bandage must not cover excessive area of the organ usclessly, otherwise wiping will not be sufficient. If it is not possible to wrap the bandage on injury without covering additional and unwounded of the organ e.g. if the wound is on the upper surface of the arm one bandage has to be wrapped around the arm covering unwounded as well, then if it is possible to uncover the unwounded part, it is not to wash that part after uncovering it, but if it is impossible or much opening the bandage is possible, he would not be able to the bandage again like before giving rise to the danger of harm the injury, it is sufficient to wipe the whole bandage in this case. The sounded part under the bandage will also be exempted of washing, to c-Shari'nt pp. 318 vol. 1)

Glusl will become Fard in Following Five Conditions

- Discharge of semen from its organ after leaving its origin due to lust.
- Nocturnal emission (ejaculation of semen during sleep).
- Entrance of the head of the man's penis into the woman's vagina regardless of whether or not this happens in a state of lust and whether or not ejaculation takes place; both of them will have to perform Ghush.
- After the termination of menses (Haid).
- After the termination of post-natal bleeding (Niffs). (Balin-e-Sharran, pp. 321, 232, 324 wd. 1)
 - Most of the women are under the impression that a woman is considered impure after childbirth for a definite period of 40 days, this is absolutely incorrect. Please read the following explanation of Nifas (post-natal bleeding):

Necessary Explanation of Post-Natal Bleeding

the blood that is discharged after childbirth is called 'Nifas.' The maximum duration for Nifas is forty days. If bleeding continues even after forty days, it is the indication of a disease and woman shoperform Ghusl at the end of 40th day. If the bleeding stops before days, or even just a minute after the delivery, she has to perform Ghon the termination of bleeding and start Salāh and fasting. If bleed restarted within 40 days, all the days from delivery to the ending bleeding will be counted for Nifās. For example, bleeding stopped 1 minutes after the delivery and woman started Salāh and fasting at performing Ghusl; but bleeding started again just two minutes bet the completion of forty days, all the 40 days will be counted in No i.e. Salāh and fasting of these days became null and void. Even Que Salāh and/or Qaḍā fasting offered in this duration will have to repeated. iFatāwā Radawiysah idad ūd), pp. 354, 356, vol. 41

Five Important Rulings

- If semen moved from origin without lust e.g. semen released a result of lifting weight or falling from height or due to strapplied during passing of stool, Ghusl will not become Fard b Wudū will become invalid.
- If the semen is dilute and its drops released while passing urine doing any other act without lust, Ghusl will not become Fard I Wudu will become invalid.
- If one can recall that nocturnal ejaculation had taken place there is no impression of it on clothing etc, Ghusl is not Fan (Bahār-e-Sharl'at, pp. 321, vol. 1)
- If there was lust during Şalāh and semen was felt moving but Il Muşallı (the one offering Şalāh) completed Şalāh before the relea of semen, Şalāh is valid but Ghusl has now become Pard. (Bahar Shart'al, pp. 322, vol. 1)

Discharge of semen by masturbating will make Ghusl Fard, It is a sin to do so. Such a person has been called as Mal'un (cursed) in a Hadis. Maragit Falish me' Hashiya-ng-Tahuwi, pp. 96) This (shameful act) brings about impotence and it has been observed that such a person becomes incapable for marriage.

Forment of Masturbation

Wa Hedgat Maulana Shah Ahmad Raza Khan (was asked the showing question: "There is a Majlüq (masturbator) who does not brain from this shameful act despite counselling; in which state he sall be resurrected? Please let us know some supplications which may some this habbit."

الله المراقبة المراق

(It is written in 'Shajrā-e-'Aṭṭāriyyah' that if someone recites Suralkhlāṣ 11 times every mogning, Satan along with all his troops will ot succeed in making such a person commit sin unless he himself commits sin. (For detailed information concerning the shocking harms of masturbation, please read the 18 page booklet 'Amrad Pasandī ki "abāhkāriyān' published by Maktaba-tul-Madīna)

Method of Ghusl in Streaming Water

If someone takes both in streaming water such as river or canal an stays in water for a while, the Sunan of washing thrice, maintaining order in washing and making Wudū – all will be fulfilled. It is no required to move organs three times in streaming water. However, a case of performing Ghusl in a pool (where the water is still) organ whave to be moved thrice to act upon the Sunnah of washing thrice Standing in rain (or under tap or shower) has rulings of streaming water. In case of making Wudū in streaming water, just keeping the organs into water for a while is sofficient. Similarly, in case of making Wudū in still water, moving the organs thrice in water amounts to washing the organ thrice. (Baliar-e-Sharriot, pp. 322, vol. 1) (Dar-re-Makhan-Rad-shal-Makhan, pp. 320-321, vol. 1) In all these cases of Wudū and Ghuzrinsing of mouth and washing of nose will have to be done.

Ruling of Shower is Same as that of Streaming Water

"Fatawa e-Ahl-e-Sunnat" (unpublished) states that performing Ghuunder a fountain (or shower) is similar to having a bath in flowing water, which means that if one remains under it for the time it takes to perform Wudu or perform Ghusl, then the Sunnah of washing the organs three times will be fulfilled. The book 'Durr-e-Mukhtar' mentions that if one stands in flowing water, a large pond, or under the rain for the time it takes to perform Ghusl and Wudu, then he has performed the complete Sunnah. (Dur-ro-Mukhtar-o-Rud-duk-Muhan, pp. 1202 vol. 1) Remember Rinsing of mouth and washing of nose are required in Ghusl and Wudu.

Cautions When Using a Shower

Several Intentions in one Ghusl

If several conditions co-exist for Ghusl, for instance, if one had a nocturnal emission and it is Eid day as well as Friday, performing one with intentions for all three conditions is sufficient and he will warded for all. (Bahar-e-Shart'at, pp. 325, vol. 1)

volorming Ghusl in Rain

Reductions (Jud 10), pp. 306, pp. 3) When bathing in rain etc. one ald wrap a thick shawl over trousers so that the colour of thighs is exposed to others when wet trousers stick with the body.

The same ruling applies for seeing towards projected full organ of Sitr I a person wearing tight clothes.

He Careful while Bathing Naked to case of performing Ghusi naked alone or wearing trousers that may reveal colour of thighs due to sticking when wet, ensure that neither one nor back is towards the Holy Ka'bah.

If Ghusl Causes Cold, Then ...?

one is suffering from cold or eye infection etc. and according to his correct guess, his disease will intensify on taking bath from head or other diseases will attack him, he is allowed to take bath from neck, but he has to rinse mouth and sniff water into nose. After wiping every sort of the head with wet hand, his Ghusl will be complete. After healing from ailment, he has to wash the head; complete renewal of Ghusl is not necessary. (Bahar-e-Shari'at. pp. 318, vol. 1)

Caution While Using a Bucket for Ghusl

While using a bucket for Ghusl, place the bucket on some stool ete that water droplets do not fall into it. Also do not place mug used Ghusl on the floor.

Knot in Hair

If there is a knot in hair, it is not necessary to until and wash it in Gho. (Buliar-e-Shari'at, pp. 318, vol. 1)

Ten Rulings of Reciting or Touching the Holy Quran in the State of Impurity

- I. If Ghusl is due on somebody, it is Haram for him to enter Masj perform Tawaf, touch the Holy Quran, recite Quran witho touching it, write a verse of the Quran, write a Quranic Ta'wiż (t) is Haram only when touching the paper while writing is involve otherwise it is allowed). (Fatawa-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat-unpublished) Similarl touching such a Quranic Ta'wiż, touching or wearing a ring the has Quranic verses or Hurūf-e-Muqatta'at written on it is all Haram. (Bahar-e-Shart'at, pp. 326, vol. 1) (There is no harm in wearing touching a Ta'wiż that is wrapped in plastic and sewn in leather or cloth)
- If the Quran is in a casing, there is no harm in touching the cawithout Wudû or Ghusl. (Bahar-e-Shuri'at, pp. 326, vol. 1)
- Similarly, there is no harm in holding the Holy Quran with such a cloth or handkerchief etc. which is neither associated to your drew nor to the Holy Quran in any way. (ibid)
- It is Ḥarām to touch the Holy Qurān with sleeve of shirt or with the part of headscarf or with one end of shawl while other end o

on shoulder because all of these things are directly associated with the Junub. (ibid)

- There is no barm in reciting a verse of the Holy Quran with the intention of Du'ā or for spiritual benefit e.g. reading "المُعَالِينَ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ الْعَالِمُ اللّهِ اللّهِ الْعَلَى اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهِ اللّهُ الللّهُ اللّهُ الللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ الللللّهُ الللللّهُ اللللللللللل
- 6. The three Quis of the Holy Quran may be recited by leaving out the word Qui with the intention of praising Allah days. Reading with the word Qui even for the praise of Allah days is not permissible (when Ghusl is due) as in this case, it is defined as Quran; intention is not applicable. (ibid)
- It is Ḥarām to touch the Holy Qurān or any Qurānic verse without Wudu, However, there is no harm in reciting it by heart or by looking at it (without touching). (Bahār-e-Sharī at, pp. 326, vol. 1)
- If someone does not have Wudū or if Ghusl is due on him, it is Ḥarām for him to touch any utensils (such as plates, cups etc.) that have Qurānic verses inscribed upon them. (ibid, pp. 327)
- Use of such utensils is disliked for all; however, there is no harm in drinking water etc. in such utensils for the sake of curing. (ibid)
- The same rules apply for touching or reciting translation of the Holy Quran in Urdu, Persian, or any other language. (ibid)

صَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى تَحَمَّد

صَلُوا عَلَى الْحَبِيْب

Touching Religious Books without Wudū

It is Makrüh-e-Tanzihi for the one who does not have Wudu as well as the one on whom Ghusl is Fard to touch books of Figh (Islamic Jurisprudence), Tafsir (Commentary of Qurān) and Ḥadiš. However, there is no harm in touching them using even such a piece of cloth that one is wearing. However, touching any Qurānic verse or its translation present in these books is Ḥarām. (Bahār-r-Shurr'at. pp. 327, vol. 1)

One should take care when reading Islamic books or newspapers without Wudu as usually they contain Quranic verses and their translations.

Recitation of Durud Sharif in the State of Impurity

- There is no harm in reciting Durûd and Du'ā etc. when Ghusl is due; however, it is preferable to rinse one's mouth or perform. Wudû first. (Bahār e Shart'at, pp. 327 vel. 1)
- 2. Replying to Ażan is also permissible. (Patawa-e-Alangiei, pp. 38, col. 1)

If Finger has Coating of a Layer of Ink ...?

Flour coating on a cook's nails, ink coating on a writer's nails and stains left by flies and mosquitoes (for everyone) will not affect Ghusl if left unwashed out of inattention. However, on coming to know about it, it is necessary to remove the coating / stain and wash the surface underneath; the Şalāh previously offered without removing the stain out of inattention will be considered valid. (Buhār-e-Sharī'at, pp. 319, vol. 1)

When does a Child Reach Adulthood?

Boys are considered adult when they have their first nocturnal emission between the age of 12 and 15 years, and girls are considered adult when they have their first nocturnal emission between the age of 9 and the laws of Shari'ah. Hence in case of achieving adulthood by nocturnal mission. Ghus becomes due on him/her. If no sign of adulthood appears, both (boy and girl) will be considered adult when they reach the age of complete 15 years according to Hijri calendar. (Fatiswa Radawiyush tural), pp. 630, vol. 19)

Order of Placing the Books

- The Holy Quran should be placed above all books, then the books of Tafair, Ḥadīš, Fiqh and other Islamic books be placed in that order, (Bahār-e-Shair'at, pp. 326, vol. 1)
- Do not place any thing, even a pen, upon the books. Likewise, do not place any thing upon a baggage containing the (Islamic) books. (1641)

Using of Paper for Packaging

- It is prohibited to use pages of religious literature for packaging.
 Use of bed-sheets, dinner mats having prints of couplets or writings
 (e.g. name of company etc.) in any language is prohibited. (Bahar-e-Share la, pp. 328, vol. 1)
- The alphabets of all languages should be valued. (For further details, please refer to the chapter "Faizān-e-Bismiliāh" in the book 'Faizān-e-Sunnat')
- Usually, company labels are stitched at a corner of prayer mats.
 These should be removed.

The Image of Holy Kabah on Prayer Mats

In case of using prayer mats printed with images of the Holy Ka'bah or the sacred Green Dome, there is a risk of placing foot or knee on the sacred images while using them for prayers. Hence, use of such prayer mats is not suitable. (Falance-e-Ahli-e-Samual)

A Cause of Satanic Whispers

Satanic whispers (Waswasah) are caused by urinating in bathroom Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Abdullah bin Mughaffal has narrated that the Holy Prophet La da sate that a laid down prohibition from urinating in bathroom and said, "No doubt, this usually causes Satanic whispers," (Sumon Alsa Dāwad, pp. 44, vol. 1, Hadri 27)

Tayammum (Wiping)

Farāid of Tayammum

There are three Fardid in Tayammum:

- 1. Intention.
- 2. Wiping hands on the entire face.
- Wiping both arms including the elbows. (Bahār-e-Sharrat, pp. 353; 354, 355, rel. 1).

Ten Sunan of Tayammum

- 1. Reciting بنبرانه
- 2. Hitting the hands on the ground
- 3. Moving the hands back and forth on the ground
- 4. Keeping gap among the fingers
- Jerking the hands by hitting the base of one thumb against the other but taking caution not to make a clapping sound
- 6. Wiping the face first and then the hands

- Wiping them one after the other without delay
- Wiping the right arm first and then the left arm
- Picking (doing Khilāl of) the beard
- (i) Picking (doing Khilāl of) the fingers if dust has reached (among the fingers). If dust has not reached e.g. if hands were hit (for Tayammum) on stone etc. carrying no dust, Khilāl of the fingers is Far(l, There is no need to hit the hands on the ground again for Khilāl. (Bahare Shari'at, pp. 256, vol. 1)

Method of Tayammum (Hanafi)

Make Niyyat (Intention) to perform Tayanunum (Niyyat is the name of the intention of heart and pronouncing it verbally is better. For example, make intention in these words: I am performing Tayammum to purify myself from impurity and to make myself eligible for offering Salāh). Read it and, with fingers spread wide open, hit hands on some pure object that is earthen in nature (e.g. stones, Ilmestone, bricks, walls, soil etc.) and drag the hands back and forth on that object, If hands become over-dusty, reduce excessive dust by jerking hands, Wipe entire face with hands such that no part of the face is left un-wiped; Tayammum will not be valid if even a part equivalent to a hair is left unwiped. Again hit hands on that object like before and wipe both arms from the fingertips up to (and including) the elbows. A better way to do this is to first wipe right hand with inner side of four fingers of the left hand, leaving the left thumb, starting from exterior side of fingertips of the right hand and dragging on exterior side up to the right elbow. Then, wipe with palm of left hand from interior side of right elbow up to the right wrist dragging left palm on interior side. Finally, use the inside of the left thumb to wipe the back of the right thumb. The left arm should be wiped in the same manner using right hand,

And if wiping is done with palm and fingers jointly, Tayammum will still be valid whether traversing is done from fingers towards elbow or vice versa. But this would be contrary to Sunnah. Tayammum does not require wiping of head and feet. (Behäre Shart'et, pp. 353-354, 356, 10). 1)

Twenty-Five Madani Pearls of Tayammum

- The thing that neither turns into ash nor melts and nor softens on being burnt is classed as earthen and may be used for Tayammum. Tayammum is allowed with sand, limestone, kohl, sulphur, stone, emerald, and other gems, regardless of whether or not dust is present on them. (Buhar e-Sharim, 19x. 357, vol. 1. Bulican-Ralig, pp. 257, vol. 1)
- Tayanmum is allowed with pots made up of baked bricks, percelain or clay. However, Tayanmum will not be allowed if they are coated with a layer of non-earthen material e.g. glass. (Birhor-e-Short'at. pp.
 258, vol. 1)
- 3. The dust, stone etc. that is being used for Tayammum must be pure i.e. there should be no traces of impurity on it. Further, even if the impression of impurity had disappeared due to evaporation, it is not allowable for Tayammum. (thid, pp. 357) If a piece of land, a wall, or mud on the ground becomes stained with impurity but the stain then dries and vanishes due to the blowing of the wind or the heat of the sun, they are considered pure for Salah, but cannot be used for Tayammum.
- Mere suspicion that it may have been impure is useless and not applicable. (thid, pp. 357)
- A piece of wood, cloth, carpet etc, can be used for Tayammum if it is covered in so much dust that impressions of fingers develop on it on hitting hands. (ibid. pp. 359)

- Tayammum is permissible from lime, mud or brick wall of Masjid or home provided it is not coated with oil paint, plastic paint, matte finish, wall paper or something which is non-earthen. If marble is fitted on wall, it is allowable for Tayammum.
- If Wudu or Ghusl is due on somebody and water is not in his reach, he may perform Tayammum in the place of Wudu and Ghusl. (Hahār-e-Shart'at. pp. 346. vnl. 1)
- 8. If there is a true fear that Wudu or Ghusl would intensify or prolong the illness, or it has been personal experience that whenever Wudu or Ghusl was performed, the illness intensified or, similarly, any good and capable Muslim doctor who is not Fasiq (one who does not follow obligatory religious rulings) suggests that water will cause harm, Tayammum may be performed in these cases. (Balian et al. Shart of pp. 340, vol. 1) (Dat-re-Makhtar-o-Rod-dul-Muhtar, pp. 441, 442, vol. 1)
- If water causes harm on bathing from head, take bath from neck and perform wiping of complete head. (Bahar-e-Sharf'at, pp. 347, vol. 1)
- Tayammum is permissible if presence of water is not known within a radius of one mile. (But)
- If Zam Zam water is available in a quantity by which Wudu is possible, Tayammum is not permissible, (16(a))
- If there is severely cold and it is strongly suspected that bathing would result in death or illness; and no means of protection against cold after taking bath is available either, Tayammum is permissible, (101d, pp. 348)
- 13. If a prisoner is not allowed to perform Wudu, he should perform Tayammum and pray his Şalāh but repeat this Şalāh later. If jailers or enemies do not let the prisoner offer prayer, then he has to offer Şalāh by gestures, and repeat this Şalāh later on. (16)(4, 10), 349.

- If it is suspected that the caravan will go out of sight (or train will leave) because of searching water. Tayammum is permissible. (1888) 350)
- 15. One was sleeping in the Masjid and Ghusi became Fard (because of nocturnal emission), he should perform Tayammum instantly at the same place. This is the most cautious way, "Fasiwa Redungsyoli (Ital iil), pp. 479, vol. 3) He must then instantly leave the Masjid. Any delay is Harâm. (Rahar-e-Shart at, pp. 352, vol. 1)
- 16. If the available time for Şalāh is too short that the Şalāh would become Qadā (i.e. its stipulated time would elapse) in case of making Wudū or Ghusl, perform Tayammum and offer Şalāh. Then repetition of that Şalāh is must having performed Wudū/ Ghusl. (Father Radam/yuñ (Jad ids. pp. 307, vol. 3)
- If a woman whose menses or post-natal bleeding has ended does not have access to water, she has to perform Tayammum. (Bolidi-u-Shart'at, pp. 352, (ed. 1)
- 18. If a person is present at such a place where neither water nor any earthen object is available for Tayanmum, he should perform all acts of Şalāh within that Şalāh timing without making intention for Şalāh. (Bahare-Shart or op. 353, vol. 1) On having access to water or earthen object, that Şalāh will have to be offered after performing Wudü / Tayammum.
- The method of Tayammum in place of Wudu and Ghusl is same, (Al-Jasharat-un-Nayatrah, pp. 28, vol. 1)
- 20. If Ghusl is due on somebody, he does not need to make Tayammum twice for Wudü and Ghusl; instead he may make intention for both in the same Tayammum and if intention was made for only Ghusl or only Wudü, it is also sufficient. (Baliar-e-Sharrat, pp. 354, vol. 1)

The acts that nullify Wudu or Ghusl will also nullify Tayammum.

Access to water will also nullify Tayammum. (thid, pp. 360)

If a woman is wearing some jewellery in her nose she must remove in otherwise the part of the nose beneath the jewellery would not be wiped. (ibid. 355)

The part of the lips that is visible when the mouth is closed in a natural position (not too tight) must be wiped. If someone shut his mouth so tightly that some part remained un-wiped, Tayammum will not be valid. (1864) The same ruling applies in case of closing the eyes very tightly. (1864)

If one is wearing ring or watch, these must be removed to wipe beneath them. Islamic sisters should move their bangles in order to wipe the skin beneath. More care is to be taken whilst performing Tayammum as compared to Wudū, (ibid)

If a sick or such a disabled person who does not have hands and legs cannot perform Tayammum himself, somebody else should help him perform Tayammum. In this case, the helping person does not need to make intention; instead, the one being helped in performing Tayammum will have to make his intention. (ibid, 354) (Fotosca-: 'Alamajo'i, 1982, pp. 26, vol. 1)

ladani Suggestion

og through the booklets 'Method of Wudu' and 'Method of Şalāh' be useful in learning the rulings concerning Wudu and Şalāh bectively.

Allāh بالمجالة, make us read, understand, and explain to others the ng of Ghusl over and over again and make us perform Ghusl ording to Sunnah, Amin!

Recovery from Cancer

greatly blessed Dawat-e-Islami. Many patients suffering from deadly diseases declared incurable by doctors have found the contheir lethal diseases in the Madani Qāfilahs. According to the stater made by an Islamic brother of Maripur (Bāb-ul-Madina, Karachi) Islamic brother living at Hawk's bay (Bāb-ul-Madina, Karachi) cancer; he travelled with a Madani Qāfilah of Dawat-e-Islami International non-political religious movement of the Quran Sunnah in the company of Prophet's devotees.

During the journey, he looked quite sad and disappointed participants of the Qāfilah reassured him and made supplication him. One morning, while he was sitting, all of a sudden, he vomit peace of flesh, he felt greatly relieved after the vomiting. Having returning, the Madani Qāfilah he went to see a doctor and had his to done again; he was shocked to see results which indicated that he no longer suffering from cancer.

Four Narrations about the Blessings of Ażān

the grave (i.e. his body will remain safe from insects)," (Mar.Jani Kabir, L. 322, vol. 12, Hadii 1.3554)

2. Domes of Pearls

The most Exalted Prophet List classes and if a said, "I went in to the Heaven where I saw domes of pearls, its dust was of musk. I asked, "U Jibrail! For whom these (domes) are?" He replied, "For the Imam (U one who leads Ṣalāh) and Mūažžin (the one who utters Ažān) of you Ummah," (Al-Jami'us-Sugir, pp. 255, Hadri 4179)

3. Previous Sins are Forgiven

The beloved and blessed Prophet Asia Said, "The one uttering Asia for five Şalāh due to faith with the intention of gaining Sawah his previous sins will be forgiven, and the one leading his companion in five Şalāh due to faith for gaining Šawah, his previous sins will be forgiven," (Sanua Kubrit, pp. 636, vol. 1, Hodis 2039)

4. Fish Also Seek Forgiveness

It has been reported: Everything including even the fish in river an supplication of forgiveness for those ultering Ażān. When the Mūažāl atters Ažān, the angels also repeat; when he finishes, the angels keep asking the supplication of forgiveness for him up to the Judgmen Day. The one who dies in the state of being a Mūažžīn will not be tormented in his grave, and he remains safe from the agonies at the time of death, the hardness and narrowness of the grave. (Derived from Tapār-e-Sūro-e-Tūsuļ-til-Ghazāti uguslated, pp. 14. Marānz-al-Auliyā, Labore)

Excellence of Replying to Aźān

The Holy Prophet المعلى عليه المحال عليه once said, "O women! Whenever you hear Bilâl uttering Azān and Iqāmat, you should also say what he will write one hundred thousand good deeds for for every Kalimah, raise your one thousand ranks and will remove or one thousand sins." Listening to this, the women asked, "This wab) is for women; what is for men?" The beloved and blessed raphet Asydocal Junio & replied. "There is double (Sawab) for men."

Earn 30 Million and 24 Hundred Thousand Good Deeds

our Islamic brothers! How enormous Allah's mercy is! How easy He has made it for us to earn good deeds, get our ranks raised and our sins forgiven, but regretfully, we are heedless despite so many aditations. The detail of the excellence of Ażan's reply mentioned in the foregoing Hadis is as follows.

ोचि द्वारिक are two Kalimat. The whole Azan consists of 15 Kalimat. li an Islamic sister replies to one Ažān, i.e. she says what the Mūažžin ys, she will get 15 hundred thousand good deeds, her 15 thousand ranks will be raised and her 15 thousand sins will be removed. There is أَلِيُّكُمْ أَخِيرٌ فِنَ النَّذِهِ , louble Sawab for Islamic brothers. In the Azan of Fajr n also said twice, so there are 17 Kalimát in Fajr Azán. Therefore, the woman replying to Fajr Ażān will get 17 hundred thousand good deeds, her 17 thousand ranks will be raised and 17 thousand sins will be forgiven, and all this Sawāb will be doubled for the Islamic brothers. is also said twice, so there are 17 Kalimāt in iqamat, and so the Sawab of the reply to Iqamat is equal to that of Fajr Ażān. In short, if any Islamic sister succeeds in replying the Ażān as well as Iqamat five times daily, she will attain 10 million 62 hundred thousand good deeds, her one hundred 62 thousand ranks will be mised and her one hundred 62 thousand sins will be forgiven and Islamic brothers will get double Sawab. In other words, he will gain 30 million 24 hundred thousand good deeds, his 3 hundred 24 thousant ranks will be raised and his 3 hundred 24 thousand sins will be forgive.

The Replier of Ażān Entered the Heaven

The Method of Replying to Ażān and Iqāmat

The Müażżin should utter the Kalimat of Ażān with pauses, at the should utter the Kalimat of Ażān with pauses, at the should take a pause for the amount of time in which the replier can reply. Not taking the pause is Makrūh and therefore, repeating such Ażān is Mustahab. (Dur-re-Mukinar, pp. 66, vol. 1) The replier should say at the should reply to the Mūażżin, i.e. when the Mūażżin is silent. He should reply to the other Kalimāt in the same way. When the Mūażżin says at the first time, the replier should say:

May Allāh's Durūd upon you Yā Rasūlallāh المرابعة المنازعة المالية المنازعة المالية المنازعة المالية المالية

a the Müazzin utters these words again, the replier should say:

Ya Rasulallah Andreas parelle! You are the solace of my eyes.

it time, make thumb nails touch eyes and say:

Va Allah dade! Benefit me from my faculties of listening and seeing.

never does this, the Holy Prophet ஆகுக்கிக்கத் will make him ar Heaven accompanying him, (Red-dal-Muhtar, pp. 84, vol. 2)

each time, and it لَا يَتُوْ وَالْمُوا أَلَّا بِاللهِ say حَيْ عَنِي الصَّلَىٰ and حَيْ عَنِي الصَّلَىٰ say لا Inter to say both (what the Mūažžin says as well as تَا عَلَيْ الصَّلَىٰ and also Whatever Allah ರವಾ wanted happened and whatever He did not want did not happen.

« re-Mukhtär-o-Rad-dul-Muktär, pp. 82. vol. 2) (Fatowo-e-Alamgiri, pp. 57, vol. 1)

reply to اَلصَّلُواُ خَذِا فِنَ النَّوْمِ reply to

You are true and plous and have said right. (Dur-re-Makhār-o-Rad-dul-Muhiār, pp. 83, yol. 2) Replying to Iqamat is Mustahab. Its reply is similar to that of A. The only difference is that in reply to قَدْقَاتُوالشَّالُةُ the replier should أقامها الله وأدامها مادامت الشموث والأرش

May Allah Jank persist it until sky and earth exist!

Fourteen Madani Pearls of Ażān

- If the primary Jamā'at of five Fard Şalah including Jumu'd held in the Masjid at stipulated time, it is Sunnat-e-Muakkadob utter Ażān for them, and its emphasis is like that of Wājib. If A is not uttered, all the people over there will be sinner. (Bal-Shari'at, pp. 464, vol. 1)
- If somebody offers Şalāh at home in the city, the Ażān of the la Masjid will be enough but it is Mustahab to utter Ažān. (Roc. Muhār, pp. 62, 78, voi. 2)
- 3. If somebody is out of the city or in a village, orchard or farm Ażān of the city/village will be enough provided these places near the city/village; but it is better to say Ażān. However, if the places are not near, that Ażān will not be enough. Here, nearmeans that the voice of Ażān (given in city / village) could rethere. (Patāwa-e-'Alamgirī, pp. 54, vol. 1)
- If a traveller did not utter Ażān or Iqāmat or both, it is Makrůlihe utters only Iqāmat, there is no repugnance, but it is better to Ażān also, whether he is alone or with other companions. (Bah). Shari'at. pp. 471, vol. 1) (Dar-re-Mukhtūr-o-Rad-dal-Muhtūr, pp. 78, vol. 2)
- Utter Ażān after the time has started. If it is uttered before # time begins or if the time starts during the Ażān, the Ażān sho be repeated in both the cases. (Hiddinals, pp. 45, vol. 1) The Mūažžin should make a habit of ascertaining the timings of Salāh with the help of timetable. At some places, the Mūažžin starts uttering Ažān before the time begins. It is a Madanī request to the Imāms as well as the Masjid committee to keep an eye on this matter.

- It is Makruh for women to say Ażān and Iqāmat whether they are offering Şalāh (within its time) or Qaḍā (after the clapsing of its stipulated time). (Dio-ir-Makhan pp. 72, vol. 2)
- It is impermissible for women to offer Salah with Jama'at. (Dur-re-Makhar, pp. 367, vol. 2. Bahar-e-Shari'at pp. 388, vol. 1)
- 8. A clever child can also utter Azan. (Dur-re-Mukhtur, pp. 75, wit %)
- Though uttering Ażan without Wudū is valid, it is Makruh to do so. (Bahar-r-Shart'ar, pp. 466, vol. 1, Maraqii falab, pp. 64)
- 10. The Ażan uttered by a cunuch, transgressor even if he is a scholar, an intoxicated person, a mad person, the one on whom Ghusl is due and unwise child is Makrūh. Therefore, the Ażan uttered by any of the aforementioned people should be repeated. (Bahar-e-Shañ'an, pp. 466, vol. 1, Dur-re-Makhtar, pp. 25, vol. 2)
- It is better if the Můažžín is Imám as well. (Dur-re-Mukhiar, pp. 88, vol. 2)
- Ażān should be uttered aloud outside the Masjid facing the Qiblah with the fingers inside the ears but raising the voice of Ażān beyond one's strength is Makrūh. (Bahār-e-Sharī'at, pp. 468, 469, vol. 1. 'Alaugūī, pp. 55, vol. 1)
- 13. Say القَارَةُ having turned face towards the right side and القَارَةُ for towards the left side even if the Ażān is not for Ṣalāĥ e.g. the Ažān uttered into the ear of a newly born baby. Turn only the face, not the whole body, (Durre-Mukhiār, pp. 66, vol. 2, Bahār-e-Sharī'at, pp. 469.

vol. 1) Some Müażżinin start moving their face slightly having uttered the word &. It is not correct. The correct method is to first turn face to the right or left side completely and then start saying the word &.

14. It is Mustahab to say اَكُمُ اَلْقَالُ after كَا مُنَ الْقَالِ in Fajr Ażân. (Dur-ne-Mukhan, pp. 67, vol. 2) If it is not uttered, Ażân will still be valid. (Qānān-ce-Shari'ar, pp. 89)

Nine Madanī Pearls about Replying to Ażān

- In addition to the Ażan of Şalah, other Ażan such as the one uttered at the time of the birth of a baby should also be replied. (Rad-dui-Mahtir, pp. 82, vol. 2)
- 2. Muqtadis should never reply to the Ażān of Khuţbah, It is most cautious to refrain in this case. However, there is no harm if the reply to Ażān or supplication (between two Khuṭbāt) is made in heart without ottering any word with the tongue. However, if the Imām replies to the Ażān or makes supplication even with the tongue, it is quite permissible. (Fatawa Radowiyyah (Jad āl), pp. 300-301, vol. 8)
- 3. There is a commandment to reply for the hearer of Ażān. (Forawo-e-Ālumgirī, pp. 57; vol. 1) A Junub (the one who is to do Ghusl because of intercourse or nocturnal emission) should also reply to Ażān. However, a woman undergoing menses or post-natal bleeding, audience of Khuṭbaĥ, performers of funeral Ṣalāĥ, those having intercourse or those passing stool or urine need not to reply. (Durre-Mukhañ, pp. 81, vol. 2)
- When Ażān is going on, one should stop every type of work such as talking, Salām, reply to Salām and even recitation of the Holy Qurān etc. for the duration in which Ażān is being uttered, Listen - to the Ażān attentively and make its reply. Do also the same while Iqāmat is going on, (Buhār-e-Sheor'ai, pp. 473, vol. 1, Dur-re-Mukitar pp. 80. 87, vol. 2, 'Alamgor, pp. 57, vol. 1)

- It is safer to stop walking, eating, picking or laying a utensil or other things, playing with children, talking by gestures etc. during Ażán.
- The one talking during Ażan is in the danger of losing faith at the time of death, (Balan-e-Shart'm, pp. 473, vol. 1)
- If anybody hears the Ażan while walking, it is better for him to stop walking and remain silent for the amount of time in which Ażan is uttered and reply to the Ażan. (Fatama e Alamgiri, pp. 57, vol. 1, Baldin e Shari at. pp. 473, vol. 1)
- If anybody hears more than one Ażān, he is required to reply to the first Ażān only but it is better to reply to all of them. (Dar-w-Mukhar-a-Rad-dal Muhifir, pp. 82, vol. 2)
- If anybody did not reply during the Ażān and much time has not passed yet, he should still reply. (Dur-re-Mukhiar, pp. 83, vol. 2)

Seven Madani Pearls about Iqamat

- It is better to say Iqamat just behind the Imam in the Masjid; if it is not conveniently possible to utter Iqamat just behind the Imam, then it should be uttered at the right side. (Follows Rodawiyyah (Jad Id), pp. 372, vol. 5)
- Iqâmat is a more emphatic Sunnah than Ażân. (Rad-did-Muttier, pp. 67, vol. 2)
- 3. It is Mustahab to reply to Iqamat. (Patawa-e-Alongiri, pp. 57, vol. 1)

- Say the words of Iqāmat quickly without pauses in between. (Bahin e-Shirr'ar, pp. 470, vol. 1)
- 5. Turn face to the right and left side whilst saying عَنَ الصَّلَةِ and خَلَ الصَّلَةِ respectively during Iqamat as well. ¿Dun-re-Muhluār, pp. b/ (vol. 2)
- 6. Iqāmat is the right of the person who uttered Ażān. However with the consent of the utterer of Ażān, someone else can also say Iqāmat. If the Iqāmat is uttered without the permission of the Mūnžžin (the one who uttered Ažān) and he resented it, then it is Makrūh, (Fouquese-Alemgin, pp. 54, vol. 1)
- 7. If a person comes during Iqamat, it is Makrūh for him to wait whilst standing, instead, he should sit down. Similarly, the people who are already sitting in the Masjid should also keep seated; all should stand when the Mukabbir says المالات تعلق المالات الما

Eleven Mustaḥab Occasions for Uttering Ażān

- 1. In the ears of infant.
- 2. In the ears of a grieved person.
- 3. In the ears of an epileptic patient.
- 4. In the ears of a furious and grumpy person.
- 5. In the ears of an irritating animal.
- 6. In the severity of fighting.
- 7. Eruption of fire.
- 8. After the burial of dead body.

- 4 Defiance of Jinn (or when a Jinn captures someone)
- If someone forgets the way in the forest and there is nobody to show the way (Buhar-e-Shurt'ai, pp. 466, vol. 1, Rad-dul-Muhtur, pp. 62, vol. 2) and
- It is Mustabab to utter Ażán, during the period of Epidemic. (Babare-Shari at, pp. 466, vol. 1, Fatawa Radawiyyak, pp. 379, vol. 5)

l'o Utter Ażān in the Masjid is Contrary to Sunnaĥ

Nowadays, the trend of uttering Ažān in the Masjid has developed, which is in contradiction to Sunnah. It is stated in 'Alamgiri etc. that Ažān should be uttered outside the Masjid, not inside. (Farance-'Alamgor, op 55, wel 1) Imām of Ahl-e-Sunnat, Revivalist of the Ummah, Reviver of the Sunnah, Eradicator of Bid'ah, Scholar of Sharī'ah, Guide of l'arīqah, Fountain of Blessing, 'Allāmah, Maulānā, Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāfīz, Al-Qārī Ash-Shāh Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān (Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāfīz, Al-Qārī Ash-Shāh) Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān (Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāfīz, Al-Qārī Ash-Shāh) Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān (Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāfīz, Al-Qārī Ash-Shāh) Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān (Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥāj Al-Ḥ A'là Hadrat Andrews says, 'Although the revival of Sunnah is one of the specific duties of the scholars, there is a general commandment for such Muslims for whom it is possible. The Muslims of every city should revive the Sunnah of uttering Ažān including the second Ažān of Jumu'ah outside the Masjid in their cities or at least in their Masjid and earn the reward of 100 martyrs. The Holy Prophet Andrews Jumb Jesaid, 'Whoever holds onto my Sunnah firmly at the time of Fasād (deviation from religion) of my Ummah, he will attain the reward of 100 martyrs.' (An Zahakat-Katin iti Baihan), pp. 118. Hadis 207) (Faranat Radan) (Jud tal., pp. 402, 403, vol. 2).

Earn the Reward of 100 Martyrs

This Hadis has been narrated in the book 'Žuhud' by Baihaki. For further details about this, go though the fifth volume of Fatawa-e-Razaviyyah called "Al-Ażan wal Iqāmah." (Published by Raza Foundation).

Recite this Durud before Ażan

Prior to Azan and Iqamat, recite جنم الد والمناه and the following four verses of Durad Sharifi

For a pause between Durud Sharif and Ażān, make the following announcement:

"In the honour of Ażān, stop talking and other activities and earn hoard of good deeds by replying to Ażān."

Then, utter Ażán, Likewise, make the following announcement between Durūd and Iqāmat: 'Make the intention of I'tikāf, if you have a mobile phone, please switch it off.' I have made the Madani request of reciting Tasmiyah and Durūd Sharif before Ażān and Iqāmat in the desire of earning perpetual reward. As for the suggestion of a pause (between Durūd Sharif and Ażān/Iqāmat), it is taken from Fatāwā-e-Razaviyyah, Therefore, replying to a question, Imām-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat ($\frac{1}{2} \text{ al $\frac{1}{2} \text{ b}}$) said, "There is no harm in reciting Durūd Sharif before Iqāmat but there should be a pause between them or the tone of Durūd Sharif should be so different from that of Iqāmat (for example, the sound of Durūd Sharif should be quieter than that of Iqāmat) that there should be a clear-cut distinction between them and people should not regard Durūd as a part of Iqāmat." (Fatāwā Rodowiyyah (Iad ād), pp. 385-vol. 5)

Satanic Whisper

As Durid Sharif did not use to be recited prior to Ažān during the apparent life of the Holy Prophet Association as well as in the reign of the first four blessed caliphs, doing that is a misleading innovation and a sin.

Rebuttal of this Satanic Whisper

If the principle is accepted that doing any such act not done in that blessed era is a misleading innovation and a sin, the whole existing system will be distorted. Just 12 examples out of innumerable ones are being presented making it clear that these acts were not performed in that era, but have been adopted by every one in the present era.

- Ḥajjāj Bin Yūsuf introduced diacritical marks in the Holy Quran in the year 95A.H.
- 2. He also introduced the use of full stops at the end of each Ayah.

- 3. Publication of the Holy Quran in printed form
- In past, there used to be no arch in the centre of the Masjid for the Imam to stand. During the reign of Walid Marwani, Sayyiduna 'Umar bin 'Abdul 'Aziz to be introduced it which is now found in every Masjid.
- 5. Six Kalimat (Articles of Faith).
- 6. Sarf and Nahw.
- 7. Knowledge of Hadis and its different kinds.
- 8. Dars-e-Nizāmī.
- 9. Four orders of Shari'at and Tariqut.
- 10. Verbal intention of Salah.
- 11. The pilgrimage of Haj by air.
- Ihad with the latest scientific weapons.

In the present era, no body regards any of the aforementioned acts as a sin despite the fact that they did not exist in that blessed era, so why only reciting Durūd Sharīf on the beloved Prophet مَا المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَّ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَّ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَا المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَا المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَ المُعَالِينَا المُعَالِينَا المُعَالِينَا المُعَا loever promoted any good method among the Muslims and after him it acted upon, the reward of the followers will also be written in the book deeds of the person who started it and the reward of the followers will not be reduced."

other words, whoever promotes any good act in Islam deserves at reward. Similarly, without any doubt, the fortunate person who beloped the trend of reciting Durud before Ażān and Iqāmat also rives perpetual reward. He as well as the Muslims acting on that till the Day of Judgement will attain reward without any reduction my one's reward.

ாe, a question may arise in someone's mind as to what the following sed Ḥadīš means: عُنُ وَلَمُهُ فَلَا لَا إِنَّا مُكَا مُكَالِّ إِلَى النَّالِ [Every innovation is a erodoxy and every heterodoxy leads to hell]. (Sahāh ibn Khuzaymā. pp. மார். 3, Hadīš 1785) What does this Ḥadīš imply?

wond doubt, the foregoing Hadis is true. In fact, the word 'Bid'at' intioned in the Hadis refers to Bid'at-e-Sayyi'ah, (misleading novation) and indeed every Bid'at that contradicts or removes a mah is a misleading innovation.

crefore, Sayyiduna Sheikh 'Abdul Haq Muhaddis Dihlvi & 36 & 45 ones, "Any Bid'at that complies with the principles of Sunnah and ses not contradict the Shari'ah or Sunnah is a Bid'at-e-Hasanah. The d'ah that contradicts Shari'ah and Sunnah is a Bid'at-e-Dalalat, i.e. a deading innovation." (Ash'at-at-Lum'aat, pp. 135, vol. 1)

I was Relieved from My Back Pain

Dear Islamic brothers! What can one say about the greatness of I'tll and if you are blessed with the company of devotees of Prophet dum I'tikaf then the blessings and benefits multiply. An Islamic brother 'Attarabad (Bab-ul-Islam, Sindh) gave the following statement:

I was a loafer and had got a dirty mind, talking about filthy the with my friends and then laughing was my favourite pastime, in nuisance of an indecent sin had caused constant back pain that a not cured despite every medical treatment.

Fortunately, some Islamic brothers, who were acquainted with insisted me that I join them in the collective I'tikâf in the Ramadan 1426 A.H. (2005). At first, I refused but they insisted and so I had say 'yes'. I became a Mu'takif for the last ten days of Ramadân (14) with devotees of Prophet in Memon Masjid ('Attarabad). It seemed me as if I had entered a new world; the blessings of all five Şalâh, Sunninspiring speeches, emotive supplications, Sunnah-filled study circle and the compassion and blessings of Islamic brothers.

المعنان معنان during the I'tikāf my back pain vanished without a medicines and a Madanī transformation took place in my heari repented of sins, adorned my face with the symbol of our below Rasūl's المعنان عليم المعنان عليم المعنان المعنا

آلاد المعددة I had the privilege of taking part in a 41 day Mada Qāfilah Course and now I am trying to spread the work of Dawat-Islami in my area.

Excellence of Durad Sharif

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind Andrease Allah Assist and reciting Durod Sharif having offered Şalāh, 'Present your supplication, it will be answered; ask (for anything), you will be granted.' (Sumon Mosa), pp. 220, (tadis 1281)

Dear Islamic brothers! Many virtues of offering Şalāh and severe punishments for abandoning it have been stated in the Qurản and Aḥādiš. Therefore, the 9th Ayah of Sūra-tul-Munāfiqun in Parah 28 says:

> يَائِيُهَا الَّذِيْنَ امْنُوْ الْاَثُلُهِكُمْ اَمْوَ الْكُمْ وَلَا اَوْلَادُكُمْ عَنْ ذِكْرِ اللهِ ۚ وَمَنْ يَقْعَلْ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْخُسِرُونَ ۞

The Very First Question on the Day of Judgement

The beloved and blessed Prophet Jacks (Jack) said, "On the Day of Judgement, the very first question that will be asked to man out of his deeds will be about Şalāh; if his Şalāh is correct he will succeed but if it is incomplete, he will be disgraced and will suffer loss." (AI-Min Janu-nd-An Jaj-lij-Tahrān), pp. 32, vol. 3. Hadis 3782)

Nor for Muşallî

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind state said, "The one who secures his Ṣalāh, the Ṣalāh will be Nūr, evidence and salvation for him on the day of judgement; and the one who does not protect it, there will be no Nūr, evidence or salvation for him on the Day of Judgement and such a person will be kept with Pharaoh, Qārūn, Ĥāmān and Ubay bin Khalaf on the day of judgement." (Munnad Imam Ahmad, pp. 574, vol. 2; Hadii 6587)

The one who abandons his Şalāh due to being occupied with state attairs will be resurrected with Pharaob. The one who abandons his adah owing to his wealth will be resurrected with Qarūn. If the reason at abandoning Şalāh is ministry, he will be resurrected with Pharaoh's minister, Hāmān and if the reason of abandoning Ṣalāh is busyness in made, he will be resurrected with Ubay bin Khalaf, the bead trader of the unbelievers in Makka-tul-Mukarramah." (Kuāb-ul-Kubair, p. 21)

Salah even in Severely Wounded State

When Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Umar Fārūq-e-A'zam & Justicos was seriously wounded as a result of an attack, he was told, "Ya Amir-ul-Muminin "Justicos", (it is time to offer) Şalāh!" He & Justicos said, "Yes, listen! The one who abandons Şalāh has no share in Islam." He & Justicos offered Şalāh despite being severely wounded, (ibid. pp.22)

Causes of Nur or Darkness for Şalāh

On the contrary, if he does not complete its Rukū', Sujūd and recitation the Ṣalāh says, "May Allāh Lass- discard you as you have distorted mo The Ṣalāh covered in darkness is then taken to the sky. The portals of the sky are closed for it and it is then bundled up like an old piece of cloth and thrown onto the face of that Muṣalli." (Kanzal-Umad). pp. 12-101. 7. (Rado 19049)

Indian ul-Ummat Hadrat Mufti Ahmad Yar Khan which says, "It become obvious that the thief of Şalāĥ is worse than that of money wouse the thief of money gains at least some worldly profit though in is punished, the thief of Salāĥ will be punished but he will not gain my benefit at all. The thief of money violates the right of people but the thief of Salāĥ, violates that of Allāĥ Jada, It is the condition of those offering defective Şalāĥ; so those who do not offer Salāĥ at all should barn a lesson." (Minarad Manājīb, pp. 78, vol. 7)

Dear Islamic brothers! Many people do not offer Şalāh at all and even most of those offering Salāh are deprived of offering Salāh properly due to the lack of interest in learning Sunnah. Therefore, a brief method of offering Salāh is being presented. For the sake of Madīnah! Please read it very carefully and correct your Şalāh.

Method of Şalāĥ (Ḥanafi)

Stand erect facing the Qiblah in the state of Wudû with a distance of four fingers between feet. Now raise both hands making thumbs touch the ear-lobes. Fingers should neither be too close together nor too wide spart; instead, they should remain in a normal position, palms facing the Qiblah. Eyesight should be focused at the place of Sajdah. Now make a firm intention (in your heart) of the Ṣalāh that you are about to offer. To say it verbally is better (for example, "I intend to offer four Rak'at for today's Fard Zuhar Ṣalāh,") If you are in a Jamā'at, add the words "following this Imām."

Now, ntter Takbir-e-Tahrimah (اللهُ الْكُونَا) lowering your hands and fold them below navel with right palm on the back of left wrist joint, three middle fingers straight on the back of left forearm and thumb and sma finger making a loop on either side of wrist. Now recite Sana like this Glory is to You Ya Allah Jany! I praise You, Blessed is Your name, Your greatness is esalted and none is worthy of worship except You.

Then recite the Ta'aw-wuz:

I seek protection from Allah Jasse against the accursed Satan.

Then recite the Tasmiyah:

Allah's name I begin with, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful,

Then recite the whole of Surah Fatihali:

All praise to Allah (1956), Rab (1958) of the worlds, the most Kind and Merciful.

Owner of the Day of Requital. We worship You alone, and beg You alone for help. Make us tread on the straight path; the path of those whom You have favoured, not of those who have earned (Your) wrath and nor of those who have gone astray.

(Kancul Iman [Translation of Quran])

After you finish Surah Fatihah, utter (Amin) in low volume and then recite either three short Ayahs or one long Ayah that is equivalent to three short Ayahs or any Surah such as Surah Ikhlas.

Allah's name I begin with, the Most Kind, the Most Merciful.

Say He is Allah Jass-, the One: Allah Jass- is the Independent. He begot none nor was He begotten. And nor is anyone equal to Him.

Now bow down for Rukū' uttering اللهُ اَ كُونَى. Hold knees firmly with both palms and keep fingers spread out. The back should be straight and head should also be in the straightness of the back (not lower or higher than the back); in Rukū', focus eyesight at feet. Recite مُنْ مُنِنَ الْعَظِيْمِ وَالْعَالَيْمِ وَالْعَالِيْمِ وَالْعَالَةُ وَاللهُ وَاللهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللهُ وَاللهُ

[&]quot;Gory to my Magnificent Rab 3434.

⁽Allthalade heard whoever present him.

¹⁰ ope Bob Jaidel All praise is for You.

Then, go down for Sajdah uttering الله الله placing your knees first on the ground, then hands and then head (nose first and then the forehead) in between your hands. Make it sure that your nasal bone (not just the tip of your nose) and your forehead properly rest on the ground; in Sajdah, focus eyesight at nose; keep arms separated from sides, belly from thighs and thighs from shins (but if you are in a Jama'at then keep arms close to sides).

The tips of all ten toes should be towards Qiblah with their soles flattened with the ground. Your palms should be flat on the ground with fingers facing Qiblah, but do not keep the forearms touching the ground.

Now recite مَنْ حُنْ رَبِي الْآخَانِ at least three times; then lift your head (forehead first then nose), then hands and sit up straight; keep your right foot upright with its toes facing Qiblah; lay your left foot flat and sit on it; place your palms on your thighs close to your knees with your fingers facing Qiblah and their tips by the knees.

Sitting in between two Sujūd is called Jalsah. One must stay in this position for at least the amount of time in which خَاصُ اللهُ مَا الْمُعُمَّا اللهُ وَاللهُ الْمُعَلِّلِيَّ can once be uttered (to utter اللَّهُمُ الْمُعِلِّلِيِّ in Jalsah is Mustaḥab).

Now, perform the second Sajdah uttering المُعَالِيّ in the same way as the first one.

Now, raise the head first; then stand up with the support of your toes placing your hands on your knees. Do not lean hands unnecessarily on the ground while standing up. You have now completed one Rak'at. completing the second Sajdah (of the second Rak'at) sit up with your right foot upright and your left foot flat.

after the second Sajdah of the second Rak'at is called Qa'dah.

- ne Tashahhud in Qa'dah:

All types of worship i.e. oral, physical and monetary are for Allah المنافرة المالية المنافرة المنافر

الله second Rak'at, start with المنظمة and then recite Sûraalhah and another Sûrah, then do the Rukû' and Sujûd as you did o first Rak'at.

[&]quot;Ya Allah Jack forgi ce me."

If it is Fard Salāh, recite only منه القبل المنه المناه and Sura-e-Fātiḥah the third and fourth Rak'āt, an additional Sūraĥ is not needed. The of the acts must be performed in the same way as before.

However, if it is a Sunnah Şalah or Nafl Şalah, then Sürah shall added after Sürah Fātiḥah in the third and fourth Rak'at (You we remember that if you are offering the Şalah following an Imam cannot recite anything in the Qiyam of any Rak'at, you must a quietly). Once you have offered all four Rak'at, sit in Qa'dah-e-Akhland then recite Tashahhud and the Durud-e-Ibrāhīm Ashland.

Yew Differences in the Şalah of Islamic Sisters

widually. There are some differences between the Şalāh of Islamic ors and that of Islamic brothers. At the time of Takbir-e-Tahrimah, but sisters should raise their hands up to their shoulders; their hands old remain covered in their shawl. In Qiyam, Islamic sisters should be their left palm on chest just below their breast and put the right but on the back of the left palm. Islamic sisters should bow slightly in but i.e. to the extent of placing their hands on their knees. They should ther apply weight to their knees nor hold them; their fingers should close together and feet should be slightly bent i.e. not completely night, like men. Islamic sisters should perform Sajdah keeping their by parts close together, i.e. arms touching sides, belly touching thighs, also touching shins and shins touching the ground. In Sajdah and widah, they should draw their feet out towards the right side.

one of the acts described in the method of Şalāh for Islamic brothers d Islamic sisters are Fard without which the Şalāh will not be valid acreas some acts are Wājib leaving which deliberately is a sin; repenting tot and repeating such a Şalāh is Wājib. In case of missing a Wājib forgetfully, Sajdah Sahw becomes Wājib. Some of the acts in Şalāh Sunnat-e-Mūakkadah; making a habit of abandoning a Sunna-Mūakkadah is a sin. Similarly, some of the acts in Şalāh are Mustah performing a Mustahab is an act of Šawāb while leaving a Mustaha not a sin. (Bahār-e-Shart'ar. pp. 507, vol. 1. etc.)

Six Pre-Conditions of Şalāĥ

1. Taharat (Purity)

The body, clothes and place of Şalāh must be pure from all types impurities, (Sharb-al-Wigayah, pp. 156, vol. 1)

2. Sitr-e-'Awrat (Veiling)

- 1. Men's body from navel to the knees (including knees) must covered whereas women's whole body must be covered except) following five parts: Face, both palms, soles of both feet. (Du Misking, pp. 95, vol. 2) However, according to a Mufta bihi Qawl (valverdict), the Şalāh of a woman will be valid even if her both hand up to wrist, and feet, up to ankle, are completely uncovered.
- If someone wears such thin clothing that exposes such a part the body which is Fard to be concealed in Salāh, or that expothe colour of skin (of that part), the Salāh will not be valid. (Base e-Shart'ot, pp. 480, vol. 1) (Foliova-e-Alongtit, pp. 58, vol. 1)
- Nowadays, the trend of wearing thin clothing is growing. Wearing thin clothes that expose any part of thigh or Sitr is Harrey when not offering Salah. (Bahare-Shari'et, pp. 180, vol. 1)
- Wearing such thick skin-tight clothes that do not expose the colm of the body but reveal the shape of Sitz will not invalidate the Sal but it is not permissible for other people to look at that part of it

body, (Rad-dut-Muluär, pp. 103, vol. 2) Coming in front of others wearing such skin-tight clothes is prohibited and it is more strictly forbidden for women, (Bahar-e-Shart'at, pp. 480, vol. 1)

Some women wear such thin shawl made of muslin etc, that reveals the blackness of their hair during Şaláh or wear such dress through which the colour of body-parts is visible; the Şaláh offered wearing such a dress will not be valid.

mphil-e-Qiblah means facing towards the Qiblah during Şalāh-

If the Muşalli (the one offering Ṣalāḥ) turns his chest deliberately from Qiblah without a valid reason, his Ṣalāḥ will become invalid even if he turns back to Qiblah instantly. However, if his chest turns unintentionally and he turns back to Qiblah within the amount of time in which 'مُنْفَعُنُا ' can be uttered thrice, his Ṣalāḥ will not be invalid. (Munya-tul-Muyalli, pp. 193) (Bahr ar Rāiṣ pp. 497, vol. 1)

If only face turned from Qiblah, it is Wājib to turn the face back towards Qiblah instantly. Although the Şalāh will not become invalid in this case, it is Makrūh-e-Taḥrimi to do so without a valid reason. (Al-Marjo sus-Sab(q)

If someone is present at such a place where there is neither any means to know the direction of Qiblah nor any such Muslim whom he could ask the direction, so, in this case, he has to do Taḥarrī, i.e. ponder (as to where the direction of Qiblah may be). He should turn towards the direction in which his heart guides him. This is the direction of Qiblah for him. (Dur ro-Mukhiār, pp. 143, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Mukhiār, pp. 143, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Mukhiār, pp. 143, vol. 2)

- If someone offered Şalāh doing Taḥarrī and got to know late that the direction in which he offered Şalāh was not the condirection of Qiblah, his Şalāh will still be valid; it does not new be repeated. (Tantonal-Ahjar, pp. 143, vol. 2)
- If someone is offering Şalah doing Taharri, another person him and starts offering Şalah facing the same direction with doing Taharri, his Şalah will not be valid; be will have to do own Taharri. (Rad-dul Maharr, pp. 143, vol. 2)

4. Waqt (Timings)

It is necessary to offer Şalāh within its stipulated time. For examp today's 'Aşr Şalāh is to be offered, it is necessary that the time for 'A has begun, 'Aşr Şalāh will not be valid if it is offered before the beginn of its time,

- Usually, the time-tables (of Şalāh) are displayed in Masājid, 'Il timings of Şalāh can easily be ascertained with the help of the time-tables compiled by reliable Tawqit Dan (Experts in Şalah fasting timings) and certified by Ahl-e-Sunnah scholars.
- It is Mustahab for Islamic sisters to offer Fajr Şalah in its initime; as for other Şalah, it is better for them to wait for me Jamā'at, and offer Şalāh after the Jamā'at ends. (Dur-re-Mukhtār.) 30, vol. 2)

Three Makroh Times

- From the time of sunrise up to the next 20 minutes.
- 2. From 20 minutes before sunset to the time of sunset.

From Nişf-un-Nahār to the time when the sun begins to decline. No Şalâh, whether it is Fard, Wajib, Nafl or Qaḍā is permissible during these three times.

However, if someone has not offered 'Aşr Şalāh and Makruh time has started, he can still offer it, but délaying Şalāh to this extent is Harām. (Fanisco-e-'Alamgire pp. 52, vol. 1) (Dan-re-Mikhour, pp. 37, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Mikhour, pp. 37, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Mikhour, pp. 37, vol. 2) (Balian-e-Sharron, pp. 454, vol. 1)

The Makruĥ Time Begins during Şalāĥ, then ...?

Niyyat (Intention)

ayat means firm intention in heart, (Touvir-ul-Absar, pp. 111, vol. 2)

Although verbal intention is not necessary, it is better; provided the intention is present in heart. (Fatawa-e-Ālamgirī, pp. 65. vol. 1) Further, making intention in Arabic language isn't necessary; it can be made in any other language. (Dur-re-Makhter. pp. 113. vol. 2)

As regards intention, there is no significance of verbal utterance. For example, if the intention of Zuhar Şalah was present in heart but the word 'Aşr instead of Zuhar was mistakenly uttered, Zuhar Şalah will still be valid. tibid, pp. 112)

- The least level of intention is that if someone asks as to we Salah is about to be offered, one should reply promptly. If he such a state that he has to recall before replying, then his So will not be valid. (thid, pp. 115)
- If the Salāh is Fard, the intention of Fard is also necessary, example, the intention 'I am offering the Fard of today's Zuha to be present in heart. (Duc-re-Mukhiar, pp. 117, vol. 2) [Rod-dul-Muhii] 117, vol. 2)
- 5. Even though it is correct to make just a general intention of $10 for Natl, Sunnat and Tarawih, but it is safer to make the intention of Tarawih or current Sunnah while offering Tarawih; as for to Sunnah Salah, one should make the intention of Sunnah or 10 of the following of the Prophet And Alaka and Security because some Mashaikh (scholars) consider a general intention insufficient Sunnah Salah. (Manuscht. Musult), pp. 225)
- For Nall Şalāh, a general intention of Şalāh is sufficient even 'Nafl' is not included in intention. (Dar-re-Mukhtar, pp. 116, vol. 2718) dul-Muḥar, pp. 116, vol. 21
- The intention 'My face is towards Qiblah' is not a condition, in the Makhtar pp. 129, and 2)
- While offering Şalāh following an Imām (in Jamā at), a Muqtucan make the following intention as well: "I intend to offer the sat Şalāh that the Imām is offering", (Fasting-e-Alamgtet, pp. 67, vol. 1)
- The intention for the funeral Şalāh is: "This Şalāh is for Allāh Jand the supplication is for this deceased person." (Dur-re-Mukh pp. 126, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Muhtār, pp. 126, vol. 2)
- It is necessary to make the intention of Wajib for a Wajib Şalı and it has to be specified as well. For example, Eid-ul-Fitr, Eid-

- Adha, Nažr (votive), the Şalāh after Tawāf (Wājib-ut-Tawāf) or the Nafl Şalāh that was deliberately cancelled, as the Qadā of such a Şalāh is also Wājib. (Rad-dul-Mulitar, pp. 129, vol. 2).
- Though Sajda-e-Shukr is Naff, its intention is also necessary. For example, the intention 'I am going to perform Sajda-e-Shukr' is to be present in heart. (ibid)
- 12. According to the author of 'Nahr-ul-Faiq', intention is necessary even for Sajda-e-Sahw, notal i.e. one has to make intention in his heart that he is performing Sajda-e-Sahw.

6. Takbir-e-Tahrimah

Starting Salah by uttering Salah is compulsory. (Bahare-Shart'at, pp. 560) and, I.

Seven Faraid of Salah

There are seven Faraid in Salah.

(1) Takbir-e-Tahrimah (2) Qiyam (3) Qirā-at (4) Rukū' (5) Sujūd (6) Qa'dah-e-Akhīrah (7) Khurūj-e-Bişun'ihī, (Dur-re-Mukhīse, pp. 158-170. vol. 2) (Buhīr-e-Shair'ar, pp. 507, vol. 1)

1. Takbir-e-Tahrimah

In fact, Takbīr-e-Taḥrīmaĥ (also called Takbīr-e-Aulā) is one of the pre-conditions for Ṣalāĥ but it has also been included in the Farāiḍ because it is closely attached to the acts of Ṣalāĥ. (Ghanyaĥ, pp. 256)

 If the Muqtadī says the word 'Allāh' of Takbir-e-Taḥrīmah with the Imām but utters the word 'Akbar' before the Imām utters the same word, his Şalāh will not be valid. (Patawa-e-Atamgtri, pp. 58, vol. 1)

- 2. If the Muqtadī finds the Imām in Rukū' and bends instantly for Rukū' uttering the Takbīr, i.e. he finishes the Takbīr after he had already bent down to such an extent that his hands would touch his knees if he stretched them, his Şalāh will not be valid. (Futāwa-v-Ālamgīvī, pp. 69, vol. 1) (Rad-dul-Maluār, pp. 170, vol. 2) (What he should do on such an occasion is to utter the Takbīr-e-Tahrimah whiis) standing erect and then do Rukū' uttering 55 140. If he manages to join the Imām in Rukū' even for a moment, the Rak'at will be counted, but if the Imām stands up before be joins the Imām in Rukū', the Rak'at will not be counted.)
- If someone is unable to pronounce Takbir because of dumbness or loss of the faculty of speaking due to any other reason, he does not have to utter it; just making intention in heart is sufficient for him. (Dar-re-Makhiar, pp. 220, vol. 2)
- 4. If the word "Allāh" is mispronounced as الله (Allāh) or the word (Akbar) as الله (Akbar) منار (Akbar), the Ṣalāh will be invalid. If anyone deliberately utters any of these words despite understanding their Fāsid (wrong) meaning, he will become a Kāfir (disbeliever). (Dur-re-Mukhtār, pp. 218, vol. 2)

These days, in case of a big Jama'at, most of the Mukabbirs, voluntarily conveying the voice of Takbir to those offering Salah at the back side, are heard mispronouncing the word 'Akbar' as 'Akbar' due to the lack of religious knowledge. As a result of this mispronunciation, the Salah of such Mukabbirs as well as that of those offering Salah following their Takbirs becomes invalid. Therefore, one should refrain from uttering Takbir without learning necessary rulings.

If someone performs first Rak'at's Rukū' with the Imam, he will gain the Śawab of Takbir-e-Aula, (Fatamo-e-Alamgir), pp. 69, vol. 1)

1. Qiyam

- The least level of Qiyam is that if the hands are stretched, they should not reach knees whereas complete Qiyam is to stand erect. (Dur-re-Mikhitar, pp. 163, vol. 2) (Rad-did-Multar, pp. 163, vol. 2)
- The duration of Qiyām and that of Qirā-at is the same; standing in Qiyām is Fard, Wājib or Sunnah for as long as Fard Qirā-at, Wājib Qirā-at or Sunnah Qirā-at requires respectively, (ibid)
- Qiyam is Fard for Fard, Witr, Eidain and the Sunan of Fajr Salah.
 If anyone offered any of these Salah sitting without a valid reason, Salah would not be valid. (ibid)
- feeling just slight pain in standing is not a valid excuse, instead, a person can be exempted from Qiyam when he/she is unable to stand or perform Sajdah, or when his wound bleeds due to standing or performing Sajdah or a drop of urine is released, or his quarter Sitr is exposed, or he is quite unable to do Qirā-at. Similarly, if a person is able enough to stand, but it will result in the intensity or prolongation of his illness or unbearable pain, he can offer Salah sitting. (Ghanyah, pp. 261-267)
- If it is possible to stand for Qiyam leaning on a staff (crutches) or wall, or by the help of a servant, it is Fard to do so. (Ghuayah, pp. 261)
- 6. If it is possible to utter just Takbīr-e-Taḥrīmaĥ standing, it is Fard to utter 如何如 whilst standing and then (if it isn't possible to remain standing anymore), he may sit down. (ibid, pp. 262)

Beware!

Beware! The people who offer their Fard Salāh sitting due to any slight pain, injury etc. should consider the foregoing ruling of Shari'ah; it is Fard to repeat every such Salāh offered sitting despite having the strength to stand. Similarly, it is also Fard to repeat all such Salāh offered sitting despite the fact that they could have been offered standing by leaning on a staff, wall or with the help of a person. *Hahar-v-SharFat, pp. 511, 101, 1) The same rule applies to women, i.e. they are not allowed to offer Salāh sitting without Shar's permission.

- 7. Some Masăjid provide chaîrs on which some old people sit and offer Şalāh despite coming to the Masjid on foot, they even tall, with others standing after the Şalāh; if such people offer Şalāh sitting without Shara'i permission, their Şalāh will not be valid.
- 8. It is permissible to offer Nail Salah sitting despite having the strength to stand; however, it is better to offer it standing. Hadral Sayyiduna 'Abdullah bin 'Amr Andrews narrates that the Prophet of Rahmah, the intercessor of Ummah, the distributor of Na'mah Andrews is half of the one offering in sitting posture is half of the one offering in standing posture (the Sawah would be half)." (Sahin Manham pp. 370 Hadis 735) However, the Sawah will not be reduced if someone offers it sitting due to any valid reason. Nowadays, the trend of offering Nafl Şalah in sitting-posture has developed. People seem to be under the impression that offering these Nafl sitting is better; it is their misconception. The same ruling applies to the two Rak'at Nafl after the Witr (to offer them standing is better). (Bahar-e-Shori'at, pp. 670, vol. 1)

صَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى كُمَّد

1 Qira-at (Recitation of the Holy Quran)

- Qirâ-at means 'pronouncing each and every letter from its correct place of origin so that each letter is quite distinct from every other letter,' (Future e-Alampin, pp. 69, vol. 1)
- Even when reciting in low volume, it is necessary for the reciter to hear his voice of recitation. (16)(1)
- If the letters are pronounced correctly, but not loud enough for the reciter to hear himself (and there is no obstruction such as noise or the problem of hard of hearing either), the Şalâh will not be valid in this case. (1014)
- Although it is necessary for the reciter to listen to the voice of recitation himself, the sound should not reach others in Sirri Şalah (the Şalah in which recitation is done in low volume). Similarly, listening to the voice of recitation while reciting Tasbihat etc. is also necessary.
- 5. Likewise, whatever is to be recited or said even other than Ṣalāh, it must be recited or said in such a loud voice that the reciter or speaker could hear himself; for example, giving a divorce, freeing a slave or mentioning the name of Allāh Asii when slaughtering an animal. In all these cases, the words must be said loud enough for the reciter to hear, obid. The same should be kept in mind when reciting Durūd Sharīf and other Awrāds.
- To recite at least one Ayah in the first two Rak'at of a Fard Salāh, every Rak'at of Witr, Sunan and Nawāfil Salāh is Fard for the Imām as well as the Munfarid, (Manight folah, pp. 51)
- A Muqtadl is not allowed to do Qirā-at in Ṣalāĥ, neither Sūra-e-Fātiljaĥ nor any other Ayaĥ; neither in a Sirri Ṣalāĥ nor in a Jaĥrī.

Şalāh. The Qirā-at of the Imam is sufficient for the Muqtadi, (Marita) falāb, pp. 51)

- If someone did not do Qirà-at in any Rak'at of Fard Şalāh or did Qirà-at only in one Rak'at, his Şalāh would be invalid. (Fotoware 'Alongiri, pp. 69, vol. 1)
- 9. One should recite the Qurân slowly in Fard Şalâh and, at a medium pace, in Tarāwiḥ, Fast recitation in Nawafil of the night is permissible, however, the words should be clearly understandable, i.e. the Maddat should be pronounced with at least the minimum degree of length set by Qurrā, otherwise, it is Ḥarām, because we have been commanded to recite the Qurân with Tartil (slowly) (Dio-re-Mukhūtr, pp. 320, vol. 21 (Rad-dal-Muhūtr, pp. 320, vol. 2)

Correct Pronunciation of Alphabets is Essential

Most of the people are unable to distinguish between the sounds of はっしょう こっしょう こっしょう こっしょう こっしゅう Remember, if the meaning of a word becomes Fasid (wrong) as a result of changing the sound of letter, Ṣalāh will not be valid. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 125, part. 3)

For example, if someone says غَوْيُهُ instead of a عُوْيُهُ (with a 1 instead of a ـ فَا أَعْتِيْهُ الْعَقِيْمُ), his Salāĥ will become invalid. Therefore, if someone cannot utter مُنْهُوْنَ وَوَالْعَوْيُمُ instead. (Qanan-e-Shart'at, pp. 105, part, 1) (Rad-dai-Mahart, pp. 242, vol. 2)

lust a little practice is not enough for the one unable to pronounce letters correctly; he must practice hard day and night. If such a person un offer Şalāh led by the Imām reciting correctly, it is Fard for him to do so, or he must recite only such Ayahs that he can recite correctly. If both the aforementioned cases are impossible, his own Şalāh will be valid during his learning period. Regretfully, these days a lot of people have this shortcoming. They do not know how to recite the Quran correctly and do not try to learn either. Remember, this ruins Ṣalāh. (Valar-e-Shari'at, pp. 370-yal, I)

If someone could not correct his pronunciation in spite of making every possible effort day and night (as some people are unable to pronounce the letters properly) he must keep practicing day and night, in this case, he will be considered excused during his learning-period. His own Salah will be valid but he cannot lead the Salah of those who can recite correctly, however, during his learning period, he can lead the Salah of those who cannot correctly pronounce such letters that he is also unable to pronounce correctly. But if he does not make any effort at all, so even his own Salah will not be valid, how can others' Salah be valid under his Imāmat. (Ferina Radjoriyah (Jad id), pp. 254, vol. 6)

Madrasa-tul-Madinaĥ

Dear Islamic brothers! You may have realised the importance of Qirâat. Indeed, extremely unfortunate is the Muslim who does not learn correct recitation of the Holy Qurân. [18] Numerous Madâris by the name of 'Madrasa-tul-Madînah' have been established by Dawate-Islami, the global, non-political, religious movement of the Qurân and Sunnah. In these Madâris, girls and boys are taught Hifz and Nazirah Qurân free of cost. Moreover, the correct pronunciations of letters as well as Sunnaĥs are taught to the adults usually after Şalā-tul-'Ishā in Masājid. Would that everyone starts teaching and learning the Holy Qurân in their homes! Would that every such Islamic brother able enough to recite the Qurân correctly starts teaching other Islamic brothers! Likewise, the Islamic sisters who can recite correctly should teach others and those who cannot recite properly should learn from them. Jaste 2018 Qurânic teachings will prevail everywhere and those learning and teaching will carn great Śawāb, Jaste 2018.

4. Ruků'

The least level of Rukū' is to bend forward to such an extent that if hands are stretched, they should reach the knees while complete Rukū' is to keep the back horizontally straight. (Dur-re-Mukiwar, pp. 165, vol. 2) (Bahar-t-Sharr'ar, pp. 513, vol. 1)

The beloved Rasūl of Allāh Assetsets Desaid, "Allāh Cost does not see (mercifully) at such a Şalāh of the person in which he does not straighten his back during Rukū' and Sujūd." (Munad Imām Alvand, pp. 617, vol. 3, Haats 10803)

5. Sujūd

- The beloved Rasūl of Allāh المحافظة المحافظة المحافظة على المحافظة المح
- 2. Two Sujud are Fard in each Rak'at. (Bohave-Shari'at, pp. 513, vol. 1)
- It is necessary that the forehead properly rests on the ground.
 Resting of forehead means hardness of the ground should be felt.

If someone performed Sajdah in such a way that his forehead did not properly rest on the ground, Sajdah would not be valid. (stid. ov. 513, 514)

In case of performing Sajdah on something soft such as grass, wool or a carpet, if the forehead firmly rests onto it, i.e. it is pressed to hard that it cannot be pressed any more, Sajdah will be valid, otherwise, not. (Faiawa-e-Alamger, pp. 70, vol. 1)

These days, the trend of using carpets in Masajid has developed on some Masajid foam is also spread underneath the carpets). While performing Sajdah on a carpet, make it sure that the forehead firmly rests, otherwise Ṣalāh will not be valid. If the nasal bone did not rest on the ground properly, the Ṣalāh will be Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmī and it would be Wājib to repeat such a Ṣalāh, (Bahār-e-Shurī'a), pp. 164, vol. 1, etc.)

As the forehead does not properly rest on a spring mattress, Şalāh will not be valid on it, utsa;

Madvantages of Carpets

difficult to perform Sajdah properly on the carpet; carpets cannot may be cleaned either. Therefore, dust and germs accumulate inside in In Sajdah, dust and germs enter the body by means of breathing, who have forbid, the fluff of carpet, in case of sticking to the lungs as sold of inhaling, could give rise to the danger of cancer. Sometimes, when vomit or urinate on the carpet; similarly, cats, rats and lizards a excrete on them. In case of carpet's being impure, it is not even bered to purify it. Would that the trend of using carpets in Masajid out!

How to Purify an Impure Carpet

Wash the impure area of the carpet and hang it; let it remain han till the drops of water stop dripping from it. Then, wash and han for the second time and let it remain hanging until it stops dripp. Then, wash and hang it for the third time in the same way, it will become when it stops dripping. Purify mats, shoes and such clay pote absorb water according to the same method.

Another way of purifying impure carpet, cloth etc, is to keep it diinto flowing water (for example, a river, stream, or under a tap) for amount of time till one gets the strong probability that the impuhas been carried away by the water. If a small child urinates on a carjust splashing a few drops of water onto it will not purify it. Rememthe urine of even one day's old infant is impure. (For detailed informate go through Bahar-e-Shari'at volume one, page, 396-405)

6. Qa'daĥ-e-Akhīraĥ

After the completion of all Rak'at of Ṣalāh, it is Fard to sit in Qa of for the amount of time in which complete Tashahhud (كَيْتُكُ) up to كُلُ is recited. (Falines e-'Alamgin. pp. 70, vol. 1) If the Muşalli offering a local Rak'at Fard Ṣalāh did not perform Qa'dah after the fourth Rak'at whas not yet performed the Sajdah of the fifth Rak'at, he has to sit do However, if he has performed the Sajdah of the fifth Rak'at (or in of Fajr, did not sit after two Rak'āt and did the Sajdah of the the Rak'at or in case of Maghrib, did not sit after the third Rak'āt and the Sajdah of the fourth Rak'at), the Fard Ṣalāh will become invalidall these cases. In these cases, he should add one more Rak'at exo Maghrib Ṣalāh. (Ghanyoli, pp. 290)

صَلَّى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى تَعَلَى عَلَى تَعَمَّد

عَلُوا عَلَى الْحَبِيْب

Khurūj-e-Bişun'iĥi

oruj-e-Bişun'ihī i.e. after the Qa'dah-e-Akhīrah, deliberately saying him, talking or any other such act that finishes the Şalāh. However, my other deliberate act except Salām was found, repeating such a him will be Wājib, and if any such act was found without intention, Salāh will become invalid. - Reciting Sanā, Ta'aw-wuż and Tasmiyah immediately one after the other.
- Uttering all of them with low volume,
- Uttering well.
- (Ittering it (abs)) in low voice also.
- Reciting Sanā immediately after Takbīr-e-Aulā. (In Ṣalāh, Ta'aw-wuż and Tusmiyah are linked with the Qirā-at, as the Muqtadi does not have to do Qirā-at, it is not Sunnaĥ for him to recite Ta'aw-wuż and Tasmiyaĥ either; however, the Muqtadī missing one or more Rak'at should recite them while offering his missed Rak'at). (Due-re-Mukkuōr, pp. 234, vol. 2)
- Ta'aw-wuż should be recited in the first Rak'at only.
- Tasmiyah is Sunnah at the beginning of every Rak'at. (Bohar-e-Shari'at, pp. 522, 523, vol. 1).

man of Ruků'

- Uttering 気が続 for Rukū'
- "three times in Rukū شَبْخَنَ رِيَّ الْعَظِيْمِ Uttering شَبْخَنَ رِيَّ الْعَظِيْمِ

- 46. Forehead,
- 47. Nose,
- 48. Hands and

- 49. Knees should be lifted from ground in that order.
- During Sajdah, it is a Sunnah for men to keep their arms apart from sides and
- 51. Thighs apart from belly.
- Not laying forearms on the ground. If you are in a Saf (row) during Jama'at, then do not keep arms away from sides.
- Making the soles of all ten toes of both feet touch the ground in such a way that their tips face the Qiblah. (Bahar-e-Short'ut, pp. 528-530, vol. 1)

Sunan of Jalsah

- 54. Sitting between both Sujud, which is called Jalsah
- Keeping the right foot upright and the left foot flat and sitting on the left foot
- 56. Keeping the toes of right foot towards the Qiblah
- 57. Placing both hands on thighs, (Bahar-e-Shari at. pp. 53th vol. 1)

Sunan of Standing for the Second Rak'at

- After the completion of both Sujūd, it is a Sunnah to stand up for the second Rak'at with the support of toes.
- Placing hands on knees; however, there is no harm in placing hands on the ground for standing up due to weakness or pain in foot. (Dar-re-Makhtür, pp. 262, vol. 2) (Rod-dul-Mulvar, pp. 262, vol. 2)

Sunan of Qa'daĥ

 After performing the Sujūd of the 2nd Rak'at, it is a Sunnah for men to lay their left foot flat.

- 6). Sitting with both buttocks on the left flattened foot
- 62. Keeping right foot upright and
- a). Keeping the toes of right foot towards the Qiblah.
- id. Keeping right hand on right thigh and
- 65. Left hand on left thigh
- Leaving fingers in a normal state i.e. neither too close together nor too wide apart
- Keeping fingertips close to the knees but one should not hold the knees
- مة. Raising the index finger of right hand while giving Shahadah (Testimony) during اللَّهُونِيَّة. Its method is as follows:
 - Fold ring finger and the pinkie, form a ring with the middle finger and thumb, raise the index finger while uttering "y" and do not shake it hither and thither, put it down while uttering M and straighten all fingers. (Bahar-e-Short'at, pp. 330, vol. 1)
- Sitting in the second Qa'dah just like the first one. Reciting Tashahhud as well. (Dur-re-Musikor. pp. 272, vol. 2)
- Reciting Durūd Sharif after Tashahhud, Reciting Durūd-e-Ibrāhīm Is preferable, (Bahār-e-Sharī'at, pp. 531, vol. 1)
- It is a Sunnah to recite Durūd Sharīf after Tashahhud in the first Qa'dah of Nafl and Sunan-e-Ghaīr Muakkadah. (Rad-dut-Muhitir. pp. 281, vol. 2)
- 72. Reciting Du'à after Durud Sharif, (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 534, vol. 1)

Sunan of Performing Salām

73. Performing Salām twice uttering the following words:

الشلاء عليكم وترخمة الله

- 74. Turning the face to the right side first and then
- 75. The left side. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 535, vol. 1)
- Saying both Salam loudly is a Sunnah for the Imam, but the voice of the second Salam should be lower than the first one. (Dur-re-Making, pp. 294, vol. 2).
- 77. As soon as the Imam utters the word الشلام while performing the first Salam, his Salah will finish even if he has not yet uttered the word خانية; therefore, if any latecomer joined the Jama'at after the Imam had already uttered the word الشلام, his Iqtida would not be valid. However, his Iqtida will be valid if the Imam, having performed the first Salam, performs Sajda-e-Sahw provided Sajda-e-Sahw had become Wājib. (Rad-dul-Mukar, pp. 292, vol. 2)
- 78. When the Imam turns his face to the right and left side while performing Salam, he should make the intention of saying Salam to the people offering Salah at his right and left side respectively; but he should not intend to say Salam to any woman (even if she is present in the Jama'at). Further, he should also intend to say Salam to Kiraman Katibin (angels deputed for writing deeds) as well as the angels deputed for safeguard during both Salam, but he should not fix any number in the intention. (Dur re-Mukhtar, pp. 294, vol. 2)
- Muqtadī (the one offering Ṣalāh with Jamā'at) should also intend to say Salām to the people and angels on both sides, further, he

- should also make intention for the Imam while performing Salam towards the side where the Imam is present. If the Imam is in front of the Muqtadī, he should intend to say Salam to the Imam while performing both Salams. A Munfarid should intend to say Salam to the angels only. (Diar-re-Mukhter, pp. 299, vol. 2)
- Muqtadi's transitions i.e. Ruku', Sujud etc. should be with those of Imam's, (Bañar-e-Shari'at, pp. 535, vol. 1)

Sunan after Performing the Salam

- 81. It is a Sunnah for the Imam either to turn right or left after performing the Salām; turning to right side is preferable. To sit facing the Muqtadīs is also permissible provided that not a single person is offering Salāh in front of Imām's face up to the last Ṣaf. (Bohare-Shurt'ot, pp. 537, vol. 1)
- It is permissible for a Monfarid to ask supplication without turning any side, (Fatawo-e-Alamgter, pp. 77, vol. 1)

Sunan of the Sunan-e-Ba'diyyaĥ

(The Sunan after the Faraid)

- 83. Falking should be avoided after the Fard Şalāh that is followed by Sunnah Şalāh. Even though the Sunan will be valid in spite of talking but their Sawāb will be reduced. To delay the Sunan is Makrūh; similarly, lengthy Awrād (invocations) are not permitted (between the Fard and the Sunan Şalāh), (Ghanyah, pp. 343) (Rad-dol-Mubiār, pp. 360, val. 2)
- After the Fard that are followed by Sunnah, Du'ā should be brief; otherwise, the Śawāb of the Sunan will be reduced. (Bahar-e-Shari'at. pp. 539, vol. 1)

- Even though it is correct that talking between Fard and Sunnah does not invalidate Sunnah, but their Sawab is reduced; the same ruling applies to every such act that contradicts Tahrimah. (Tamp al-Abjar, pp. 558, vol. 2)
- Do not offer Sunnah Şalāh at the same place where Fard Şalāh wa offered, instead, it should be offered at a different place such a right or left or front or rear side or at home. (Fatāwa-e-Alamgīrī, pp. 77, vol. 1) (Dun-re-Mukhan, pp. 302, vol. 2)

(There is no harm in the pause taking place as a result of going home for offering Sunnah Ṣalāh. However, it is a sin to pass across the front of a Muṣallī or face his front for changing the place or going home; if there is no space to go, offer Sunnah Ṣalāh at the same place).

An Important Ruling of the Sunan

The Islamic brothers who engage in talking and walking having offered Sunan-e-Qabliyah or Ba'diyyah should learn a lesson from the following blessed Fatwa of A'la Hadrat at the start. Therefore, replying to a question, A'la Hadrat at the said, "The best time for the Sunan-e-Qabliyah is the initial time (of the Ṣalāh) provided talking or any other act that contradicts Ṣalāh is avoided between the Fard and Sunnah. At for Sunan-e-Ba'diyyah, it is Mustahab to offer them immediately after the Faraid; there is no harm in the pause taking place as a result of going home to offer them at home. However, the pause due to contradictory acts should be avoided; such a pause will result in the loss of the Šawab of the Sunan-e-Qabliyah as well as Ba'diyyah and will render them out of the prescribed Sunnah method." (Featara Radantiyyah (Ind Id), pp. 139, vol. 3)

Sunan for Islamic Sisters

- It is a Sunnah for the Islamic sisters to raise their hands to their shoulders whilst uttering Takbir-e-Tahrimah and Takbir-e-Qunut. (Dur-re-ldukhiār, pp. 222, vol. 2) (Rad-dul-Muhiār, pp. 222, vol. 2)
- In Qiyam, Islamic sisters and eunuchs should place their left palm just below breasts on their chest and put the right palm on the back of the left palm. (Ghanyah, pp. 300)
- For Islamic sisters, in Rukū', placing hands on knees and keeping fingers not wide apart is a Sunnah, (Bahūr-e-Shorr'at, pp. 525, vol. 1)
- Islamic sisters should slightly bow in Rukū' (just enough for their hands to reach their knees). Their backs should not be completely straight and they should not apply weight on their knees (simply place their hands on knees); their fingers should be close together and legs should be slightly bent i.e. not completely straight like men. (Fulawa v. Mongiri, pp. 74, vol. 1)
- Islamic sisters should perform Sajdah keeping their body parts close together, i.e. arms touching body sides,
- 6. Belly touching thighs,
- 7. Thighs touching shins and
- 8. Shins touching the ground. (Bahar-e-Shari'at, pp. 529, vol. 1)
- After performing the Sujud of the second Rak'at, they should draw out their both feet towards the right side in Qa'dah.
- 10. They should sit on their left buttock. (Bahār-e-Sharī at. pp. 539. ml. 1)

Fourteen Mustahab-bat of Şalah

There are fourteen Mustahab-bât în Şalāh.

- Uttering the words of intention verbally. (Dur-re-Mukhtär, pp. 113, vol. 2.
 The presence of intention in heart is necessary; otherwise, Şalāh will not be valid even if verbal intention is made.
- In Qiyam, standing with a gap of four fingers between both the feet. (Fatawa-e-Alametri, pp. 73, vol. 1)
- 3. Focussing sight at the place of Sajdah in Qiyam.
- 4. Focussing sight at feet in Rukū'
- 5. Focussing sight at nose in Sajdah
- 6. Focussing sight at lap in Qa'dah
- 7. Focussing sight at right shoulder in the first Salām and
- Focussing sight at left shoulder in the second Salam. (Tanva-ut-Ahjār pp. 214; vol. 2)
- For a Munfarid to utter the Tasbih more than three times in Ruku' and Sujud (but in odd numbers i.e. 5, 7, 9). (Emb-al-Qualit, pp. 259, vol. 1)
- According to the narration on the part of Ḥadrat Sayyidunā 'Abdullah bin Mubārak & Jank on mentioned in the book "Ḥilyah" etc., it is Mustahab for the Imam to utter Tasbiḥāt five times (Bahār-v-Sharī at. pp. 527, vol. 1)
- 11. To avoid coughing as long as possible, (Rubar-e-Shari at. pp. 538, vol. 1)
- 12. If you need to yawn, keep your mouth closed, if the yawn does not stop, press your lips with your teeth, if this does not stop yawn either, put the back of your right hand on your mouth if you are in state of Qiyam, and the back of your left hand if you are in any other unit of Salah.

An effective way of stifling yawn is to recall that the Holy Prophet عنود المعالى عليه and all the other Prophets عنود المعالى عليه المعالى على المعالى عليه المعالى على المعالى عليه المعالى عليه المعالى على المعالى المعالى على المعالى على المعالى على المعالى على المعالى الم

- (1). For the Imam and Muqtadis to stand up when the Mukabbir says نَعُمُ الْمُدَنِّ: (Baharse-Shart'ai, pp. 53h, vol. 1)
- Performing Sajdah on earth without anything in between forehead and the ground. (ibid)

A Practice of 'Umar Bin 'Abdul Aziz المالكة عن المعالمة المالكة المال

Hujja-tul-Islām Hadrat Sayyidunā Imām Muḥammad Ghazāli முதிக்குக் narrates that Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Umar bin 'Abdul Aziz கூடுக்கை' would always perform Sajdah on the bare ground without spreading any mat etc. (thya-ul-'blām, pp. 204, vol. 1)

Excellence of a Dusty Forehead

Hadrat Sayyidumā Wāšilah bin Asqa' to the block narrates that the Holy Prophet all and the Boly said, "None of you should remove his forehead-dust until he finishes his Şalāh because angels keep praying for his lorgiveness for as long as the mark of Sajdah remains on his forehead."

Mu Jam Kalife, pp. 56, vol. 22, Hodis 134).

Dear Islamic brothers! It is not better to remove dust from forehead during Salāh and, Allāh Jasse forbīd, removing it out of arrogance is a fin. However, if the Muşalli feels pain or his attention is diverted because of not removing the dust, there is no harm in removing the dust in this case. If someone suspects the fear of show-off, he should remove the dust from his forehead after the Salāh.

Twenty-Nine acts that Invalidate Şalāĥ

1. Talking, (Dur-re-Makhtar, pp. 445, vol. 2)

- 2. Saying Salam to someone.
- 3. Replying to Salam of someone else. (Fautwo-e-Alamgtet, pp. 93, vol. 1)
- 4. Replying to someone's sneeze (if you sneeze while offering Ṣalā) you should remain silent; however, if you say الكنال, there is no harm in it. If you didn't say الكنال during the Ṣalāh, say after the Ṣalāh). المالها
- 5. Ultering الخندية on hearing good news, tibut, pp. 99.
- 6. Saying இது அடுத்தி on hearing a bad news (or news of someone death). மன்
- 7. Replying to the Ažān, tibul, pp. 1001
- Uttering $5$ 5$ on hearing the name of Allah 2554. (Ghanya-tal) Manuardi, P426.
- 9. Reciting Durud Sharif, for example مَلَ مَعَانَ عَلَيْهِ وَالْهِ وَعَلَى مَلْهِ وَعَلَى مَا وَعَلَى اللّهِ وَعَلَى اللّهُ وَعَلَى اللّهِ وَعَلَى اللّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَعَلَى اللّهُ وَعِلَى اللّهُ وَعَلَى اللّهُ الللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّهُ اللّ

Crying during Şalāh

10. Due to pain or trouble, if the words 'āh', 'oob', 'uff', 'tuff' are uttered or if letters are pronounced while crying during Ṣalāh, the Ṣalāh will become invalid. However, there is no harm if just tears welled up without the utterance of letters. (Falanca-v-Ālamzīn, pp. 101, vol. 1 fluid-dul-Malitān pp. 455, vol. 2) If the Muqtadī begins to cry in Ṣalāh due to the voice of Imām's recitation and the words "Na'am", ni "yes" are uttered, the Ṣalāh will be valid, for this word was uttered due to Khushū' (humility). However, if he said these words due to

Imām's attractive manner of recitation, the Şalāh would become invalid, (Dur-re-Mukhiār, pp. 456, vol. 2) (Rad-did-Muhiār, pp. 456, vol. 2)

loughing in Şalāĥ

- If a patient spontaneously utters words "āh" and "ūh", the Şalāh will not be invalid. Similarly, the letters uttered under compulsion whilst sneezing, yawning, coughing or burping etc. are exempted. (Durve Makhar, pp. 456, vot. 2)
- Blowing without making a sound is like breathing and will not invalidate Şalāh; but it is Makrūh to blow deliberately; however, if two letters are uttered whilst blowing, (uff, tuff etc.) Şalāh will become invalid. (Glumak, pp. 451)
- Uttering two letters (e.g. "akh") while clearing throat will invalidate Şalālı; however, if there is a valid excuse or proper purpose, for example, if you naturally feel to do so or to clear voice or correct Imām's mistake or draw the attention of the one passing from your front, then there is no harm in coughing in all these cases, (Boliane-Sauri'us, pp. 508, voi. 1) (Dur-re-Makhaār, pp. 455, voi. 2)

Brading (from a written script) in Salah

- Reciting the Quran seeing from its script or from any piece of paper or from writing on arch etc. during the Şalâh will invalidate the Şalâh. (However, if a Muşallî just takes a glance at a Muşhaf Sharîf or arch etc. while reciting the memorized Ayahs, there is no harm in it. Similarly, if the Muşalli saw and comprehended an Ayah written on a piece of paper etc. but did not recite it, there is no harm in it either.) (Dur-re-Mukhtar, pp. 463, vol. 2) (Rud-dat-Muhtar, pp. 463, vol. 2).
- Deliberately seeing and comprehending an Islamic book or any Islamic topic during the Ṣalāh is Makrūh and, if a worldly topic is seen and comprehended during the Şalāh, it would be more Malar (Bahār e-Sharī'ar, pp. 669. vol. 1). Therefore, one should keep thin such as books, packets and shopping bags, with any writing them, mobile phone or watch etc. in such a way that their write does not come into his sight during Salāh. Or he should conthem with a handkerchief etc. Furthermore, avoid taking a glavat frames, stickers and leaflets etc, displayed at the pillars etc.

Definition of Amal-e-Kašic

16. 'Amal-e-Kašir invalidates Ṣalāh provided it is neither from the a of Ṣalāh nor it is aimed at rectifying Ṣalāh. Doing the act seed which from distance seems as if the doer of that act is not offere Ṣalāh or if there is strong likelihood that he is not offering Ṣalā that act is 'Amal-e-Kašīr. If the one watching from distance is a doubt as to whether or not the doer of that act is offering Ṣalā the act will be 'Amal-e-Qalīl that does not invalidate Ṣalāh, (In the Makhtar, pp. 464, vol. 2)

Wearing Clothes during Şalâh

- 17. Wearing a kurta, pyjama or Tahband during Şalāh. (Ghanyah, pp. 4
- 18. Undressing of Sitr during the Şalāh and, in the same condition offering any act (of Şalāh) or the passing of the amount of time of which की किये can be uttered thrice. (Dur-re-Makhia), pp. 467, vol. 2)

Swallowing during Şalafı

19. During Şalāh, if someone eats or drinks something even in the leamount such as swallowing a sesame seed without chewing a swallowing a drop that fell into the mouth, his Şalāh will becominvalid. [Dur-re-Mukhtar, pp. 462, vol. 2] [Rud-did-Mukhtar, pp. 462, vol. 2]

- If something was embedded among teeth prior to the beginning of Salāh, and the Muşalli swallowed it, his Şalāh would become invalid provided the swallowed thing was equal or bigger than chick-pea. If it was smaller, the Şalāh will not become invalid but it would be Makrūh. (Due re-Mukhuir pp. 462. vol. 2) (Fatanove-e-Maknūr pp. 102, vol. 1)
- Before Ṣalāh, someone are a sweet thing whose crumbs were not to the mouth; just a little sweetness remained in saliva, swallowing it will not invalidate the Ṣalāh, (Faiāno-e-'Alangiri, pp. 102, vol. 1)
- If there is sugar etc. in the mouth that dissolves and reaches the throat, the Salāh will become invalid. ritial;
- If gums bleed and the amount of saliva dominates that of blood, swallowing it will not invalidate the Salah, otherwise it will. (Faramare-Alamain, pp. 102, pot. 1) The sign of blood's domination is that if its taste is felt in throat, the Salah will become invalid. The invalidation of Salah depends upon taste while that of Wudū depends upon colour. Therefore, Wudū will become invalid when saliva turns red; if it is yellow, it will not become invalid.

Orviating from the Qiblah during Şalāh

Turning chest from the direction of Qiblah at or beyond the angle of 45 degree without a valid reason will invalidate the Şalāh. If there is a valid reason, the Şalāh will not become invalid. For example, someone suspected Ḥadaš (the invalidation of Wuḍū) and as soon as he turned his face, he realized the mistake of suspecting; in this case, if he has not yet exited the Masjid, his Şalāh will not become invalid. (Bahār e Shari et pp. 611, vol. 1) (Dur-re-Mukhūr, pp. 468, vol. 2)

Ulling a Snake during Şalāfi

 Killing a snake or scorpion does not invalidate the Şalāh provided that the Muşallī does not have to walk three steps, nor is the need of three strikes, otherwise the Şalāh will become invalid. (Fasa Alangtes, pp. 103, vol. 1) Killing a snake or scorpion is permissar when it is passing in front of the Muşallı and there is fear of harvif there is no fear of harm, killing it is Makrūh. (1888)

26. Plucking three hairs consecutively or killing three lice or beato one louse thrice – all of these acts will invalidate Salāh. If the Mussi did not beat consecutively, the Salāh will not become invalid to it would be Makrūh. (Foreware Alemgiri, pp. 103, vol. 1. Ghuyok, pp. 40

Itching in Şalâh

27. Scratching thrice in one unit (of Şalāh) will invalidate Ṣalāh; i scratching once and then lifting hand, then scratching and lifting hand once again; it is twice-scratching. If the act of scratching repeated for the third time, Ṣalāh will become invalid. Placing ii hand once (at an organ) and moving it several times will be considered scratching once only. (Falāna-e-Ālangin, pp. 164. not Gluovah, pp. 448)

Mistakes in Reciting A Tail

28. While uttering Takbīrs of Intiqāl (transitions), if the word "Allāl is read with a stretched الف (Alif) الحبة (Āllāh) or the word أنه (Akbar) is read with a stretched الحبة (Akbar) or with a stretched إلى (Akbar) or with a stretched به (bā) الحباد (Akbar), the Ṣalāh will be invalid. If this mistake we committed while uttering Takbīr-e-Taḥrimaĥ, the Ṣalāh won not start at all. (Durve-Mukhiār, pp. 473, vol. 2)

Most of the Mukabbirs, conveying the voice of Takbir to the offering Şalāh at the back side, often commit these mistakes. As result of this mispronunciation, the Şalāh of such Mukabbirs

- well as that of those offering Salah following their Takbirs becomes invalid. Therefore, one should refrain from uttering Takbir without learning necessary rulings.
- While doing Qirā-ai or reciting Ażkār (invocations) in Salāb, the mistake that makes the meaning Fāsid (wrong) will result in the invalidation of the Salāh. (Bohār-a-Shart'ai, pp. 614, vol. 1)

Thirty-two Makrubat-e-Tahrimah of Şalāh

- 1. Fidgeting with beard, body or clothes, (Fosawa e 'Almagiri, pp. 105, vol. ()
- Folding cloth (ibid), as these days, some people lift their trousers etc, from front or rear side while going down for Sajdah. However, if the cloth sticks to the body, there is no harm in un-sticking it with one hand.

Hanging Shawl over Shoulders

- Sadal, i.e. hanging cloth; for example, keeping a shawl or handkerchief on head or shoulder in such a way that its both ends are hanging. However, if one end is on a shoulder and the other is hanging, there is no harm in it.
- These days, some people keep their handkerchief on one shoulder in such a way that its one end is hanging at their belly while the other at their back, offering Salāh in this state is Makrūb-e-Taḥrīmī. (Bahār-e-Shorī'sa, pp. 624, vol. I)
- Likewise, if either of the sleeves is folded higher than a half forearm, the Salah will become Makrüh-e-Tahrīmi. (Dur-re-Muhmür, pp. 499, vol. 2)

Intense Excretory Requirement

 Being in the intense need of urinating, defecating or breaking wind etc. If there is intensity before starting the Şalāh, starting Şalāh in this case is a sin provided there is sufficient time available (for Salāh). However, if the time for Salāh will elapse in case of making Wudū having urinated or defecated, offer Salāh in the same condition. If this state occurred during Salāh, it is Wājib to cancel Salāh provided there is sufficient time available (for the Salāh). If someone offered Salāh in the same state, he would be a sinner (Rad-dal-Muhaūr, pp. 492, vol. 2)

Removing Grit during Şalāĥ

7. It is Makrüh-e-Tuhrimi to remove grit during Şalāh. (Dur-n-Makhan)
pp. 493, vol. 2) (Rad-did-Makhār, pp. 493, vol. 2) Hadrat Sayyidunā Jāhir iks Jiedroje said that when he asked the beloved and blessed Prophetlasdojde Jiedroje about touching grit during Şalāh, the Holy Prophetlasdojde Jiedroje replied, 'Once, and if you avoid doing so, it is better than a hundred black-eyed she-camels.' (Saidh thu-e-Khuzuonah, pp. 52, vol. 2 (Hadis 897) However, if Sajdah cannot be performed according to Sunnah due to grit, removing it once is allowed. Further, if any Wājib cannot be performed without removing the grit, removing it is Wājib in this case even if there is the need of removing it more than one time." (Dar-re-Mukhār, pp. 493, vol. 3, Rad-did-Mukhār, pp.
493, vol. 2)

Cracking Knuckles

8. It is Makrûh-e-Taḥrimi to crackle knuckles during Ṣalah, முமார் Muhaqqiqin Haḍrat 'Allamah Ibn-e-'Abidin Shāmi கூல்க்க் has mentioned a narration with the reference of Sunan-e-Ibn-e-Mājah that the beloved and blessed Prophet கூல்க்கிக்கி said, 'Don't crackle your knuckles during Ṣalāh,' (Sunon Ibn Mājah, pp. 514, vol. 1, Hadti 965) Another narration with the reference of 'Mujtaba' says that the Holy Prophet And And And Prohibited from crackling knuckles at the time of waiting for Salah. One more narration says that knuckle-crackling was forbidden for the one going for offering Salah. On the basis of the foregoing Ahadis, the following three rulings were proved:

- Orackling knuckles during Şalāh as well as Tawabi'i (connectors of) Şalāh such as is going for offering Şalāh or waiting for Şalāh is Makrūh-e-Taḥrimi, (Bahar-e-Shart'a), pp. 625, vol. 1)
- Crackling knuckles unnecessarily when not offering Salah (nor even during Tawabi'i Salah) is Makruh e-Tanzihi.
- When not offering Şalāh, crackling knuckles ont of a need such as giving rest to fingers is Mubāḥ. (Rad-dal-Mahtar, pp. 493-494, vol. 2)
- Tashbik, i.e. intermixing the fingers of one hand with those of the other. (Dur. re-Musionr. pp. 493, vol. 2) The Holy Prophet and intermix Janu 1935, vol. 2) The Holy Prophet and Janu 2015 said, "The one proceeding to Masjid should not do Tashbik i.e. he should not intermix both hands' fingers with each other, (as) verily, he is in Ṣalāh, 'tanat' Tanaizi, pp. 496, vol. 1, Hodis 386, Tashbik is Makrūĥe-Taḥrimi at the time of waiting for Ṣalāĥ as well as going for offering Ṣalāĥ. (Bakār-e-Shari'at, pp. 625, vol. 1, Dur. ve Mukhūr, pp. 493, vol. 2)

Placing Hand on Back

Placing hand on back during Ṣalāh is Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmī. One should not place hand on the back i.e. at the middle of both the sides without a reason even when not offering Ṣalāh. (Dur-re-Makhār. pp. 494; vol. 2) The Holy Prophet கொண்கும் முன்ற said that placing hand on back is the comfort of those who would be in Hell. (Sharb-nr-Suanah-hīt-Baghant, pp. 313, vol. 2, Hadāi 731) In other words, it is the practice of the Jews who would be in Hell; in reality, there would be no comfort for those who would be in Hell." (Bahār-e-ShotFio 618, vol. 1)

Looking Towards the Sky

- 11. It is Maloruh-e-Tahrimi to raise the eye-sight towards the during Salah. (Bahār-e-Sharrat, pp. 02% vol. 1). The beloved and bless Prophet and make a said, 'How are those who raise eyes toward the sky during Salah; they had better refrain from it or else the eyes will be plucked,' (Sabih Bukhāri, pp. 265, vol. 1, Hanti 750)
- 12. Seeing here and there by turning the face (whether completely partially) during Salah is Makruh-e-Taḥrimi. Seeing here and the unnecessarily just by turning eyes without turning face is Makruh e-Tanzihit and if it is rarely done out of a need, there is no harm (Bahar-e-Shari at. pp. 626-19).

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind Assays Marilles said, 'The mercy of Allah remains attentive to the Muşalli unless he sees hither and thithe when the Muşalli turns his face, His (Allah's) mercy also turn (Sunan Ahū Duwad, pp. 344, vol. 1, Hadri 909)

Men's keeping their forearms laid (on the ground) in Sajdah. (Discre-Makhiar, pp. 496, vol. 2, Rud-dul-Muhiar, pp. 496, vol. 2)

Looking Towards the Muşallı

14. To offer Şalāh facing the face of a person is Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmi For the other person, it is impermissible and sin to turn factowards the Muşalli. If someone starts offering Şalāh facing the face of a person who was beforehand sitting in that direction, the one starting Şalāh will be sinner and will be accused, otherwise, the one turning face towards a Muşalli will be sinner and will be accused. (Dur-re-Makhair, pp. 496-497, vol. 2) All those who look back after the Salām of Jamā'at is performed, facing the face of the Musalli offering Salāh just behind them or those who stand facing him and wait for him to perform Salām so that they could go back or those who make announcement, deliver Dars or Speech sitting or standing just in front of the Musalli, all should repent,

- To cover nose and face during Salah. (Dur-re-Mukhum pp. 511, vol. 2)
 (Future-Alemair, pp. 100, vol. 1)
- Clearing throat, i.e. bringing phlegm to the mouth unnecessarily. (Dia-re-Michae, pp. 517, vol. 2)
- 17. Yawning deliberately during Ṣalāh is Makrūh-e-Taḥrimit tidaniqil Falāh pp. 354) but if it is spontaneous, there is no harm in it; yet it is Mustaḥab to stifle it. The beloved and blessed Prophet of Allāh கிறுக்கு நடித்து நடித
- To recite the Holy Quran in the reverse order (for example, reciting Surah-e-Lahab in the first Rak'at and Surah-e-Nasr in the second)
- 19. Missing a Wajib. For example, going down for Sajdah without standing erect in Qawmah or going for the second Sajdah without straightening the back in Jalsah is Makrüh-e-Tahrīmi. (Bahar-e-Shari at. pp. 629. vol. 1) A large number of Muslims seem involved in this sin. Remember! It is Wājib to repeat all such Şalāhs.
- Reciting the Holy Quran in any other unit of Şalah except Qiyam. (Buhar-e-Shari'at, pp. 629, vol. 1)
- 21. Completing Qirā-at having bent for Rukū'. (ibid)

22. Muqtadi's bending for Rukû' or going down for Sajdah etc. of raising head prior to the Imam, all are Makrûh-e-Taḥrimī. (1860) Haḍrat Sayyiduna Imām Mālik narrates via Ḥaḍrat Sayyiduna Abū Ĥuraīrah ഫുഗ്രാം that the Holy Prophet ഫുഫ്രുവും 🎏 said 'The one who raises and lowers his bead before the Imām does, the haīr of his forchead are in the hand of Satan.' (Moratton Imām) Malik, pp. 102. vol. 1, Hadis 212) Similarly, Ḥaḍrat Sayyidunā Abū Ĥuraīrah ஆற்றில் narrates that the Holy Prophet வகுகியும் நக்கிற்க said, 'Does the person raising his head before the Imām not feat that Allāh கூடு turns his head with the head of a donkey?' (Salah Malim pp. 228 [Indis 427]

Donkey-Resembling Face

 Offering Salāh wearing just a trousers or a Tahband (Sarong) despite having other clothes. (Palawo-e-Alamgiri, pp. 106, vol. 1)

- 24. Imām's prolonging the Ṣalāh for an acquainted person (to value him) is Makrūh-e-Taḥrimi; however, if it was aimed at helping him in joining the Ṣalāh, there is no harm in lengthening the Ṣalāh for the amount of time in which Tasbiḥ can be uttered once or twice (Fasiwa-e-Ālangirī, pp. 10%, vol. 1).
- 5 Offering Şalāh on an illegally seized piece of land, or
- On someone else's field that is used for cultivation (Dut-re-Makhia). pp. 54, not. 27 Or
- 17. On a ploughed farm, (1860) or
- Facing a grave (if there is nothing in between the Muşalli and the grave). (Fairing - - Alamgiri, pp. 319, vol. 5)
- Offering Salah in disbelievers' places of worship; even going there is forbidden. (Had-dal-Malinae, pp. 53, vol. 2)
- 10. If a shirt's buttons were left undone in such a way that exposes the chest, the Şalâh will become Makrûh-e-Taḥrimi. However, inside the shirt, if there is any other clothe that keeps the chest still covered, the Şalâh will become Makrûh-e-Tanzihi. (Bahār-e-Sharī'ai, pp. 650, vol. 1)

Şalāĥ and Pictures

- Offering Şalāh wearing such clothes that have the image of an animate being is Makrūh Taḥrimi. Wearing such a dress is not permissible even when not offering Şalāh. (Bahār-e Shari'ai, pp. 627, vol. 1)
- 32. If the portrait of an animate being is displayed above Muşaili's head i.e. at the ceiling, the place of Sajdah, at his front, his right or left side, it is Makruh-e-Taḥrimi. If the picture is displayed at the rear side, though it is also Makruh, yet it is less severe than the previous cases.

If the picture is lying on the floor and Sajdah will not be performed on it, there is no repugnance; if the portrait is of an inanimate object such as river, mountain etc., there is no barm in it.

If the portrait is so tiny that if it is put on the ground and someonesees it standing, the clear shape of facial organs will not be visible, like the portraits of the scene of the fawaf of Ka'bah are so tiny, such portraits are not the cause of repugnance in Ṣalāh, (Bahār-e Stantas, p. 627, 628, vol. 1) However, if the face of even single person becomes clearly visible in the picture of Tawaf-crowd, it will remain prohibited.

There is no harm in the pictures in which the body-organs except farsuch as hand, foot, back, the rear part of face are visible. Similarly, then is no harm in the picture of the face whose eyes, nose, lips etc. have all been erased.

Thirty-three Makrufiat-e-Tanzīfii of Şalafi

Thirty three acts are Makruh-e-Tanzihi in Şalah:

- Despite having other clothes, offering Şalāh wearing the labour dress, (Shark-ul-Wigney), pp. 198, vol. 1) having something in the mouth if the thing prevents Qirá-at or, because of it, such words an uttered that are not the words of Quran, the Şalāh will become invalid, (Durr-es-Mukmār, Rad-dal-Maḥtār, pp. 496, vol. 2)
- 2. Offering Şalāh with bare-head out of laziness; (Dur-re-Mukkian per 49), vol. 2) if cap or turban fell from the head during Şalāh, it to preferable to pick it up, provided 'Amal-e-Kašir is not needed otherwise, Şalāh will become invalid. If there is a need of picking it up again and again, leave it. If not picking up is aimed at attaining Khushu' and Khudu' [Humility of body & heart], then not picking up is better. (Durr-r-Mukhiar, Rad-dal-Muhiar, pp. 491, vol. 2) If someone.

is offering Şalāh bare-headed or his cap has fallen, the other person thould not place his cap onto his head.

In Ruku' or Sajdah, uttering Tasbih less than three times unnecessarily. [if time is about to elapse (for Ṣalāh) or train is about to depart, then it doesn't matter. If the Imam has raised his head (from Ruku' or Sajdah) before the Muqtadi utters Tasbih thrice, the Muqtadi should follow the Imām]. 18-diar-e-Simreni pp. 650, vol. 1)

Removing dust or grass from forehead during Şalāh, However, if dust or grass distracts attention from Ṣalāh, there is no harm in removing it, ('Alamgur, pp. 107 vol. 1)

Turning fingers from Qiblah in Sajdah etc. (Allonging pp. 108 etc. vol. 1).

Man's making his thigh touch his belly in Sajdah. ('Alamgto: pp. 109, ed. 1)

Replying to Salām during Şalāh with the gesture of hand or nod of head; (Dur-re-Mukhar, pp. 497, vol. 2) replying to Salām verbally will nullify the Şalāh. (Allangur, pp. 98, vol. 1)

Sitting in cross-legged position during Salah without a reason, (Due-10-Makhtar, pp. 48, (ok. 2)

Stretching (as one does having woken up from sleep).

Deliberately coughing or clearing throat, if there is a natural need of doing so, there is no harm. (Baharse-Shart'at, pp. 633, vol. 1, 'Alamgiri, pp. 107, vol. 1)

While going down for Sajdah, placing hands on the ground before placing knees without any reason. (Μασια-τα/-Μασιατά ρρ. 346)

Lifting knees before lifting hands without any reason when standing. (ibid)

- 13. Keeping head higher or lower than back in Rukû', (ibid, pp. 349)
- Uttering Śanā, Ta'aw-wuż, Tasmiyah and Amīn loudly in Şam (Ghanyah, pp. 252, 'Alamgiri, pp. 107, vol. 1)
- 15. Leaning against a wall etc. without any reason. (Chimuoh. 353)
- 16. Not placing hands on knees in Rukn', and
- 17. Not placing hands on the ground in Sajdah. ("Mangart pp. 169, on 1
- 18. Swaying from side to side. [However, Tarawuḥ, i.e. sometime applying weight on right foot and sometimes applying weight of left foot, is Sunnah. (Fatawa Radawhyan Had id), pp. 389, vol. 2, Bala Sharin, pp. 634, vol. 1)] It is Mustahab to apply weight on right so when going down for Sajdah and on the left side when stands from Sajdah. ('Alangus, pp. 108, vol. 1)
- Closing eyes in Şalalı; however, if closing eyes brings about Khue (humility), it is preferable. (Durne-Muthita. Rad-dul-Multion, pp. 499, vol.
- Offering Şalāh in front of burning fire. If a fire-torch or a lans, in front of the Muşalli, there is no harm. ("Alongiei, pp. 198. vol. 1)
- Offering Şalāh in front of such a thing that distracts attention to Şalāh; for instance, ornaments or games etc. (Buhar-e-Short'at, ppro-101, 1)
- 22. Running for Şalāh. (Rad-dal-Muhtar, pp. 513, vol. 2).

Offering Şalâlı at the following places is also Makrûh-e-Tanzihî.

- 23. At a public path:
- 24. At a rubbish dump
- 25. In a slaughter house where animals are slaughtered

- 10. In a stable i.e. the place where horses are kept
 - In a bathroom
- On a farm (especially where camels are kept).
- " On the roof of a toflet or
- In a desert without a Sutrali (provided there is a possibility of people passing across the front of the Muşalli), (Dur-re-Mokhiar, pp. 52, 54, vol. 2) (Bohār-e-Shari'm, pp. 636, 637, (vt. 1)
- Swatting a By or mosquito with hand without any reason. Palamgiri. pp. 109, sed. 1; (If a louse or mosquito harms the Musalli, there is no barm in killing it provided 'Amal-e-Kašir is avoided). (Chunyoh, pp. 353, Bahār e-Shart'ar, pp. 635, vol. 1)
- Any such 'Amal-e-Qalil that is beneficial for the Muşallı (rectifics Şalāh) is permissible, whereas the one that is not beneficial (does not rectify Şalāh) is Makrūh. ('Alamgor, pp. 165, vol. 1)
- Offering Salah wearing clothes with their stitched-side out; or hanging such clothing over body. (Forance-e-Recurryyah, 17, P358-360, France-c-Ahl-e-Sanno)

How is it to Offer Şalāĥ wearing a Half Sleeved Shirt?

opite having other clothes, offering Salah wearing a half-sleeved shirt Makruh-e-Tanzihi. Hadrat Sadrush-Shari'ah, Mufti Muhammad miad 'Alī A'zamī (3,011,011,022,03) says, 'Offering Salah wearing a half-wed shirt or a vest despite having other clothes is Makruh-e-Tanzihi; there is no other clothe, there is no repugnance.' (Fatawo-e-Amiadiyyah, 193, vol. 7) ulti-e-A'zam Pakistan Ḥaḍrat Qiblah Mufti Waqar-ud-din Qādiri المائة عليه على المراقبة says, 'A half-sleeved shirt is assumed as labourclothes (and a person, in labour-clothes, normally hesitates in comiin front of the nobility). Therefore, the one who hesitates to come front of others in the labour-clothes, his Şalāh will become Makrūli Tanzīhī whereas the one who does not hesitate to do so, his Ṣalāh w not become Makrūĥ-e-Tanzīĥi. (Waqar-al-Farana, vol. 2, pp. 246)

The Excellence of Last two Nafl of Zuhar

It is Mostahab to offer four Rak'at as a blessed Hadis says, 'Aliah will render fire Haram for the one regularly offering four (Rak'at) belowand four (Rak'at) after Zuhar.' (dami: Tomori, pp. 436 ont.). Hadis of Commenting on the foregoing Hadis, Imain Tahjavi and the foregoing Hadis, Imain Tahjavi and the deletion of the person would not enter fire at all, his sins would be deleted and Aliah will would make the one whose rights he may have violated pleased with him. Or the Hadis implies that Aliah will enable his to perform such deeds which will not lead to punishment. (Hashing Tompan allowers Makhan, pp. 284, vol. 1) Hadrat 'Aliamah Shami and would not enter the Hell.' We doi: Muluan, pp. 547, vol. 3)

Dear Islamic brothers! اللحظة الله offer ten Rak'at of Zuhar Şalı' daily; if we offer two more Rak'at Nafl Şalāh at the end, completitivelye Rak'at in connection with the sacred number of twelfth of Rabiun-Nūr, it would not take much time. Make the intention of offer two Nafl regularly.

Imamat

There are six pre-conditions of Imamat for leading those who are n disabled, i.e. leading those who do not have Shar'i disability. The pre-conditions include:

Being a Muslim with correct Islamic beliefs

Being Sane

Being male

Being correct in recitation of the Holy Quran

Not being disabled. (Nar-ul-Halah, pp. 73, Bahar-e-Sharfut, pp. 500, vol. 1)

Intention

Doing Iqtida (act of following an Imam) and making its intention at the time of Taḥrimah. The intention can be made before the Taḥrimah as well provided no such irrelevant act that separates the intention and Taḥrimah is done.

The Imam as well as Muqtadi's being in the same place

The Ṣalāh of both (the Imām as well as the Muqtadī) has to be the same or Muqtadī's Ṣalāh has to be inclusive in Imām's Ṣalāh.

According to Muqtadi's school of thought, Imām's Şalāh's being valid

The Imam as well as Muqtadi's considering the Şalāh valid.

A woman's not standing next to a man (Subject to certain conditions).

Muqtadi's not being ahead of the Imam

(Muqtadi's) Being aware of Imam's Intigalat (transitions)

Muqtadi's knowing that the Imam is a resident or a traveller

Muqtadi's participating in performing the units of Salah

- Muqtadi's being equivalent or inferior as compared to Imam performing units of Şalāh
- Similarly, Muqtadi's not being superior to Imam in attributes Salah). (Rad-did-Muhtar, pp. 338, vol. 2) (Bahārse-Shart'in, pp. 362, vol. 1)

Announcement after Iqamat

Straighten the Şaf (row) by positioning your heels, necks and should in the same alignment. Leaving space between two men is a sin. Mai the shoulders touch with others' is Wājib. Straightening the Şaf is Way Unless the front Şaf is complete up to its ends, deliberately stars Şalāh at a rear Şaf is the abandonment of a Wājib, Ḥaram and a Do not let minors (aged less than 15 years) stand in the Ṣafs, nor them to stand at the corners of the Ṣaf; the Ṣaf for minors should made at the end. (For detailed information refer to Fatāwā-e-Razavīy) vol. 7, pp. 219 to 225, Razā Foundation Lahore)

Jama'at (Congregational Prayer)

It is Wājib for a sane, adult, free and capable person to attend the primagama'at of the Masjid. The one missing Jama'at even once witho valid reason is a sinner and deserving of punishment. If he aband Jama'at many times, he is a transgressor and unqualified to give evidenand he will be punished severely. If his neighbours remain silent to not adopt any strategy to reform him) they will also be sinners. (10) Makhtār, Rad-dul-Muḥtār, pp. 340 vol. 2, Gharyoli, 508)

Some of the Honourable Scholars distal saws say that the one waiting the Iqamat staying at home having heard the Ažan is a sinner and evidence will not be accepted. (Fatana Radam) yok (Jad 1d), pp. 102, yok 7

I wenty Valid Reasons for Missing Jama'at

The patient having difficulty in getting to the Masjid.

A disabled person

The one whose leg has been cut

A paralysed person

The one who is too old to get to the Masjid.

A blind person, even if there is someone who can take the blind person to the Masjid by bolding his hand.

Heavy rain

Too much mud (that is an obstruction for the Masalli to get to the Masild).

Chilly weather

Extreme darkness

l. Tornado

Fear of the loss of possessions or food

Fear of a creditor and he is not in a position to pay back

Fear of an oppressor

Intense need of defecating

Uringting or

Breaking wind

Presence of food (with a desire of eating).

Fear of the departure of caravan

Looking after a patient who will be distressed and confused if the attendant goes to offer Şalāh with Jamā'at.

All these are the valid reasons for not attending the Jama'at. (Dec.) Minkhtor, Rod-dul-Multior, pp. 347, 349, vol. 2)

Fear of Losing Faith at the Time of Death

It is not allowed at all to miss the primary Jama'at of Fard Salah loin Masjid on account of attending Iffar-dinner, ceremonies, Niyaz (mserved to send Sawab to the saints) and Na'at-reciting etc. In case holding the Janua'at of Tarawih at home or in a hall or a bungalow, it Wājib to offer the Fard-Rak'at (of 'Ishā Salāh) with the primary Jam in the Masiid first if there is a Masjid in the vicinity. Those not offer Fard Salāh with the primary Jamā'at held in Masjid without a Shexemption despite having capability should fear. There is an alarmy saying of the Holy Prophet dander June June The one liking to me Allah المحلا in the state of being a Muslim tomorrow (the Judgen Day) should regularly offer these five Salah with Jama'at at the plant where the Azan is uttered, for Allah has rendered Sunan-e-fluda Mashru' for your Prophet المعال علو دارود المعال على and Salah with Jama'a also one of the Sunan-e-Fluda, If you give up your Prophet's Sunnyou will deviate from the right path," (Subil Muslim, pp. 328, Hadri 654). foregoing Hadis indicates that the one offering Salah with the prim-Jamā'at (of the Masjid) regularly will have a good end (die with fao' whereas the one abandoning the primary Jama'at of the Mawithout a Shar't exemption is in the danger of dying in the state Kufr (disbelief).

102 - Al-Bohr-ur-Rā-aig, vol. 1, pp. 603) On the same page of Fatāwā-ebasavīyyāh Sharif, he 42,564455 writes, "The one waiting for Iqamat doying at his home having heard the Ažān, his evidence will not be excepted," (Al-Bahr-ur-Rā-aig, vol. 1, pp. 453) war Islamic brothers! According to some respected Islamic Jurists on Ales, the one not getting to the Masjid by the time of Igamat is a oner and unqualified for evidence. Even such a person is a sinner, so that would be the condition of those holding Jama'at at home without bur'i exemption or offering Salah without Jama'at or (Allah Massabilds) do not offer Salah at all!

of Rab date of Mustalia decreased and del Grant us the privilege of endarly offering five-time daily Salah with the Takbir e-Aula of the othery Jama'ar in the first Saf of the Masjid.

Nine Madani Pearls about Şalāĥ of Witr

- Wltr Şalāh is Wājib.
- If Witr Salāh is missed, it is mandatory to offer it as Qaḍā, (Fatamore Alamgto, pp. 111, and 1)
- The time for Witr begins after the offering of the Fard of Ishā and remains up to Şubḥ-e-Şādiq (dawn). (Maraqii jatāḥ mu' Hāshiya-un-Tabiani, P178)
- The one who can get up at night having slept, it is preferable for him to offer Tahajjud (first) and then Witr Şalāh in the later part of the night having woken up from sleep.
 - The Witr Şalāh consists of three Rak'āt. (Dur-re-Mukhuar, pp. 532, vol. 2).
- The first Qa'dah is Wājib; recite only Tashahhud and then stand up (for the third Rak'at).

- In the third Rak'st, it is Wajib to utter the Takbir-e-Qunut after the Qirā-at. (Buhir-e-Shar'ar. pp. 521, set. 1)
- Just like Takbir-e-Taḥrīmah, raise the hands up to ears first and then utter $$\frac{2}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}\frac{1}{2}$ (for Takbir-e-Qunut).
- 9. Then fold hands and recite Du'à-e-Qunut,

Du'à-c-Qunut

ٱللَّهُمَّ إِنَّا نَسْتَعِينُكَ وَنَسْتَغَفِّرُكَ وَلَمْ مِنْ بِكَ وَتَتَوَقَّلُ عَلَيْكَ وَلَمْ مِنْ عَلَيْكَ الْحَبْرُ وَ الْمُكُرُّ لِكَ وَلَا تَكُفُّرُكَ وَتَقَرَّكُ مِنْ يَقْحُرُكَ ۖ ٱللَّهُمَّ إِيَّاكَ نَعَبِدُ وَلَكَ لَصَلَى وَنَسْجُدُ وَالْهُكَ نَسْعِي وَفَعْفِدُ وَلَرْجُوْمَ مُخْتَكَ وَتَخْشَى عَدَاتِكَ إِنْ عَذَاتِكَ بِالْكُفَّالِ مُلْحِقٌ *

O Allah [2004] We seek Your help and we seek forgiveness from You and we have bellef in You and we have trust in You and we glorify You and we are grateful to You and we are not ungrateful to You and we abandon and stay away from anyone who disobeys You. Ya Allah [2004] It is only You we worsho and for only You we offer Salah and perform Sajdah and it is You we run towards and we come in attendance to serve You and seek Your mercy and we fear forment from You; indeed Your torment is about to arrest the non-believers.

- Reciting Durud Sharif after Du'à-e-Qunut is preferable. (Italian-Shari'as, pp. 655, vol. 1) (Dur re-Makhtar, pp. 534, vol. 2)
- 11. Those who cannot recite Du'à-e-Qunut may recite:

ٱللَّهُمَّ مَا لِكَا أَيْنَا فِي الدُّنْمَا حَسَنَةً وَفِي الْآخِرَةِ حَسَنَةً وَقِمَا عَلَاتِ النَّامِ *

O Allah منه Our Rab العنبا Grant us goodness in the world and in the Hereafter and save us from the torment of the fire.

- Or they can recite this اللَّهُمُّةُ الْمُؤْرِيِّةِ (Yā Allāh المُحَدِّدُ Forgive me). (Ghanya, pp. 418)
- If someone forgot to recite Du'ā-e-Qunūt and bent for Rukū', he should not return to Qiyām; instead, he has to do Sajda-e-Sahw. ('Alangor, vol. 1, pp. 171, 128)
- 13. In case of offering Witr with Jama'at (as usually offered in Ramaţlân), if the Imain bends for Ruku' before the Muqtadi finishes Du'ā-e-Qunūt, the Muqtadi should also bend for Ruku' following the Imain (without completing his Du'ā-e-Qunūt). (Alwagui, vol.), pp. 111 – Rad-dul-Mikhār, vol. 2, pp. 540)

Sajda-e-Saĥw

- If any Wajib act of Şalāh is forgetfully missed or any Wajib or Fard act is forgetfully delayed, Sajda-e-Sahw becomes Wajib. (Dia-re-Makhār, pp. 635, pd. 2)
- If the Sajda-e-Sahw that had become Wajib was not performed, it is now Wajib to repeat the whole Salah. (deat)
- If a Wājib was deliberately missed, Sajda-e-Sahw would not be sufficient; it is Wājib to repeat Salāh in this case, (16a)
- 4. In case of missing such a Wājib that does not pertain to the Wājibāt of Ṣalāh; instead, it pertains to such Wājibāt that are out of Ṣalāh, Sajda-e-Sahw will not be Wājib, For example, recitation of the Holy Qurān in the reverse order is the abandonment of a Wājib and a sin but it doesn't pertain to the Wājibāt of Ṣalāh; instead, it pertains to the Wājibāt of the recitation of the Holy Qurān. Therefore, Sajda-e-Sahw is not needed (but one has to repent). (Rad-dal-Maḥāir, pp. 655, vol. 2)

- Missing a Fard results in the invalidation of Şalāh and Sajda-e-Sahw cannot make up for it; therefore, the Şalāh must be offered again. (ibid. Ghinyoh, pp. 455)
- 6. Sajda-e-Sahw does not become Wājib in case of missing a Sunnah or Mustahabbāt like Šanā, Ta'aw-wuż, Tasmiyah, Amin, Takbirs of Intiqalāt or Tasbīḥāt. Şalāh would be valid. (ibid) However, repeating such a Şalāh is Mustahab whether the Sunnah etc. was missed forgetfully or deliberately. (Bahār-s-Shāri'a), pp. 709, vol. 1)
- Even if 10 Wājibāt were missed in Şalāh, only two Sujud of Saliw are sufficient. (Rod-dul-Mahan), vol. 2, pp. 635, tuhārse Shari'ar, pp. 719, vol. 1)
- 8. In case of forgetting to maintain Ta'dil-e-Arkan (e.g. standing erect after Rukū' or sitting straight between two Sujūd for the amount of time in which خلخة can once be uttered), Sajda-e-Saĥw will become Wājib. (Alongin, vol. 1, pp. 127)
- In case of forgetting to recite Du'a-e-Qunut or utter Takbir-e-Qunut, Sajda-e-Saliw will become Wajib, (1860, pp. 128)
- If the amount of time in which it can be uttered thrice clapsed during Qira-at etc., out of thinking, Sajda-e-Sahw would become Wajib. (Rad-did-Majate, pp. 677, vol. 2)
- 11. Reciting القَوَيَّا even after performing Sajda-e-Sahw is Wājib-(Alamgir, pp. 125, vol. 1); perform Salām after reciting القَوَيَّا. It is better to recite Durūd Sharīf as well in both sittings (i.e. before and after the Sajda-e-Sahw).
- If the Imam did Sahw (mistake out of forgetfulness) and performed Sajda-e-Sahw on that account, Sajda-e-Sahw is Wajib for the Muqtadi as well. (Rod-did-Multar, pp. 658, vol. 2)

 If a Muqtadi did Sahw during Iqtida, Sajda-e-Sahw is not Wajib for him. It is not needed to repeat the Salah either. (Buhar e-Shari'at. pp. 715, vol. 1)

Very Important Ruling

Many Islamic brothers ruin their Salāh due to unawareness of the following ruling, so read it very carefully.

- 14. It is not permissible for a Masbūq (the one joining the Jamā'at having missed one or more Rak'at) to perform Salām with the Imām; if he does so deliberately, his Şalāh will become invalīd. If he immediately performs Salām with the Imām without any pause out of forgetfulness, though there is no harm in doing so, it is a very rare case. If he performs Salām forgetfully even a moment after the Imām's Salām, he has to stand up, complete his remaining Şalāh and perform Sajda-e-Sahw at the end, (Bohār-e-Sharim, pp. 713, vol. 1, Patāwā e-Bazangyah, pp. 238, vol. 7, Durr-e-Mukhtar, pp. 659, vol. 2)
- 15. If the Imam had already done Sahw before the Masbüq joined the Jama'at, the Masbüq still has to perform Sajda-e-Sahw with the Imam. If he did not perform Sajda-e-Sahw with the Imam and stands up to offer his remaining Şalah, he has to perform Sajda-e-Sahw at the end. If the Masbüq also did Sahw while offering his missed Rak'at, only last two Sujüd of Sahw will be sufficient for the Sahw of the Imam as well as that of the Masbüq. ("Alamgiri, vol. 1, pp. 128, Rod-did Malair, pp. 659, vol. 2)
- 16. In case of reciting اَلْلُهُمُ صَلِّى عَلَى مُحَمَّى after Tashahhud in the first Qa'dah, Sajda-e-Sahw will become Wajth, not because of the recitation of Durūd Sharīf, but because of delay in the Qiyam of the third Rak'at; therefore, if someone remained stlent for the same amount of time, Sajda-e-Saĥw would still become Wājib. (Boliar-e-Shart'ar, pp. 713, vol. 1, Durr-e-Mukhar, Rad-dul-Muhar, pp. 657, vol. 2)

A Parable

Hadrat Sayyiduna Imām Abū Ḥanīfah المنافقة المن

 In case of missing any part of Tashahhud in any Qa'dah (sitting), Sajda-e-Sahw will become Wajib whether the Şalah is Natl or Fard. (Alangie, vol. 1, pp. 127)

Method of Sajda-e-Saĥw

Recite الْفَاتِكُ (reciting Durud Sharif after الْفَاتِكُ is preferable), perform Salam turning head towards the right side and perform two Sujud. Then, recite الْفَاتِكُ Durud Sharif and Du'a, and perform Salam (towards both the sides).

If Sajda-e-Saĥw is Missed, Then ...?

If someone was to perform Sajda-e-Sahw but he performs Salām forgetfully (without performing Sajda-e-Sahw), he can perform Sajda-e-Sahw as long as he has not exited the Masjid. In case of being in a ground, he can perform Sajda-e-Sahw as long as he has not got out of Saf's or has not passed ahead of the place of Sajdah. (Durr-v-Mustain, Rad-dul-Mulear, vol. 2, pp. 674) However, if any act that negates the Binā (rējoining, resumption) of Salāh (e.g. speaking) and invalidates the Salāh is found after the Salām, Sajda-e-Sahw can no longer be performed. (Managiri, pp. 125, vol. 1. Rod-din-Miduir, vol. 2, pp. 654)

Sajda-e-Tilawat and Satan's Trouble

The Holy Prophet Assets the June 1. Said, "Whenever someone recites an Ayah of Sajdah and performs Sajdah. Satan moves away and says weeping, "I'm doomed! The son of Adam was commanded to perform Sajdah which he did; there is Heaven for him; I was (also) commanded but I refused; there is Hell for me," (Sabih Muslim, pp. 56, Hadis 81)

ال المالية على المالية المالية المالية المالية على المالية ال

For the accomplishment of a desire, if someone recites all fourteen Ayahs of Sajdah and performs Sujūd, Allāh Arise will fulfil his desire. One can recite each Ayah and perform its Sajdah separately or recite all fourteen Ayahs together and perform fourteen Sujūd at the end. (Durre-Micholic pp. 719 vol. 2. Ghumoh, pp. 507 & others)

Eight Madani Pearls Regarding Sajda-e-Tilāwat

- Sajda-e-Tilàwat becomes Wājib on reciting or listening to an Ayah of Sajdah. In case of reciting an Ayah of Sajdah, Sajda-e-Tilàwat will become Wājib if the voice of the reciter is loud enough for him to hear provided there is no obstruction in his listening. Deliberate hearing is not necessary for the hearer; Sajdah will become Wājib even if he hears unintentionally. (Bahar-e-Sharrim, pp. 728. vol. 1, 'Alamgor, vol. 1, pp. (32)
- Sajdah will become Wājib in case of reading or hearing even the translation of an Ayah (of Sajdah) in any language regardless of whether or not the hearer comprehended that it was the translation of an Ayah of Sajdah. However, if he was unaware, it is necessary that he may have been told that it was the translation of an Ayah of Sajdah. If the Ayah of Sajdah was recited, it is not necessary to tell the listener that it is the Ayah of Sajdah. ("Alamatra vol. 1, pp. 133)

- While the recitation of the complete Ayah is necessary for Sajdae-Tilawat to become Wājib, according to some scholars of the later age, it will become Wājib even if just the root-word of Sajdah (*4") along with its preceding or succeeding word is recited; therefore, it is safer to perform Sajda-e-Tilāwat in both cases. (Farana-e-Raanayah, vol. 8, pp. 229-233.)
- In case of reciting an Ayah of Sajdah when not offering Ṣalāĥ; although it is not Wājib to perform immediate Sajdah, delaying the Sajdah is Makrūh-e-Tanzihi provided the reciter has Wuḍū. (Dar-te-Makhar, pp. 703, val. 2)
- 5. In case of reciting an Ayah of Sajdah in Salah, it is Wajib to perform Sajdah instantly. If the Muşalli delayed the Sajdah (i.e. if he recited more than three Ayahs) he would be a sinner, and as long as he is in Salah or has not done any such act contrary to Salah after the Salam, he should perform Sajda-e-Tilawat and then Sajdah-e-Sahw subsequently. (Duer-e-Mukhtar, Rad-dul-Muhitar, vol. 2, pp. 701)

Beware! Be Alert!

6. Even if someone is not participating in Tarāwiḥ or Shabīnah in Ramadān or he is offering his own Ṣalāh individually, Ṣajda-e-Tilāwat will still become Wājib for him in case of listening to an Āyah of Ṣajdah (recited during Tarāwiḥ or Shabīnah). Similarly, Ṣajda-e-Tilāwat will become Wājib in case of listening to an Āyah of Ṣajdah even from a disbeliever or a minor. Furthermore, having become adult, if someone has not yet performed Sajdahs despite hearing Ayahs of Sajdah, he has to make a conservative calculation on safer side as to how many Sajdahs he may not have performed to date and then perform Sajdahs accordingly in the state of Wudu.

Method of Sajda-e-Tilawat

- 7. Go down for Sajdah uttering الْمُعُلِّمُ from standing position and utter الْمُعُلِّمُ (in Sajdah) at least thrice. Then, stand up uttering الْمُعُلِّمُ (in Sajdah) at least thrice. Then, stand up uttering الْمُعُلِّمُ لَا اللهُ ا
- Sajda-e-Tilawat does not require raising hands at the time of uttering $$\frac{1}{2}\text{Lil.}$ Similarly, neither Tashahhud is recited nor Salam is performed for Sajda-e-Tilawat. (Touris at Atrain, vol. 2, pp. 700)

Sajda-e-Shukr

It is desirable to perform Sajda-e-Shukr on getting any favour such as birth of a baby, attainment of wealth, turning up of a lost thing, curing of a patient, returning of a traveller and the like. Its method is exactly the same as that of Sajda-e-Tilawat. (*Alamgor, vol. 1, pp. 136, Rad-dud-Mahan, pp. 720, vol. 2)

Likewise, it is an act of Sawāb to perform Sajda-e-Shukr on hearing any good news or getting any favour such as the confirmation of visa to Madīnah, someone's becoming prepared to travel with Dawat-e-Islami's Madanī Qāfilah as a result of your successful individual effort, beholding a practising Sunnī scholar, having a blessed dream, a religious student's passing an exam, getting rid of a calamity, the death of an enemy of Islam etc.

Passing across the front of a Muşallı is a Grave Sin

- The beloved and blessed Prophet And september Said, "If any one knew what (harm) lies in passing across the front of his brother offering Salah, he would stand for 100 years rather than taking that single step." (Sugan that e-Mājah, vol. 1, pp. 506, Hadri 946)
- Hadrat Sayyiduna Imām Mālik 44 345 60 per narrates that Hadrat Sayyidunā Ka'b-ul-Aḥbār 42 345 60 per said, "If the person passing across the front of Muşalli knew what sin lies in this, he would prefer subsidence into the earth rather than passing." (Massajun Iman Maik vol. 1, pp. 154, Hadis 371)

Though the one passing across the front of Muşallı is a sinner, it does not have any effect on the Şalah of that Muşallı. (Fotowa-e-Ruzzetyyah, vol. 7, pp. 254)

Fifteen Rulings about Passing across the front of a Muşalli

- In a ground or a big Masjid, it is impermissible to pass through from the place of feet of Muşalli to Mawda'-e-Sujūd. Mawda'-e-Sujūd means the area up to which sight spreads when eye sight is fixed at the spot of Sajdah in the state of Qiyām. It is not permissible to pass through from the place of feet (of Muşalli) up to Mawda'-e-Sujūd. (Alamgiri, pp. 104, vol. 1. Dur-re-Mukhiar, vol. 2, pp. 479) An approximate distance of Mawda'-e-Sujūd is three yards from feet (towards Qiblah). In other words, the distance of three yards from feet is the area up to which sight spreads and therefore, in a ground, there is no harm in passing beyond this distance. (Qānān-re-Shari'ui, Part. 1, pp. 114)
- In a small Masjid or home, if there is no Sutrah in front of Muşalli, it is not permissible to pass through from the place of his feet up to the wall towards Qiblah. ('Alamgiri, vol. 1, pp. 104)

If there is a Sutrah in front of Musalli, there is no harm in passing beyond the Sutrah. (total)

The height of Sutrah should at least be equal to that of a half arm (almost a half yard) and the thickness of Sutrah should at least be equal to that of a finger. (Durre-Mushiar, pp. 484, col. 2)

Imani's Sutrah is the Sutrah for the Muqtadi as well. In other words, if there is a Sutrah in front of the Imam and somebody passes across the front of the Muqtadi, the passing person will not be a sinner. (Rad did-Mujuar, vol. 2, pp. 487)

A tree, man or animal can serve as a Sutrah, (Gloonal, pp. 367,

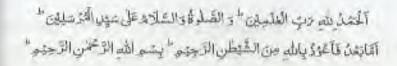

If a man serves as a Sutrah, it is necessary that his back faces the front of Muşalli. (Buhār-r-Short'ut, pp. 616, vol. 1) (if somebody faces the face of Muşalli, he will be accused, there is no blame on Muşalli in this case. Therefore, an Imam has also to be careful while turning round and looking back having performed the Salām; if the Imam faces the front of the one offering his remaining Ṣalāh, he will be a sinner.)

If a person is passing across the front of Muşalli and another person passes along with him at the same pace using him as Sutrah, the first person will be a sinner and he will automatically become Sutrah for the second person. (*Alamgier, vol. 1, pp. 104)

During Şalāh with Jamā'at, if someone starts offering Şalāh at a rear Şaf in spite of vacancy at the Şaf ahead, the newcomer can go ahead crossing above the neck of the person offering Şalāh at the rear Şaf, as he himself lost his dignity. (Dur-re-Mukhtar, pp. 483, vol. 2)

If someone is offering Şalāh at so high place that the body-parts of the passing person are not in front of Muşallī, the passing person is not a sinner. (Bahār-e-Sharī'at, pp. 615, vol. 1)

- 11. If two persons want to pass across the front of Muşalli, there is particular method for doing so. One of them should stand make his back face the front of Muşalli, now the other person sho pass using the standing person as a Sutrah. Then, the other we has already passed should stand behind the back of the standing person in the position that his back faces the front of Muşalli Now, the first person should pass and the other person show return to the side where he had come from ("Alamgor, pp. 101, or Rud-dul-Muhtar, pp. 483, vol. 2)
- 12. If a person is about to pass across the front of Muşalli, the Muşo is allowed to prevent him from passing by uttering didded, doing Qirā-at loudly or with the gesture of hand, head or eye is more than these acts is not allowed; for example, grabbing in jerking the clothes or beating is not allowed and, in case of 'Amee-Kašīr, his Şalāh will become invalid. (Durne-Mushian, Rud-dul-Muland 2, pp. 485)
- Doing both, Tasbih and gesture simultaneously, is Makrüh. (1).
 e-Mukhtar, vol. 2, pp. 486)
- 14. If a person passes across the front of a woman (offering Şal) she should prevent by Taşfiq i.e. hitting the back of her left has with the fingers of her right hand. If a man did Taşfiq and a womuttered Tasbih, the Şalāh would not become invalid, but it is contradiction with Sunnah. (ibid)
- The one doing Tawaf is allowed to pass across the front of Muss! (Rad-dal-Muhtar, vol. 2, pp. 482)

Excellence of Durud Sharif

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind Acoustic said, "When the day of mursday approaches, Allah Acos sends His angels, who have papers ande of silver and pens made of gold. They inscribe the names of hose who extensively recite Durod during the day of Thursday and a night before Friday [i.e. Thursday night]," (Tarikit-e-Diminhy to bin 1861), 191, 47, pp. 142) and when you travel in the land, it is no sin for you to shorten some of your obligatory prayers; if you fear that disbelievers may cause you harm; undoubtedly the disbelievers are open enemies to you.

الله الله states in Süra-tun-Nisā, Verse 101:

umdang to Hanafi Junsprudence

'Allamah Maulana Sayyid Muhammad Na'im-ud-Din Muradab has stated: Fear of [barm by] non-believers is not the on المنافية المنافي condition to do Qasr (shortening the Salāh). Sayyīdunā Ya'lā III Umavyah ఆఎడుడును asked the Companion Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Uno Farnq-e-A'zam المعادية "We are in a state of security and sall then why do we Qasr [shorten our Salah]. He معن المالك replied, "I we also wondering about this, therefore I asked the beloved and bles-Prophet حل المائيال عتب المحلم Upon this Rasūlallāh حل المائين الموالي المحالي المائين الموالي المائين الموالية والمحالم "This is a Sadagah (charity) from Allah Jeals, so accept this Sadagas (Salith Muslim, pp. 347, Hadi's 686, Khazain al-Irfan)

The Umm-ul-Muminin [Mother of the Believers], Hadrat Sayyidatu 'Aishah Siddigah was sales narrated, "[Initially] two Rak'at of Sales were commanded as Fard [Obligation]. When the beloved and bles-Prophet Andrew Being and migrated, then four Rak'at were command Definition of "Surroundings" of a City as Fard but the Salah during a journey was left at the initial two Rah of Fard." (Sahih Bukhari, pp. 604, vol. 2, Hadik 3935)

Companion Hadrat Sayyiduna 'Abdullah bin 'Umar taka 10000 narran that the beloved Prophet of Allah As als als los ion Is designated to Rak'āt for the Şalāh offered during a journey and ordered that this was a complete [Salāĥ] and not incomplete. Implying that even thou apparently two Rak'at were curtailed but it is not incomplete and in team of reward, these two are equal to the four Rak'at. (Sunan Ibn Mājali, pp. vol. 2, Hadis 1194)

Defining the Distance of a Journey

According to Shari'ah [Islamic law], a Traveller is a person who leahis place of residence, i.e. city or village, with an intention to travel least [three-days-distance i.e.] 57.5 miles [approximately 92 kilome] (km)]. (Derived from Fatāwā-e-Razarīvyah, vol. 8, pp. 243, Bahār-e-Sharī'āt, w pp. 740, 741)

When does One Qualify as a Traveller?

as does not become a traveller by merely intending to travel. According Itdamic Law, one is only ordained as a Traveller when he has travelled vond the populated areas of his township i.e. a village or a city. For a iv dweller, it is also necessary that he travels beyond the populated a surrounding his city: (Durse-Mulmar & Rabald Muhtar, vol. 2, pp. 772)

Meaning of "Travel beyond the Populated Areas"

"travel beyond the populated areas" means that one has travelled at the populated area along the robte of one's intended travel, even if populated areas have not ended in direction parallel to it. (Glooms, 1551 became a Traveller, it is not necessary for a city dweller to travel rond the village adjacent to the outskirts of his city. Similarly, it is necessary for him to cross the orchards adjacent to the outskirts of city, even if the guardians or the workers of these orchards reside Vein, (Hud-dal-Muhilir, vol. 2, pp. 722) were are certain places outside of the outskirts of the city that are licated for special activities of the city dwellers, like the cemeteries, wise racecourse grounds, wastage dumpsites, [landfills] etc., If these ces are adjacent to the city then it is necessary to cross them otherwise, Obere is some distance between these places and the city, then it is I necessary to cross them, to become a Traveller, (1964)

the Condition Required for Becoming a Traveller far as "travel" is concerned, it is also necessary that when a person abarks on a journey, he has an intention to cover, from the place of his departure, three days-distance (i.e. approximately 92 km). If he departs with an intention to cover two-days-distance (that is less the 92 km), and upon his arrival there, decides to travel to another location which is also at a distance of less than three-days-distance (i.e. lethan 92 km) he is still not a traveller, and if he were to travel around the globe in a similar manner, he would still not be considered. Traveller, (Gianno, Dury-e-Makhan, vol. 2, pp. 722, 724)

Another condition which needs to be met, to become a Traveller, is too the person should have an intention to cover the three-days-distanlife approximately 92 km] at a stretch. If one had made an intention to cover two-days-distance, then would attend to some chores before travelling further for one-days-distance then this would not constituas an intention to travel for three-days-distance [i.e. approximately of km at a stretch]. Therefore, he would not be considered a Travellor (Bahar-e-Simitan pp. 743, vol. 1)

Types of Hometowns [Waţan]

There are Two Types of "Hometowns;"

- Original Hometown [Waţan-e-Aşlī]: The town or city in which a person was born, or where one's household members reside, to where one is a permanent resident and has no intention to leave.
- Temporary Hometown [Waţan-e-Iqāmat]: The fown or city when a person intends to stay for [the next] fifteen days or more. ('Alaman val. 1, pp. 142)

Circumstances that Void Temporary

Hometown [Waṭan-e-Iqāmat]

One Temporary Hometown [Waţan-e-Iqamat] cancels another. That to say that if a person stayed at a town or city for fifteen days or more we he went to another town with an intention to stay there for the of fifteen days, then the first town will no longer remain his Temporary bonnetown; whether there is a three-days-distance (i.e. approximately km) between the two towns or not.

milarly, a Temporary Hometown [Waṭan-e-Iqāmat] is voided if a roon returns to his Original Hometown [Waṭan-e-Aṣlī] or embarks (a three-days-distance, thurre-Mukhar, vol. 2, pp. 731, Bahār-e-Shart'ar, vol. 9, 731)

where are two routes to a particular destination, one is a three-daystiance [i.e. approximately 92 km] and the other is not, then the route be follows is used to determine whether one is a Traveller or not. If the took the shorter route, then he is not a Traveller but if he took the orger route, then he is a Traveller, even though he had no real reason take the longer route. (Alangiri. vol. 1, pp. 138, Durr-e-Makhair & Rod-dulolitis, vol. 1, pp. 726) low long does a Traveller Remain a Traveller?

person remains a Traveller until and unless he returns to his city or lige or if he does not make intention to stay in the populated area for implete fifteen days but this is applicable when he has travelled three-ys-distance (that is approximately 92 km). Hence if he decides to turn before covering a distance of Three-Manzil (that is approximately km), he is no longer a Traveller no matter he is in uninhabited land. Humgirt, VI, P139, Darr-e-Mathair, V2, P728)

the Journey is Impermissible then....?

bether the journey is for a permissible reason or not, the rules taining to the Traveller will apply. ('Alamgiri, vol. 1, pp. 139)

Employer & Employee Travelling in Company

If an employee earning salaries on a monthly or annual basis, travel with his employer then he is a Follower of his employer; an obedient son is a Follower of his father and a student whose teacher provide food for him, is a Follower of his teacher. Follower will be deemed to follow the intention of his leader. Therefore, the Follower should inquite about the intentions of the leader and act according to his answer (to shortening his Şalah). If the leader did not provide an answer, then the Follower must evaluate whether the leader is a Traveller or a Resident if the leader is a Traveller, then the Follower should also consider himself as a Traveller and if the leader is a Resident, then he should consider himself as a Resident, as well.

If it is not known whether the leader is a Traveller or a Resident the after travelling for three-days distance (i.e. approximately 92 km follower should Qaşr [shorten his Ṣalāh], Before the three-days-distance [approximately 92 km] is covered he should pray the normal Ṣalah with full number of Rak'āt]. If he could not ask his leader then the same rules apply as if he asked but did not get an answer. (Derived for Bakir-v-Short'an, vol. 1, pp. 745, 746)

Once I have Finished My Work I will Go Back!

Suppose a traveller stayed, whether to attend some work or to wait to his friends, for two, three days or even thrreen or fourteen days; or intends to leave as soon as his work is finished, in all these circumstanceven if many years pass while flip-flopping on a decision to leave he considered as a traveller and should Qaşr, (ibid, pp. 747, 'Alamgiri, rat. 1, 139)

The Rulings for Woman's Journey

It is not permissible for a woman to travel for three-days-distance. (approximately 92 km) or more (or even for one-day-distance) without her Mahram. She cannot even travel with a minor or a semi-insane either. It is a necessary condition for her journey that she must be accompanied by an adult Mahram or her husband. (Alongini Vol. 1 pp. 147) Woman can travel accompanied by a (reliable) Mahram preadolescent boy. Here, preadolescent youth are regarded as adults. For an faccompanying Mahram, it is essential that he is trustworthy, and neither a strong transgressor not an audacious person. (Bahara-Shurian od. 1, pp. 752-1644, 1645)

Woman's Parental Home & In-law's Home

After marriage, if a woman resides in her in-law's house then her parent's home is no longer her Original Hometown [Waṭan-e-Aṣlɨ]. Therefore, if her in-law's house is at a three-days-distance (i.e. approximately 92 km) from her parent's home and she visited her parent's home and did not make an intention to stay for at least fifteen days, she should Qaṣr [shorten his Ṣalāh].

After marriage, if she has not abandoned her residence at her parent's home and was just visiting her in-law's home then her journey would come to an end as soon as she returns to her parent's home. Now, she should pray the normal Şalāh [with full number of Rak'āt, without shortening it]. (thid, pp. 751)

Rules Pertaining to People Staying in an Arab Country on Visa

Nowadays, a lot of people migrate to other countries for business etc. They get the visa for an allotted time (for example, in U.A.E. a residential visa is issued for a maximum of three years). This is a temporary visa and must be renewed after every three years, with usually some fees being associated with the renewal. As this visa is issued for a specific period of time, the intention of staying there permanently (and making it an Original Hometown] is not valid even though one resides there with his wife and children and even if he resides in U.A.E. [on visas]. for one hundred years, U.A.E. cannot be his Original Hometown [Watan-e-Aşli]. Whenever he returns from a journey, he would have to make an intention to stay (for the next fifteen days or more). For example, a person lives in Dubai and for learning Sunnahs, he undertakes a Sunnah-Inspiring journey in a Madani Qafilah with the Devotees of the Prophet, to Abu Dhabi - the capital of U.A.E., which is approximately 150 km away. Upon his return, if he wants to stay in Dubat, he has to make an intention to stay for the next fifteen days or more otherwise rules pertaining to a traveller would be applicable to him. However, if it is apparent from his circumstances and condition that he will spend fifteen or more days in Dubai, then he has become Resident now.

If a person's nature of business is such that it requires Shari'ah-trayel and he does not live in Dubai for complete fifteen days then he will remain a Traveller [since he is on visas] and has to Qaşr [shorten his Ṣalāh], although several years have passed arriving to or departing from his wife and children. Those who supply goods to far off cities, or those who transport goods from city-to-city and country-to-country, or those who are drivers [for transportation companies] must memorize these rules.

An Indispensable Rule for the Visitor of Madinaĥ

One made an intention to stay (for the next fifteen or more days) but his circumstances indicate that he would not be able to stay for fifteen days then his intention is not valid. For example, a person travels [over 92 km or more] to perform the Haj pilgrimage and after the beginning of the month of Zul-Hajjah, he made an intention to stay in the Blessed Makka for the next fifteen days. His intention is nullified since he will have to go to Mina on the 8th of Zul-Hajjah (and on the 9th to) 'Arafat in order to fulfil the rights of his Haj pilgrimage. Therefore he will not be able to stay for intended (i.e., fifteen) days in the blessed city of Makkah. However, if one makes an intention to stay in Makkah after returning from Mina, then his intention will be valid provided he could in fact stay in Makkah for the next fifteen days or more. In case, there is a great possibility that he would leave within the fifteen days for the enlightened city of Madina or return back to his own country then he would still remain a Traveller. (Dun-c-Makhata, vol. 2, pp. 729 - Alamon, vol. 1, pp. 140)

Over-Staying for Haj having 'Umrah Visa only?

Those having an intention whether to stay illegally for Haj after travelling on 'Umrah Visas or to reside in any country of the world after the expiration of their visas will be considered Residents until they live in that city or village in which they were as a Resident at the time of expiration of their visas; they can live there for decades they will still remain as Residents. However, once they travelled from that city or village with an intention to cover a distance of 92 km or more, they become a 'Traveller as soon as they went out of township and now their intention to stay [for fifteen days] is void.

For example, someone went to Makka-tul-Mukarramah from Pakistan on 'Umrah visa and, at the time of expiry of his visa, he was in Makkahtul-Mukarramah as a Resident then the rules pertaining to a Resident will apply on him. Let us suppose that afterwards he went to Jeddah or to Madinah-tul-Munawwarah, he became a Traveller even he would to reside here for decades. He will still remain a Traveller even if he returns to Makkah-tul-Mukarramah and he will have to Qaşr shorten his Şalāh].

However, if the visa is renewed, one can make an intention to stay |for the next fifteen days|.

Remember! It is not permissible to violate the laws of a country which might result in falling prey of banes like vilification, bribes and lies etc.

My Master, 'Alā Ḥaḍrat, Imām of Ahl-e-Sunnet, Ḥaḍrat 'Allāmaĥ Maulānā, Ash-Shah Imām Ahmed Razā Khān المحافظة states in his batāwā Raḍawiyyah: "Amongst the Mubāḥ [Allowed] actions, some are declared as 'crimes' by the law of the land. Indulging in these acts (and violating the laws) would rantamount to presenting oneself for punishment and disgrace, and this is Impermissible." (Derived from Faringa e-Raṭavīvvah, vol. 17, pp. 370) Therefore, staying without visa in any country or for Ḥaj is impermissible. To categorize this illegal stay for Ḥaj as a blessing of Allah المحافظة and the grace of the Exalted Prophet المحافظة المحافظة أله is a grave audacity.

Qaşr [Shortening the Şalāĥ] is Wājib

It is Wājib for a Traveller to Qaşr [shorten his Ṣalāh] i.e. those Fard Ṣalāh that bears four Rak'āt [that is Zuhar, 'Aṣr and 'Ishā] should be offered as two Rak'āt. For a Traveller these two Rak'āt, are equivalent to the complete Ṣalāh – full four Rak'āt.

If he offered four Rak'at intentionally and sat for Qa'dah after the second Rak'at then his Fard is fulfilled and the last two Rak'at count as Nafl (Supererogatory) but he is a sinner and entitled to the fire of Hell, as he has forgone a Wājib. Therefore, he must also repent,

In the event that he did not sit for Qa'dah after the second Rak'at then his Fard were not fulfilled and all four Rak'at would be counted as Natl. Except, if he made an intention for residing [for the next lifteen days] before the Sajdah' of the third Rak'at then his Fard will not be voided, but he will have to revert back to the standing position of Qiyam and should repeat the Rukū' [Bowing-position] for his third Rak'at; and if he made this intention during the Sajdah of third Rak'at then his Fard are voided. Similarly, if he neither did the Qirā-at [Qurānic recitation] in any of the first two Rak'at nor in both, his Şalāh would be invalid. (Bahār e-Sharf of vol. 1, pp. 183, 'Alamgur vol. 1, pp. 189)

If Someone Made the Intention of Four Rak'at Instead of Qaşr, then....

A Traveller made an intention to offer four Rak'āt of Fard instead of Qaşr [shorten his Şalāh] and thereafter realized and offered Salām after two Rak'āt, his Şalāh has been accomplished. Similarly, a Resident made an intention to offer two Rak'āt of Fard instead of the four but completed the four and offered Salām after four Rak'āt then his Şalāh is accomplished. The honourable Fuqahā [Jurists of Islamic jurisprudence]

[Jurist]: 44370 have states: "In the intention of Şalāh, it is not necessary to designate the number of Rak'āt, as this is implied. Therefore, making an error in designating the number of Rak'āt in the intention is not harmful." (Durre-Mukkov, vol. 2, pp. 120)

A Travelling Imam and Resident Muqtadi (Follower)

[When praying Congregational Salah,] it is a necessary requirement for the follower to know whether the Imam is a Traveller or a Resident, for the follower's compliance to be true; whether it was known at the time of beginning the Şalāh or afterwards. Therefore, an Imām should abnounce that he is a Traveller before beginning to lead the Şalāh and in case that he did not make the announcement at the beginning of Salāh then he should announce afterwards, "I am a traveller. All Resident Islamic brothers should complete their Şalāh" [i.e. their full four Rak'āt]. (Durs e-Mukhtār, vol. 2, pp. 733) If he had announced at the beginning, even then he should announce after Şalāh, that he is a Traveller as those who were not present at the beginning of Şalāh would also come to know. In the event that it is obvious and known that the Imām is a Traveller then announcing after the Şalāh is Mustahab. (Bahār-e Shari'an vol.), pp. 749)

Resident Follower & the Remaining two Rak'āt

When an Intant is a Traveller and he Qaşr [shortens his Şalāh] and the followers complete their remaining Şalāh, then instead of reciting Sūra-tul-Fātiḥah in the third and fourth Rak'āt of the Fard they should stand silent for the estimated time it takes to recite Sūra-tul-Fātiḥah.

Durce-Makhtār, vol. 2. pp. 735. Derived from Balār-e-Short'at, Port 1, pp. 738.

Are Sunnaĥ of Şalâĥ Exempted for Travellers?

There is no Qaşr [shortening of Şalāh] in Sunnah Şalāh. They should be offered it their entirety. In a state of fear or haste, Sunnahs are waived but they should to be offered in state of peace. Palengur, vol. 1, pp. 139)

In Relation to the five letters of "Şalāĥ", Five Madanī Pearls Pertaining to offering Şalāĥ on a Moving Conveyance

 [For a Traveller who has travelled] Outside the city, ("outside the city", refers to the place from where Qaşr becomes Wājib upon a Traveller), one can offer Nafl Şalāh while riding on a conveyance (e.g. moving car, bus, or van). In this condition, turning towards the direction of Qiblah is not a pre-condition and the Traveller should adopt the direction, the conveyance is moving in. If the Traveller does not face this direction, then the Şalah is not permissible. Turning towards the Qiblah is not a condition, even at the time of beginning the Şalah. One merely faces the direction the conveyance is moving in.

 During the Salah, offer Rukū' and Sujūd by gestures and (it is necessary that) the motion for Sajdah should be lower than that of the Rukū'. (i.e. one has to bend more for Sajdah than the Rukū').
 (Durre-Mušlatir & Rud-dul-Mutuār, vol. 1, pp. 588; Bahūr-e-Sharī'ui, vol. 1, pp. 671.)

On a conveyance where there is sufficient room available, like on a moving train, then one will have to offer Nafl Şalāh while standing and turning towards the Qiblah.

- After a village dweller leaves his village he can offer Nafi Şalâh on the conveyance. (Rad dol-Muhtar, vol. 2, pp. 588)
- If one began Ṣalāĥ outside city, on the conveyance, and during his Ṣalāĥ entered the city, he can complete his Ṣalāĥ until he reaches his house. (Dare-e-Makhār, vol. 2, pp. 589)
- 5. In a moving vehicle, one cannot offer any Fard Rak'at, Sunnah Rak'at of Fajr and all Wājib Rak'āt nor the Sajdah of recitation, provided the verse of Sajdah was recited on land. The Wājib Rak'āt include the Witr Rak'āt, or the Vowed [Nażr] Şalāh, or that Nafl Şalāh that was invalidated after one started it [because of any reason]. All the aforementioned, cannot be performed on a moving vehicle without a valid excuse. If a valid excuse is upheld then it is a condition that all the aforementioned should be offered while standing and turning towards the Qiblah if possible, otherwise [i.e.

if it is impossible then) in any possible manner. Repeat this Şalāĥi afterwards, (Bahar-e-Shari'at, vol. 1, pp. 673.)

If a Traveller Stands up to offer third Rak'at then ...?

If a Traveller starts the third Rak'at in his Qaşr Şalāh then there are two possibilities:

1. If he sat for the Qa'dah-e-Akhirah (final Qa'dah) [after the second Rak'at] for an estimated time it takes to recite the Tashahhud, then as long as has not offered the Sajdah of the third Rak'at he must revert back to the Qa'dah position and after performing Sajdah-e-Sahw, perform Salam [and finish his Şalāh]; and if he did not revert back and offered Salam while standing, even then his Şalāh will be accomplished, but he has forgone a Sunnah.

If he has offered Sajdah of third Rak'at then he must add another Rak'at [to make it four] and finish it after performing Sajdah-e-Sahw. In this scenario the last two Rak'at will be regarded as Nafl.

 If he stood up without sitting for the Qa'dah-e-Akhīrah (after the second Rak'at] then as long as he did not offer the Sajdah of the third Rak'at, he should revert back to the Qa'dah and after performing Sajdah-e-Sahw offer Salam.

If he offered the Sajdah of third Rak'at [without sitting in Qa'dah after the second Rak'at, then his], Fard have been voided. Now, he should add another Rak'at [to make it four] and offer Sajdah-e-Sahw and complete his Ṣalāh. All these four Rak'āt will be regarded as Nafl. (Offering two Rak'āt of Fard still remains as an obligation upon him).

Qaḍā Ṣalāĥ and the Journey

The Salāh missed in the state of being a Resident will have to be made up [Qaḍā] as normal, even during a journey; and the Salāh missed during a journey [as a Traveller] will have to be made up [Qaḍā] as Qaṣr [and will be shortened] even after becoming a Resident.

Drops of Mercy Fell on Me As Well

An Islamic brother of Korangi, Bāb-ul-Madina Karachi (approx. 22 years old) makes the following statement:

Unfortunately! I had indulged in many evils such as missing Ṣalāḥ watching film and dramas, fashion and company of wicked friends. I was a spoilt youngster whose precious life was passing in sins. The crescent of Ramadán (1426 A.H.) appeared and the rain of Allah's mercy began to shower. Some drops of mercy showered on me as well and I performed collective I'tikāf during the last ten days of Ramadan in the Karimia Qadiriyyah Masjid of Korangi, Bāb-ul-Madina Karachi.

The prolonged dark night of my life's autumn began to turn into the bright morning of the spring. [hall-scall] participation in the collective I'tikaf changed my life-style altogether; I not only repented of all the sins, began to offer Ṣalāh, grew beard, began to wear the turban but I also travelled with a 30 days Sunnah-inspiring Madani Qafilah of Dawat-e-Islami, the international non-political religious movement of the Quran and Sunnah in the company of the Prophet's lovers in order to learn sunnah.

المعالمة عنه at this moment in time, I am carrying out the Madani work of Dawat-e-Islami as a Zeli Qafilah Zimmadar in a Masjid.

The standing person was repeatedly crushing his head with the stone and every time his head would heal. Flames of Fire in the Grave

A man's sister died; when he returned after burying her, he recalled that its pouch of money had dropped into her grave. So he returned to the graveyard in order to dig it out. When he dug it open, he saw a terrifying scene. The flames of fire were blazing in his sister's grave. He quickly filled up the grave again and rushed desperately towards his mother and asked her, "Dear mother! How were the deeds of my sister?" She sid, "Son! Why are you asking?" He replied "I've seen flames of fire blazing in her grave," On hearing this, his mother began to cry too and aid, "Your sister used to miss her Şalāh and would offer Şalāh beyond me stipulated time." (Khah-al-Kahair, p. 26)

Dear Islamic brothers! When such bitter torments are for those who offer Şalāh beyond stipulated time, then how (perilous) would be the end of those who do not offer Şalāh at all?

If one Forgets to offer Şalāh then ...?

The beloved Rasūl of Allāh المنافظة said, "If one misses his Şalāh due to sleep or forgetfulness, he should offer it when he recalls as it would be time of that Salāh (for him)." (Sabīt Musibu, pp. 346, Hadis 684)

The reverent Islamic jurists Junus say, "If one misses his Salah due to sleep or forgetfulness, it is Fard for him to offer it as Qadā; there will to no sin of missing the Salah for him in this case. However, he should fire the Salah as soon as he recalls or wakes up provided it is not a Makruh time, further delay is Makruh." (Buhār-e-Shari'at, pp. 701, vol. 1)

Sleeping in the Last Part of the Night

If one goes to sleep after the time of Şalāh had started and resultantly, the time (of Ṣalāh) elapsed, rendering the Ṣalāh Qaḍā, he will definitely become sinner provided he was not confident enough to wake up not there was someone who can awake him. In fact, it cannot be permitted to sleep even before the starting of timings of Fajr Ṣalāh provided most part of the night was spent in wakefulness and it is almost sure that if one sleeps now, he will not be able to wake within the timing-(of Fajr), (Bahār-e-Shari'm, pp. 701, wil. 1)

Waking till Late Night

Dear Islamic brothers! If there is a fear of missing Fajr Ṣalāh due to staying awake till late hours at night in gatherings of Zikr and Na'at, religious congregations etc. one should sleep in the Masjid in such a case with the intention of I'tikāf or sleep at a place where someone trustworthy for arousing him is available or he should set an alarm clock which can wake him up but one should not depend upon just one timepiece as it may run down or turn off because of being hit by hand in sleep. The reverent scholars above say, "If one fears that he would miss the Fajr Şalāh, he is not allowed to stay awake till late hours at night without Shar'i permission." (Radidal-Malha), pp. 33, vol. 2)

Definitions of Adā, Qaḍā and Wājib-ul-Pādaĥ

Carrying out commandments within their stipulated timings is called Ada.

Carrying out commandments after the clapsing of stipulated timings is called Qada.

If some flew occurs in carrying out a commandment, repeating that worship to compensate for that flaw is called I'adah (Revision).

If Takbir-e-Tahrimah was uttered within the stipulated time, Şalāh would not become Qadā; it is still Adā, (Dur to Maktoör, pp. 627-632, tot. 2). But in case of Fajr, Junu'ah, and Eid Şalāh, it is necessary to perform Salām (of Şalāh) within the stipulated time; otherwise Şalāh will not be valid. (Mahār e-Sharī at. pp. 701, vol. 1).

To miss Ṣalāh without a lawful exemption is a grave sin. It is Fard to perform it as Qadā and repent sincerely by heart. By virtue of repentance or an acknowledged Haj Jask data at the sin of delay (in offering the Ṣalāh) will be forgiven. (Dur-re-Makhar, pp. 626, vol. 2) Repentance will only be valid if one offers Qadā of the missed Ṣalāh. Repentance without performing Qadā is not repentance because the Ṣalāh which was due on him is still due and how can repentance be valid without refraining from sin! (Rad-dui-Mataār, pp. 627, vol. 2)

Hadrat Sayyidunā Ibn-e-'Abbās المقال المنافعة reports that the Prophet of Allah, the intercessor of Ummah المنافعة المنافعة على said, "The one who repents without abandoning sins is like the one who jokes with Allah المنافعة "Shu'hal hallah المنافعة" (Shu'hal hallah pp. 436, vol. 5, Hadis 7178)

There are Three Pillars of Repentance

Hadrat 'Allāmah Sayyid Muhammad Na'īm-ud-Din Murādābādī 🖘 🕮 says, "There are three pillars of repentance:

- Admitting the sin.
- 2. Feeling of shame.
- Determination to abandon the sin. If the sin is compensable, it is must to compensate for it. For example, it is necessary for the completion of repentance of the abandoner of Salah to offer the missed Salah as Qada," (Rhanalu-ul-Iefon, p. 72)

It is Wājib to Arouse a Sleeping Person for Şalāĥ

If someone is sleeping or he has forgotten to offer Salāĥ, it is Wājib for the other who is aware of it to rouse the sleeping person or remind the one who has forgotten to offer Salāĥ. (Bahār-e-Sānat'a, pp. 701, vol. 1) (Otherwise, the one who is aware will be sinner). Remember! Rousing or reminding will be Wājib only if it is almost sure that he would offer Salāĥ; otherwise not.

Wake up, It's Time for Fajr!

Dear Islamic brothers! Earn heaps of Sawah by waking up sleeping Islamic brothers for Şalāh. In the Madani environment of Dawat-e-Islami, waking the Muslims for Şalā-tul-Fajr is called 'Şada-e-Madinah.' Though Şada-e-Madinah is not Wajib, awaking Muslims for Fajr Şalāh is an act of Sawāb which every Muslim should perform, However, care must be taken that no Muslim is distressed on account of calling Sadae-Madinah.

An Incident

An Islamic brother told me (Sag-e-Madinah wa), "We, a few Islamic brothers, were passing by a lane calling Sada-e-Madinah using a megaphone at the time of Fajr Salah. Meanwhile, interrupting us, a person said that his child who could not sleep all the night had just slept. He requested us not to use the megaphone. We got annoyed with that person as to what type of Muslim he was. We were awaking people for Salah and he was preventing us. By chance, the next day we again moved towards the same lane calling Sada-e-Madinah. The same person was standing in gloom at the verge of the lane and said to us. Today again my son had not slept all the night, he has just gone to sleep, I am standing here to request you people to pass by this lane silently."

This incident shows that Şada-e-Madinah should be called without using megaphone and even when calling without it, one should not raise his voice so loudly that it disturbs Islamic sisters offering Şalāh or reciting the Holy Quran inside homes, patients, aged people and children or those who have fallen asleep after offering the Şalāh in its earlier time. If someone prevents us from calling Şada-e-Madinah we should humbly apologise to him rather than making arguments with him; further, we should have positive opinion about him as surely no Muslim can oppose awaking people for Şalāh; most probably, he would be facing some genuine problem. Even if he is an abandoner of Şalāh, we are still not entitled to behave aggressively. Instead, we should entice him towards Şalāh politely making our individual effort on any other appropriate occasion.

Apart from Ażan-e-Fajr, care should be taken in using Masjid speakers or sound systems for gatherings in streets or homes making it sure that the sound of the speaker does not disturb those worshipping at homes, patients, infants, sleeping ones etc.

An Incident about 'Realization of Public Rights'

To be considerate of public rights is extremely necessary. Our past saints were very careful in this regard. Therefore, Hujja-tul-Islam Sayyiduna Imam Muhammad Ghazāli المنابطة المناب

Offer Qadā Şalāĥ as Soon as Possible

It is Wājib to offer the missed Qaḍā Ṣalāh at the earliest. However, delay is permissible for the sake of earning livelihood for family and meeting personal needs. Therefore, one should keep earning livelihood and offer the Qaḍā Ṣalāh in spare times until all Qaḍā Ṣalāh are offered. (Dur-re-Mukhār, pp. 646, vol. 2)

Offer Your Qaḍā Ṣalāĥ in Seclusion

Offer Qadā Şalāh in seclusion; do not reveal it to others even to family members and close friends (for example, do not say like: I missed Fajr Şalāh today or I am offering Qaḍā of missed Ṣalāh of lifetime etc.) as mentioning (your) sin (to others) is Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmī and a sin. (Raddul Malear, pp. 650, vol. 2) Therefore, do not raise hands for the Takbīr of Qunut while offering Qaḍā of Witr Ṣalāh in the presence of others.

Lifetime Qada on the Last Friday of Ramadan?

Some people offer Qadā of lifetime missed Şalāh in congregation on the last Friday of Ramadān-ui-Mubārak and assume that all the Qadā Şalāh of lifetime has been offered by offering this one Şalāh; it is nothing but a sheer fallacy. (Buhāra-Shart'ın, pp. 708; vol. 1)

Calculation of Qadā Şalāĥ of the Whole Life

The one who has never offered Şalāh and now has been blessed with the desire to offer the Qaḍā of lifetime missed Şalāh should māke a computation from the day when he reached puberty. If the date of puberty is not known, it is safer that the man should make computation from the age of 12 years and the woman should do the same from the age of 9 years. (Parami Kodoviyyah Gad ids. pp. 154, voi. 8)

Order of Offering Qadā Şalāh

While offering lifetime Qaḍā Ṣalāh, one may first offer all Fajr Ṣalāh, then all Zuhar Ṣalāh and similarly 'Aṣr, Maghrib and 'Ishā Ṣalāh.

Method of Offering Qaḍā Ṣalāĥ (Ḥanafi)

There are 20 Rak'at of Qaḍā Ṣalāh in a day: two Rak'at Fard of Fajr, four of Zuhar, four of 'Aṣr, three of Maghrib, four of 'Ishā and three Rak'āt of Witr (Wājib). Make intention like this, "I am offering the very first Fajr that I missed," Similar intention may be made for every missed Salāh. If one has a large number of missed Ṣalāh to offer, it is permissible for him to avail following relaxations:

- 1. Uttering the Tasbihât in Rukū' and Sujūd (مَنْهُوْنَ فِي الْمُحُوْنِ الْمُعَلِيّةِ) once instead of thrice. However, one must always make sure in all sorts of Salāh that he starts uttering the مُنْجُونَ of مُنْ having completely bent for Rukū' and that he begins to lift his head up from Rukū' having uttered the مُعُلِيم Similar care has to be taken in Sajdah.
- Ultering 'a' b' three times in the 3rd and 4th Rak'at of Fard Salah instead of reciting Sūra-e-Fātiḥah, but remember that Sūra-e-Fātiḥah and a Sūrah are to be recited in all the three Rak'at of Witr.
- In the last Qa'dab, performing the Salām having uttered just 'اللَّهُوَّ صَانِ عَلَى مُحَدِّدٍ وَالبَدِّ after Tashahhud without reciting the remaining Durod Sharif and Du'ā.
- Uttering just 'وَ اغْفِرَيْ once or three times instead of the supplication of Qunut in the third Rak'at of Witr after uttering الله (Fanassa Radawiyyah (Jad El), pp. 157, vol. 8)

Quilă of Qaşr Şalāĥ

If the Qada Salah missed in travelling state is to be offered in settled state, it will be offered Qaşr (curtailed) and if the Qada Salah missed in settled state is to be offered in travelling state, it will be offered completely i.e. curtailing will not be done. (Finamare-Alumgiri, pp. 121, vol. 1)

Şalāĥ of Apostasy Period

Allāh Josse forbid, if someone became apostate and then embraced Islam again, he is not required to offer the Qaḍā of the Ṣalāĥ missed during the period of apostasy. However, it is Wājib to offer the Qaḍā of the Salah missed in the state of Islam before becoming apostate. (Rud-dul-Mulaiar, pp. 647, vol. 2)

Şalah at the Time of Delivery

If the midwife fears that the baby would die in case of offering Salāh, it is a valid reason for her to miss Salāh in this situation. If the head of the baby came out and there is a fear that the time of Salāh would end before the start of Postnatal Bleeding, it is Fard for the mother to offer the Salāh even in this condition; if she does not offer Salāh, she will be a sinner. Salāh should be offered by keeping the head of the baby in some dish etc. in such a careful way that it is not harmed. However, if there is a fear of the baby's death in case of offering Salāh even in this way, delay is exempted. Qaḍā of this Salāh is to be offered after the termination of postnatal bleeding. (Rad-dul-Meluār, pp. 627, red. 2)

In which Condition a Patient is exempted from Şalāĥ?

The patient who is not in a condition to offer Şalāh even by gestures is exempted from offering Şalāh provided that the same condition lasts up to the next six (consecutive) Şalāh; offering Qaḍā of Ṣalāh missed under this condition is not Wājib. (Fatāwu-e-Ālamgīrī, pp. 121, vol. 1)

Repeating the Şalāĥ of Lifetime

If there was an imperfection or repugnance in somebody's Ṣalāh, it is good for him to repeat all Ṣalāh of his past lifetime. If there was no imperfection, repeating the Ṣalāh is not advisable. However, if he still repeats, he should not offer such Ṣalāh after Fajr and 'Aṣr; a Sūrah should also be recited after Sūra-e-Fātiḥah in all Rak'āt. In Witr, after reciting Qunūt and performing Qa'dah, he should add one more Rak'at to make four in all. (Fatāwa-e-ʿAlamatr, pp. 124, vol. 1)

If Forgot to Utter the Word 'Qada', then?

A'là Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Shāh Imām Ahmad Razā Khan And Says, "Our scholars approve that offering Qaḍā with the intention of Adā and offering Adā with intention of Qaḍā, both are valid." (Folding Radioviyyah (Jadī td), pp. 161, vol. 8)

Offer Qaḍā Ṣalāĥ of Lifetime in Place of Nawāfil

Offering Qadā Şalāh is more important than offering supererogatory Salāh i.e. when one has time to offer Nafl Şalāh, he should offer Qadā Şalāh instead of Nafl Şalāh so that he gets relieved of the obligation; however, he must not leave Tarāwiḥ and twelve daily Rak'āt of Sunnate-Muakkadah (Bahar-e-Sharr'a), pp. 796, vol. 1)

Offering Nafl is not Permissible after Fajr and 'Aşr Şalāĥ

After Fajr and 'Aşr, it is Makrûh (Taḥrīmī) to offer all the intentional Nawāfil including Taḥiyya-tul-Masjid and every such Ṣalāh that became due on account of some external reason such as Nawāfil of Tawāf and votive; likewise, there is the same ruling for every such Ṣalāh that was cancelled having been initiated even if it is Sunnah Ṣalāh of Fajr or 'Aṣr. (Durge Mukhar, pp. 44, 45, vol. 2)

There is no specific timing for offering Qaḍā Ṣalāh, one may fulfil this obligation at any time during life; but it should not be offered at Sunrise, Sunset and Mid-Day (Zavāl) as Ṣalāh is not permissible at these times. (Baḥār-e-Shart'ot, pp. 702, vol. 1, 'Alongirī, pp. 52, vol. 1)

What to do if Four (4) Sunan of Zuhar are Missed?

In case of offering the Fard of Zuhar Şalāh first, offer the four Rak'ât of preceding Sunnah Şalāh after offering two Rak'ât of succeeding Sunnah

Salāh. Therefore A'lā Ḥaḍrat 🎉 Ṣaṇat Ār states, "The four Rak'āt of preceding Sunnah Ṣalāh, if not offered prior to Farḍ Ṣalāh, should be offered after Farḍ Ṣalāh preferably after offering succeeding Sunnah Ṣalāh (two cycles) as per superior decree of Islamic Jurisprudence, provided Zuhar timing has not yet elapsed." (Fotowó Radawiyyah (dad id), 190, 148, vol. 8)

What to do if Sunan of Fajr are Missed?

If there is a risk of missing the congregational Şalāh of Fajr on account of offering Sunan of Fajr, one should join congregational Şalāh leaving the Sunan. But offering the missed Sunan after the Salām (of Fard) is not permissible. It is Mustahab to offer it twenty minutes after the Sunrise but before Dahwa-e-Kubrā.

Is Time Span for Maghrib Şalāĥ Really Short?

The time of Maghrib Şalāh is from sunset up to the start of timings of 'Ishā Ṣalāh. The duration of Maghrib timings increases and decreases according to location and date. For example, in Bāb-ul-Madinah Karachi, minimum duration of Maghrib Ṣalāh is 1 hour and 18 minutes as per calendar of Ṣalāh timings. Islamic Scholars say: "Except for the cloudy days, early offering of Maghrib Ṣalāh is Mustaḥab. Making a delay for as long as two Rak'āt of Ṣalāh may be offered is Makrūh-e-Tanzīhī and making a delay such that stars get mixed up without a valid reason such as journey or sickness is Makrūh-e-Taḥrīmī. Beliot-e-Shart'at. pp. 453. vol. 1/A'la Hadrat Maulānā Shāh Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān 🔑 🕪 states, "Mustaḥab time of Maghrib Ṣalāh is up to the clear appearance of stars; making such a delay that small stars (in addition to the big ones) also start glittering is Makrūh (Taḥrīmī)." (Fasono Raḍandyyah thad ūd), pp. 153, vol. 5) The Rak'at of Sunnah Şalah offered before Fard Şalah of 'Aşr and 'Isha are Sunnah-e-Ghair Muakkadah and, therefore, it is not necessary to offer them as Qaḍa, if missed.

What is the Ruling Regarding Qaḍā of Tarāwiḥ?

If Tarawih is missed, there is no Qadā for it; neither in congregation nor individually. If someone offers Qadā of Tarawih, they will be regarded as Nafl; these Nawafil would have nothing to do with Tarawih. (Tanwir vi-Abjar & Dan-re-Makhar, pp. 598, vol. 2)

The "Fidyaĥ" (Compensation) for Missed Şalāĥ

[Those whose relatives have passed away must read the following account]

Ask about age of the deceased person. If the deceased is a female, subtract 9 years and if the deceased is a male subtract 12 years as the period of minority. Now, for the remaining years, make a calculation as to how long the deceased person missed Salah or fasts of Ramadan i.e. find out the number of Şalâh and fasts of Ramadân whose Qadā is due on him. Make an over-estimate preferably. Rather make a computation for the whole life excluding the period of minority. Now donate one Şadaqa-e-Fiţr (to Faqir) for each Şalāh. One Şadaqa-e-Fiţr amounts to 2.050 Kg of wheat or its flour or its price. The number of Şalāh is six for each day; five Fard Şalāh and one Witr Wājib. For example, if the price of 2.050 Kg wheat is Rs. 12, the amount of one day's Şalâh will be Rs. 72 and that of 30 days' Şalâh, will be Rs. 2160 For 12 months, the amount will be Rs. 25920. Now if the Şalāh of 50 years are due on a deceased person, Rs. 1296000 will have to be donated as Fidyah. Obviously, everybody does not possess enough money to donate this much amount. To resolve this problem, our scholars have devised a Shar't Hilah (a way out) e.g. Rs,2160 may be donated to some Faqir (Definition of Faqir and Miskin may be seen on page, 207-208) with the intention of Fidyah for all the Şalāh of 30 days. In this way, tidyah of Şalāh of 30 days would get paid off. Now, that Faqīr should aft that amount to the payer. Having received the amount, the payer bould again donate it to the Faqīr with the intention of Fidyah of Silāh of unother 30 days in such a way that the amount again comes in the custody of the Faqīr. This exchange should continue till Fidyah of all Şalāh gets paid off.

been stated just as an example. Suppose that the amount of 30 days; it has been stated just as an example. Suppose that the amount for Fidyah of 30 years is available, a single exchange will be sufficient. It should also be noted that the computation for the amount of Fidyah will have to be made as per latest price of wheat. Similarly, there is one Şadaqa-e-litr for each fast. Having paid Fidyah of Şalāh, the Fidyah of Fasts may also be paid off in the same way. Poor and rich both may avail the ficility of Hilah. If heirs carry out this deed, it would be a great help for their deceased. In this way, the deceased person will be relieved from the obligations Arabical and the heirs will also deserve Sawāb and recompense. Some people donate a volume of the Holy Qurān to a Masjid etc. assuming that they have paid Fidyah of all Şalāh of the deceased person; it is their misconception. (For details see: Fatāwā-e-lazavīyyah, V8, P168, Razā Foundation Lahore)

A Ruling Concerning the Fidyah for a Deceased Woman

If the (monthly) habitual duration of the deceased woman's menstrual period is known, the days equal to the total period of menses may be subtracted from the age of 9 years, and if it is not known, 3 days per month may be subtracted as per above-mentioned way. However, the days of menstrual period would not be subtracted from the months of pregnancy. Moreover, if the duration of woman's post-natal bleeding is known, the days equal to the total period of post-natal bleeding may be subtracted for each pregnancy, and if it is not known, nothing should be subtracted as there is no limit on minimum side for post-natableeding. It is possible that the bleeding would stop in a minute and she would become pure. (Foldow's Maglow's yell (Jod id), pp. 154, vol. 8)

Hīlaĥ for 100 Whips

Dear Islamic brothers! I have not mentioned the Hilah of Şalah on the basis of my personal opinion. The justification for Shar'i Hilah is present in the Holy Qurān, Hadis and renowned books of Hanafi Doctrine. For example, once, the noble wife of Hadrat Sayyidunā Ayyūb Attagot late in getting to his blessed court during the period of his illness so he swore to hit her 100 whips after recovering from the illness. When he recovered, Allāh Jay ordered him to strike her with a broom made of 100 straws. The Holy Qurān says:

And was asked to take a broom in hand, beat with it and break not your vow.

(Section 23, Rukū* 13) (Kanzul Imān [Translation of Quran])

There is a complete chapter on the topic of Ḥīlaĥ entitled "Kitāb-u" Ḥīl" in the famous Ḥanafi book "Alamgīrī." It is stated in the sambook: "It is Makruĥ to do a Ḥīlaĥ to deprive someone of his rights; or create doubt in it, or deceive by something false, but the Ḥīlaĥ aimed at preventing someone from committing Ḥarām, or in order to attaus something Ḥalāl is commendable. The following Qurānic verse is a proof for the permissibility of such types of Ḥilaĥ:

وَخُذُبِينٍ كَ ضِغُقًافًا ضُرِبٌ يِهِ وَلا تَعْنَثُ

And was asked to take a broom in hand, beat with it and break not your vow. Action 73, Rukā" 13) (Faiāwa-e-'Ālungāri, pp. 390; vel. 4) (Kauzul Imān (Translation of Qurun))

When did the Tradition of Ear-Piercing Initiate?

There is another evidence for the permissibility of Ḥilaĥ; Sayyidanā Abdullah ibn 'Abbās અને ક્રાંક કર્યા હતા હતા reports: Once, there was a discord netween Ḥaḍrat Sayyidatunā Sāraĥ and Ḥaḍrat Sayyidatunā Ĥājiraĥ અને ક્રાંક કર્યા ફ્રાંક ફ્ર

Cow's Meat as a Gift

Shar'î Hîlah for Zakah

The foregoing Hadis clearly indicates that the meat donated as Sadaqal to Hadrat Sayyidatuna Bartrah who was deserving of Sadaqal was doubtlessly Sadaqal for her. However, when the same meat, after being given in her custody, was presented in the court of the How Prophet was always at the ruling changed altogether and it was no longer Sadaqah.

Similarly, a deserving person (deserving of Zakah), after taking Zakal in his custody, may gift it to anybody or he may donate it for Masji etc. as this donation by that deserving person is a sort of gift rathe than Zakah. The reverent scholars Jakah have described a Shari Hilah for Zakah that is as follows:

The money of Zakāh cannot be used to pay for the burial or shrouding expenses of a deceased or for the construction of Masjid as Tamlik-c Faqir (i.e. making the Faqir owner of Zakāh donation) is missing hers However, if the money of Zakāh is to be spent on such matters, donate Zakāh to some Faqir so that he becomes its owner and now that Faqir may spend the money (in construction of Masjid etc.); both will gain Sawāh." (Bahar-e-Sharr'et, pp. 890, vol. 1)

100 People will be Rewarded Equally

Dear Islamic brothers! Did you see? The money of Zakāh may be use for burial expenses or in the construction of Masjid after performing Shar'i Ḥilah as the money is Zakāh for Faqīr but once the Faqīr gets in possession, he becomes its owner and he may spend it as he likes. By wirtue of Shar'i Ḥilah, Zakāh of the donor got paid and at the same time, the Faqīr became entitled for Šawāb for spending his money in the construction of Masjid. The ruling for Shar'i Ḥīlah may be explained to the Faqīr as well. If possible, the donation should be circulated in lands of more people while performing Shar'i Hilah so that more people ould gain Sawāb. For example, suppose 12 hundred thousand rupees 12 Zakāh are to be donated to a Faqir for Shar'i Hilah. The Faqir should also this amount in his possession and then gift it to other Islamic mother. That Islamic brother, after having the possession of the amount, sould gift it to another one. In this way, each involved brother should handover possession of that amount to the other with intention of mining Sawāb and the last one, then, should spend it for construction of Masjid or in any other expenditure for which Shar'i Hilah has been note; And work to everyone will get Sawāb of spending 12 hundred thousand rupees as Sadagah.

Hadrat Sayyiduna Abu Hurairah & calabose reports that the beloved Rasul of Allah controlled and said, "If Sadaqah is circulated through bundreds of hands, then each one of them will earn the Sawab equal to that of the donor and there will be no deduction in his Sawab." (Trough Burbhald, vol. 7, pp. 135, Hadri 356)

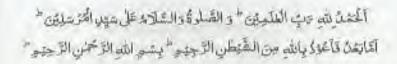

Definition of "Fagir"

A Faqur is the one who (a) possesses some assets but they are less than the worth of Niṣāb (b) or the one who possesses assets valued up to the mount of Niṣāb, but the same are engaged in his basic necessities (i.e. by means of his assets, his basic needs are being fulfilled) e.g. a house for living, household items, animals (or scooter, car) for travelling, tools for a craftsman, clothes for wearing, slaves for servitude, Islamic books for the one interested in religious study but not more than the requirement, (c) Similarly, if someone is in debt such that on deduction of debt, the remaining assets would be less than the worth of Niṣāb; he is also Faqīr, no matter, he possesses multiples of Niṣāb. (Rad-dul-Multār, pp. 333, vol. 3 etc.)

Definition of "Miskin"

A Miskin is the one who does not possess anything and he has to be others for food or clothes for covering the body. Begging is Hall (allowed) for him. It is I laram for a Faqir (i.e. the one who possess meal for eating of one time and has clothes for wearing) to beg without need and compulsion. (Fanness-e-Alamani, pp. 187-188, vol. 1, Bahar-e-Shari'n pp. 924, vol. 1)

Dear Islamic brothers! It became obvious that the beggars who beg an profession without need and compulsion despite being capable enough to earn livelihood are sinners; further, those who donate such people despite being aware of their condition, their Zakāh and charity go to waste and they become sinners as well.

Thief of Shroud

A shroud-stealer participated in funeral Salāh of a woman and noted the whereabouts of her grave in the graveyard. At night, he dug the grave with the intention of stealing the shroud. All of a sudden, the blessed woman spoke, "Jack at Salah A Maghfur (Pardoned) person is stealing the shroud of a Maghfurah woman! Listen, Allāh Jack has forgiven me and all those who offered my funeral Salāh and you are also among the pardoned ones," Listening to this, he immediately closed the grave and repented sincerely, 1860/abs/abs/man, vol. 7, pp. 8, Hadia (2011)

Forgiveness of Funeral Participants

Dear Islantic brothers! Did you notice how beneficial participation in the funeral Salah of the pious people is! Whenever we get a chance or even better, making effort to get such a chance, we should participate in funeral Salah of the Muslims. Our participation in funeral of a pious person may bring about our forgiveness in the Hereafter. How immense Allah's mercy is! He forgives not only the deceased but also the attendees of his funeral! Therefore, Ḥaḍrat Sayyidunā 'Abdullāh bin 'Abbās & dor reports that the Holy Prophet (Abay & dor do attendees of his funeral Salah are forgiven." (Abay & do attendees of his funeral Salah are forgiven." (Abay & do attendees of his funeral Salah are forgiven." (Abay & do attendees of his funeral Salah are forgiven." (Abay & bay & attendees of his funeral Salah are forgiven." (Abay & bay & bay

First Gift in the Grave

Someone asked the Exalted Prophet Asked Manual See, "What is the very first gift that is awarded to a true believer when he enters his grave?"

The Merciful Prophet مَا الْمَاهِمَا الْمَاهِمَا أَنَّهُ answered, "All the participants of his funeral Ṣalāh are forgiven." (Sha'ub-ul-lucān, vol., 7, pp. 8, Hadīs 9257)

The Funeral of a Heavenly Person

The Holy Prophet And Andrews Is said, "When a Heavenly person passes away, Allah Andrews has shyness from punishing those who carried the bier of that person and those who followed the funeral procession and those who offered his funeral Şalah." (Fiedom -bima* Sour al-Kinish, pp. 282, vol. 17)

Sawab of Accompanying the Funeral

إِنَّ الْمَالُ Humbly asked Allah المُنظِّ الْمَالُ humbly asked Allah المُنظِّ الْمَالُ Yā Allāh المُنظِّ الله Sawāb of accompanying the funeral merely for Your pleasure?" Allah المُنابِّ replied, "The day when he dies, the angels will accompany his funeral procession and I will forgive him." (Shorth-uc-Sadur, pp. 97)

Sawab Equivalent to Mount Uhud

Hadrat Sayyidunā Abū Ĥuraīraĥ as Justo ar reports that the Prophet of Raḥmah, the Intercessor of Ummah Abastos reports that the Prophet of departed from home to accompany a funeral (considering it as a duty of believers and with the intention to earn Sawāb), offered funeral Şalāh and accompanied the funeral till burial, Sawāb of two Qīrāt is written for him. Each Qīrāt is equivalent to mount Uhud. There is one Qīrāt Šawāb for the person who returns after funeral Şalāh (without participation in the burial)." (Sobih Muslim, pp. 472, Hodis 945)

The Funeral Şalāĥ has Admonition

Hadrat Sayyiduna Abū Žar Ghifari المعالمة المعالمة narrated that the beloved and blessed Prophet المعالمة المعالمة على المعالمة المعالمة will remind you of the Hereafter and bathe the deceased as touching the mortal body (dead body) is a great lesson and offer the funeral Salah so that it makes you gloomy, for a gloomy person is under the shadow of Allah Jasta and does pious deeds." (Al-Musiadrak-III-Hākim, vol. 1, pp. 711; Bodiā 1435)

What to Recite on Seeing a Funeral!

After the death of Hadrat Sayyidunā Malik bin Anas المعالفة المعالفة someone saw him in a dream and asked, "How did Allâh المعالفة treat you?" He replied, "I was blessed with forgiveness just because of a sentence which Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Ušmān-e-Ghani المنظمة المعالفة used to say on seeing a funeral: المنظمة المعالفة [Pure is He (from all defects / limitations) who is alive and will never die]. Hence, I also used to recite the same sentence on seeing funeral; Allāh منظمة forgave me because of reciting it." (Derived from Hya al. 'Ulim, vol. 5, pp. 266)

The Funeral Şalāĥ is Farḍ-e-Kifāyaĥ

The funeral Şalāh is Fard-e-Kifāyah, i.e. if even a single person offered it, everyone would be relieved of the obligation; if no one offered, all those who were aware of it will be sinners. Jamā'at is not a condition for this Şalāh; if even one person offered it, the Farz will be fulfilled. The denial of its Fardiyyat (obligation) is Kufr (infidelity), (Bohor-e-Shart'an, vol. 1, pp. 825, 'Alangeri, vol. 1, pp. 102, Durr-e-Mükhar, vol. 3, pp. 120)

There are two Units and three Sunnah in the Funeral Prayer

The two Units are:

- 1. To recite still four times
- 3. Qiyam

The three Sunnah-e-Muakkadah are:

- I. Sana
- 2. Durnd Sharif
- 3. Supplication for the deceased, (Indian-e.Shari'nt, w.t. 1, pp. 829)

Method of Funeral Şalâh (Ḥanafi)

Muqtadi should make the following intention: 'I make the intention of offering funeral Salah for Allah Last and making supplication for this dead person, following this Imam.' (Fating & Totar Khaniyyah, vol. 2, pp. 153) Now Imam and the Muqtadis should raise their hands up to their ears and fold them below the navel as usual whilst saying $\frac{1}{2}\text{th}\text{th}\text{, and then recite Sana. After '$\frac{1}{2}\text{th}\text{th}\text{s}' read '$\frac{1}{2}\text{th}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{th}\text{2}\text{2}\text{5}\text{2}\text{1}\text{2}\text{

After the supplication, say ATAM, unfold the hands and perform Salam on both sides, (Buhār e Shari'at, vol. 1, pp. 829, 835)

Supplication for Funeral of Adults (Man and Woman)

اَللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرُ لِحِيْنَا وَمَعِيْنَا وَهَاهِدِنَا وَهَا عِبِنَا وَصَغِيْرِنَا وَكَبِيْرِنَا وَذَكْرِنَا وَأَنْثَنَا * اَللّٰهُمَّ مَنْ اَحْيَيْتُهُ مِنَافَا حُيِهِ عَلَى الْاِسْلَاهِ وَمَنْ تَوَغَّيْتُهُ مِثَافَتُونَّهُ عَلَى الْاِيُمَانِ *

O Allah Jest! Porgive all of our living ones and all the dead ones, and all those who are present and all those who are not present, and all our young ones and all our old ones, and all our men and all our women. Ya Allah Jest! Whomever you keep alive from among us, keep him live in Islam, and whomever of us you make die, make him die with faith.

(Al-Mustadrak Lif Hakim, vol. 1, pp. 684, Hadii 1366)

Du'ā for a Male Minor

ٱللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلُهُ لِنَا قَرَطًا وَاجْعَلُهُ لِنَا ٓ اجْرًا وَرُخُرًا وَاجْعَلُهُ لِنَا شَافِعًا وَمُشَفَّعًا ﴿

O Allah Jaw! Make him fore-runner to become support for us, and make him recompense for us, and make him our intercessor, and the one whose intercession is accepted.

(Al Jauhurat-un-Nayyīrah, VI, P138, Bahār-e-Shari'at, VI, P835)

Du'à for a Female Minor

ٱللَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْهَا لِنَا فَرَطَّا وَاجْعَلْهَا لِنَا آجُرًا وَرُخْرًا وَاجْعَلْهَا لِنَاشَافِعةً وَمُشَفَّعَةً ﴿

O Allah [44]4! Make her fore-runner to become support for us, and make her recompense for us, and make her our intercessor, and the one whose intercession is accepted.

(Bahar-e-Sharf'at, vol. 1, pp. 835)

To Offer Funeral Şalāĥ whilst Standing upon Shoes

In case of offering the finneral Salah wearing the shoes, the shoes as well as the part of the earth beneath them must be pure, while, in case of offering the Salah placing the feet upon the shoes having taken them off, the purity of the sole of the shoes and the ground is not necessary. In reply to a question, A'la Hadrat Ala Balah says, 'If the place was impure due to urine etc. or those who offered the Salah wearing such shoes whose soles were not pure, their Salah would not be valid. It is, therefore, safer to offer the Salah keeping the feet upon shoes having taken them off so that the Salah would not be affected even if the sole of the shoes or the earth beneath is impure.' (Finnante-Rozaninnals, val. 9, pp. 188)

Funeral Şalāĥ în Absentia

Presence of corpse in front is necessary. Funeral Şalāh in absence of corpse can not be valid. It is Mustaḥab for the Imām to stand in front of the chest of the corpse. (Dum-e-Mukhāir, V3, P123, 134)

Method of Offering Joint Şalāĥ for More than one Funeral

Şalah of several funerals may be offered jointly. It is optional to either place the corpses parallel such that chest of all remain in front of the Imam or place them in a queue such that the feet of the one corpse are towards head of the other and so on. (Bohar-e-Shari'at, vol. 1, pp. 839, 'Alongiri, vol. 1, pp. 165)

How many Rows should there be in Funeral Şalāĥ?

It is better to have three Şafs (rows) in the funeral Şalāh as it is mentioned in Ḥadīš, "The one whose (funeral) Ṣalāh was offered by three Ṣafs, he will be forgiven." If there are only 7 people, one should become Imam, three should stand in the first Ṣaf, two in the second Ṣaf and one in the third Ṣaf, (Glowou, pp. 588). In the funeral Ṣalāh, the last Ṣaf is greater than all other Ṣafs, i.e. the Ṣawāb of offering funeral Ṣalāh in the last Ṣaf is greater than offering in any other Ṣaf. (Durr.e-Makhan, vol. 3. pp. 131)

If One Missed Some Part of Congregational Funeral Şalāĥ, then...

The Masbūq (the person who has missed some of the Takbīrāt) will say his remaining. Takbīrāt after the Imām has performed Salām on either side. If he suspects that the people would carry the bier up to the shoulders in case of reciting supplications etc., he should just utter Takbīrāt and leave out the supplications etc. If a person comes after the fourth Takbīr, he may join the Şalāh (before the Imām performs Salām), utter Takbīr three times after Imām's Salām and then perform Salām. (Darr-o-Mulfithr, Vol.3, pp. 136)

Funeral of an Insane or the one who Committed Suicide

The one who is insane by birth or became insane before reaching the age of puberty and died in the state of insanity, the supplication of Minor will be recited in his funeral Şalāh. (Bañas-e-Shart'at. vol. 1, pp. 835. Jankasa, pp. 138, Ghanya, pp. 587) The funeral Şalāh of the one who committed suicide will be offered. (Durr-e-Mukhitir, Vol. 3, P138)

Rulings Pertaining to a Dead Infant

If a Muslim's baby was born alive i.e. he was alive whilst most part of his body was out (during birth) and then died, he will be bathed, shrouded and his funeral Şalah will be offered. Otherwise, he will be washed (ritual bath not required), wrapped in a cloth and buried. Ritual bathing, coffin and funeral Şalāh are not required for him according to Sunnah. If the baby's head comes out first, 'Most part' means from head up to the chest in this case, Therefore, if the baby's head came out and he cried but died before coming out up to the chest, his funeral Şalāh will not be offered. If feet come out first 'Most part', means from feet up to the waist in this case. Whether the baby is born alive or dead or lost in miscarriage (pre-mature birth), he should be named as he will be resurrected on the Day of Judgement. (Dur-e-Mukhur, Rad-dui-Mulaar, Vol. 3, pp. 152, 133, Bahar-e-Shari at, vol. 1, pp. 841.

Sawab of Carrying the Bier on Shoulders

It is stated in Ḥadiš, "Whoever carries the bier on shoulder and walks 40 steps, 40 of his major sins will be forgiven." It is also mentioned in Ḥadiš that the one who carries the bier on shoulder from all four posts (of funeral bier) will be granted Ultimate Forgiveness by Allah Jaski. (Al Janhara un-Nayytrah, pp. 159. Duene Matthair, vol. 3, pp. 158, 159. Bahār-e-Shart'an, vol. 1, pp. 823)

Method of Shouldering the Bier

It is an act of worship to carry the bier on shoulder. It is Sunnah to carry the bier on shoulder from all four corners one after the other and to walk 10 steps at each side. The complete Sunnah is to first carry the bier on shoulder from the right head side of the bier, then the right foot side, then the left head side and then the left foot side and to walk 10 steps each time thus making a total of 40 steps. ('Alamgiri, vol. 1, pp. 162, Bahar-e-Shari'at, vol. 1, pp. 822) Some people announce in the funeral procession to walk two steps each. They should instead announce, "Carry the funeral on shoulder from all four sides and walk 10 steps each time."

Method of Carrying the Bier of a Child

(it single person carries the body of a young child in his arms and the test of the people take the child in their arms in turn, there is no harm in it. (Alampiri, vol. 1. pp. 162). It is impermissible and forbidden for a woman to walk along in the funeral procession (whether it is the funeral of young or old). (Bahar-e-Shart'in, vol. 1. pp. 823, Durra-Makhai), vol. 3. pp. 162).

Rulings of Returning after the Funeral Şalāĥ

Whoever accompanied the funeral should not return home without offering the funeral Şalāh; after the Şalāh, he may return seeking permission from the family-members of the deceased person. There is no need to ask permission for returning after the burial. (*Alamgiri, Vol. 1. 19. 165)

Can a Husband Carry the Bier of his Wife?

The husband is allowed to carry his wife's bier on his shoulder, lower her in the grave for the burial and see her face. He is prohibited only from bathing his wife and directly touching her hody (without cloth etc., in between). A woman can bathe her husband. (Bahar e-Shart'st, VI. 1912, SI3)

Funeral of an Apostate

There is the same ruling for funeral of an apostate and a disbeliever. Once a query was asked in the court of Alā Ḥaḍrat Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān Aba about a person who had converted from Islam to Christianity. In reply, he writes on page-170, Vol-9 of Fatāwā-e-lazawīyyah that if it was proven as per Shar'ī criteria that the dead had, Allah Japu forbid, changed his religion and adopted Christianity, performing his funeral Şalāh, shrouding or burying him like that for Muslims - were all absolutely Ḥarām.

Allah Jose says in the Holy Quran:

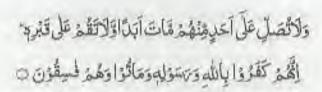

وَلاَتُصَلِّي عَلِّي المِّدِيقِتُهُمْ مَّاتَ آبَدًا وَلاَتَقُمْ عَلَى قَبْرِهِ

And never offer Şalāh for any of their dead, and never stand by his grave (Konzul Iman (Translation of Outant)

However, if those offering funeral Şalāh were unaware of his conversion to Christianity and were considering him a Muslim as per their parinformation, and they remained unaware till his funeral / burial, they will not be objected to since they were assuming him a Muslim, and pastich these acts were obligatory for them. But if they were aware of his Christianity still they performed his Şalāh and burial, they committed an absolute grave sin. As long as they do not repent of this sin, Şalalım their Imāmat is invalid; however they will not be treated as apostate as they will not become disbeliever on committing that sin.

Our sacred Shari'ah defines a Straight Path; it does not like immoderation in any affair. However, if it is proven that, despite being aware of his Christianity, they did so not only due to their ignorance of some worldly interest but also considering his Christianity worthy of respect and deserving of funeral and burial, all those having the intention will, no doubt, become apostate and disbeliever. It will be Wājib for the Muslims to consider them apostate in all matters and their company is strictly impermissible. Those who will accompany them or support them will be sinner. (Farāwā Radawiyyah (Jad kd))

Allāh Jasīz says in 84th verse of Sūra-tut-Taubah of the Holy Qur'an:

And never offer Salāh for any of their dead, and never stand by his grave. No doubt, they denied Allāh المناب and His Messenger, and died while they were in transgression (infidelity).

(Sürak Taubah, Ayah 84) (Kanzal Inan (Translation of Quran)).

Commenting on the foregoing Ayah, Ḥaḍrat 'Allamah Sayyid Na'imud-dīn Murādābādī ﴿ الله الله says, "This Ayah has made it clear that the funeral Ṣalāh of a disbeliever is not permissible at all and it is forbidden to stand besides the grave of a disbeliever for burial or visit." (Khaza-ula-ul-Trips, pp. 241)

Do not Visit a Sick who is a Heretic

It is reported by Hadrat Sayyidunā Jābir bin 'Abdullāh & Justinges that the Sultan of Madinaĥ Justinges Justin Justinges Said, "If they fall ill, don't go to see them, if they die, don't participate in their funeral." (Suman ibn-e-Mājali, Hadis 92, vol. 1, pp. 70)

Make the Following Announcement Before the Funeral of an Adult

The friends and relatives of the deceased are requested to pay attention. If the deceased had ever hurt you or violated your right in his lifetime, please forgive him, المُعَامِمُ عَلَيْكِياً this will benefit the deceased and you will also be rewarded. to offer funeral Şalāh for Aliāh (1) and supplication for this dead person, following this Imām. If you do not remember these particular words, there is no harm as long as this intention is in the heart. I am offering funeral Şalāh for this deceased person. When the Imām says (1) are raise both your hands up to the ears, say (1) then fold them below the navel and recite Sanā. When the Imām says (1) second time, without raising your hands, say (1) and recite Durūd-e-Ibrahim When the Imām says (1) for the third time, without raising your hands, say (1) and recite the funeral supplication of deceased adult (or if it is the funeral of a male or female child then amounce to recite the supplication for the deceased child). When the Imām says (1) the forth and (final) time, say (1) and unfold hands and perform Salām following Imām as usual on both sides.

Excellence of Reciting Durud Sharif on Friday

The Prophet of Rahmah, the Intercessor of Ummah And Industrial Land Sharif 200 times upon me on Friday, his 200 years' sins will be forgiven." (Kunc-ul-'Ummai, pp. 256, vol. 1. thair 2259)

Dear Islamic brothers! How fortunate we are as Allāh المنافعة has blessed us with the favour of Junu'a-tul-Mubārak for the sake of His beloved Rasūl المنافعة المنافعة . Regretfully, like other ordinary days, we spend even Friday heedlessly whereas it is a day of Eid, it is superior to all other days, the fire of Hell is not blazed up on Friday and the gates of Hell are not opened on Friday night. On the day of resurrection, Friday will be brought in the form of a bride; the fortunate Muslim dying on Friday attains the rank of martyrdom and remains safe from the torment of the grave.

Hilday

The renowned Mufassir, Ḥakim-ul-Ummat, Mufti Aḥmad Yār Khān - Ah Ah Ah says, "The Sawāb of the Ḥajj performed on Friday a equivalent to that of 70 Ḥajj as the Sawāb of a single good deed performed on Friday is enhanced 70 times." (As Friday is an immensely sacred day, therefore,) The punishment of a sin committed on Friday is also increased 70 times. (Derived from Minth, vol. 2, pp. 123, 325, 336).

How can words express the excellence of Friday! By the name of Junu'ah, Allāh ﷺ has revealed a complete Sûrah that is present in the 28th part of the Holy Qurān. Allāh ﷺ says in the 9th Āyah of Sûratul-Junu'ah:

O those who believe! When the call for Şalāh is given on Jumu'ah (Friday), rush towards the remembrance of Allāh and leave trading: this is better for you if you know.

(Knowld Iman [Translation of Quant))

Meaning of the Word Jumu'aĥ

The renowned Mufassir, Hakim-ul-Ummat Hadrat Mufti Ahmad Yar Khan 2004-200 writes, "As all the creatures assembled in their beings in this day and the completion of the creation took place on the very ame day, clay for Hadrat Sayyiduna Adam (2006) was also collected on this day; similarly, people congregate and perform the Friday Şalâh on this day; therefore, it is called Junu'ah on account of the aforementioned reasons. Before the advent of Islam, the Arabs used to call it 'Arūbah." (Minat-ni Manathic pp. 317, vol. 2)

How Many Times Exalted Rasul Offered Jumu'ah Şalāĥ?

The Rasūl of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind and read selected of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind and read of the offered almost 500 Jumu'ah Şalāh in his apparent life as offering of Jumu'ah Şalāh commenced subsequent to the migration after which the total period of the apparent life of the Holy Prophet and selected is ten years and there are 500 Fridays in ten years' period. Cure is Bestowed

Hadrat Sayyiduna Humaid bin 'Abdour-Rahman (sat. latere narrates violis father; "The one who trims his nails on Friday, Allah Lesse will remove his disease and bless him with cure." (Magained the Abi Sho) bish, pp. 65, vol. 21

Protection from Afflictions up to Ten Days

Sadr-ush-Shari'ah Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Muḥammad Amjad 'Alī A'zamī et Julah करें states, "A blessed Ḥadīš says that the one who trims his nails on Friday, Alīāh Jasa will protect him from afflictions up to the next Friday including three more days, i.e. ten days in total.

In accordance with one more narration, "The one trimming his nails on Friday, mercy will approach (him) and (his) sins will be removed (Bahār-e-Shart at. pp. 226, part. 16, Dur-ce-Mukhtār-o-Rad-dal-Muhtār, pp. 668, 669, vol. 9).

It is preferable to have hair and nails trimmed after Jumu'ah Salah. (Dur. c-Mukhiai ma' Rad-dul-Muhiar. V9. P581, Multan)

A Cause of Reduction in Sustemance

Sadr-ush-Shari'ah Ḥaḍrat Maulānā Muḥamınad Amjad 'Alī A'zamī and als says, "Although it is preferable to trim nails on Friday, yet if the nails are very long; one should not wait till Friday as growing long nails is a cause of reduction in sustenance," (Boliane Shari of, pp. 225, pan. 16)

Angels Write the Names of the Fortunate Ones

The beloved and blessed Prophet And And Assid, "On the day of Friday, the angels deputed at gateway of the Masjid write the names of comers. The early comer is like the one who gives Sadaqah of a camel in the path of Allah Assis. The next comer is like the one who gives a cow and then the next one is like the donor of a sheep; then the next one is like the donor of a ben and then the next one is like that of an egg. When the Imam sits (to deliver the sermon), the angels close the books of deeds and come to listen to the sermon." Isatah Bakhan, pp. 319.

The renowned Mufassir, Hakim-ul-Ummai Hadrat Mufti Alimad Yar Khan Na'imi Alimad Yar Khan Na'imi Alimad Yar Khan Na'imi Alimad Yar Some Scholars have said that the angels stay (at the doors of the Masjid) from dawn whereas some other opine they stay from sunrise; the stronger opinion, however, is that they come and stay when the sun begins to decline (from zenith) because it is the instant when timing of Jumu'ah (Ṣalāh) begins." The foregoing narration also clearly indicates that those angels know the names of every comer. It is noteworthy that if 100 people enter the Masjid initially, they all would be regarded as the first-comer. (Mirai-ul Manajih, pp. 335, vol. 2)

The Enthusiasm for Offering Jumu'ah Şalāh in the First Century

Hulja-tul-Islam Hadrat Sayyidunā Imām Muḥammad Ghazali at alias says. "During the first century, people used to proceed towards the Main Masjid at the time of Saḥri and after Şulā-tul-Fajr holding lamps in their hands for offering Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah. There used to be so huge crowd in the streets that it would seem as if it was the day of Eid, but gradually, this spirit died out. Thus, it is said that the very first Bid'at (innovation) that evolved in Islam is the abandonment of early proceeding towards the Main Masjid. Regretfully, the Muslims do not feel ashamed that Jews proceed towards their places of worship in the early morning on Saturday and Sunday; further, seekers of worldly luxuries also head towards the marketplace in the early morning for trading and earning wealth; so, why don't the seekers of the Hereafter compete with such people!" (Ima-ni 'Cham, pp. 245, vol. 1)

Hajf of the Poor

Hadrat Sayyiduna 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas الله الله الله من narrates that the Prophet of mankind, the Peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind من المعان عنواله said:

Salā-tul-Jumu'ah is the Hajj of Masakīn (destitute) /Tarīkh-e-Dimshq vol. 38, pp. 431) and in another narration, it is stated that Salā-tul-Jumu'ah is the Hajj of Fuqarah (poor), (Kanz-ul-'Ummati, pp. 250, vol. 7, Hadri 21627)

Proceeding for Jumu'aĥ Şalāĥ early is Equivalent to Ḥajj

The beloved and blessed Prophet Acoustical Jo said, "No doubt, there is one Ḥajj and one 'Umrah for you on every Friday. Therefore, early proceeding for Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah is (equivalent to) Ḥajj and waiting for 'Aṣr Ṣalāh having offered Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah is (equivalent to) 'Umrah."

(Summ Kabrā, pp. 342, vol. 3, Hadiā 5950)

The Sawab of Hajj and 'Umrah

Hufja-tul-Islam Hadrat Sayyidunā Imām Muḥammad Ghazalī (12-14-2-says, "(Having offered Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah) one should remain in the Masjid till Ṣalā-tul-Maghrib is even more preferable. It is said that the one who offers Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah in the Main Masjid, stays there afterwards and offers Ṣalā-tul-Aṣr in the same Main Masjid, there is the Ṣawāb of Ḥajj for him, and the one who stays till Ṣalā-tul-Maghrib and offers Maghrib Ṣalāh in the same Masjid, there is the Ṣawāb of Ḥajj and 'Umrah for him.' (19)0-11-1-Utām, pp. 249. vol. [1] A Masjid where Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah is offered is called a Jāma' (Main) Masjid.

The Superior Day

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind مُوَالِمُهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ عَلَيْهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّالِ وَاللَّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّالِمُ اللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَلَّا لَا لَا اللّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللَّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ وَاللّهُ

- 1. Allāh على created Sayyidunā Adam معلى on this day.
- Sayyidună Adam -92344 descended upon the earth on this day.
- 3. Sayyiduna Adam Alama passed away on the same day.

- On Friday, there is one such moment in which if someone prays for anything, he will be granted whatever he asked for, provided he does not ask for anything Haram.
- 5. The Judgement Day will take place on Friday.

There is no such distinguished angel, the sky, the earth, wind, mountain and river that does not fear Friday," (Sunan ibn Majah, pp. 8, vol. 2, Hodo) 1084)

According to another narration, the Holy Prophet And (and (and doct)) said, "There is no animal that does not scream from dawn to sunrise every Friday out of the fear of the Day of Judgement, except man and Jin." (Mann Imam Maick, pp. 115, vol. 1, Hodi) 246)

Supplications are Fulfilled

The Holy Prophet And the Said, "On Friday, there is one such a moment which if a Muslim gets and asks Allah And for anything in that moment, Allah will definitely grant him. That moment is very short," (Salah Masilin, pp. 424, Beath 852)

Seek between 'Aşr and Maghrib

The beloved Rasūl of Aliah Assaylasis Junus Jasaylasis Said, "On Friday, look for the moment that is desired from "Aşr to the sunset." (Janu' Tirolit. pp. 30, vol. 2, Hadīs 489)

Saying of the Author of Bahar-e-Shari'at

Hadrat Sadr-ush-Shari'ah Maulana Muhammad Amjad 'Ali A'zami المعالمة says, "There are two very strong statements concerning the instant in which supplication is fulfilled (on Friday):

- From the moment when the Imam sits for the sermon to the end of the Salah.
- 2. The last instant of Priday. (Balan-v-Shurl'at, pp. 754, vol. 1)

Which is the Moment of Acceptance?

The renowned Mufassir Hakim-ul-Ummat Mufti Ahmad Yar Khan Na'imt & 36.015. says, "At night there comes a moment during which Du'a (supplication) is answered but Friday is the only day which has such a moment during the day time. However, it is not known for sure as to which moment it actually is. The strong likelihood is that it is either between two sermons or a short while before Maghrib." Commenting on another Hadis, the reverent Mufti says that there are forty different opinions of scholars regarding this moment, out of which two are the most likely; as per one opinion, it is between two sermons while, according to the other, it is at the time of sunset. (Minital Manajih, pp. 319, 320, vol. 2)

A Parable

Hadrat Sayyidatuna Faţimah Zahra ta wood to sit in her Ḥujrah (small room) a short while prior to sunset and would ask Fiddah ta wood, her maid, to stand outside; as the sun begins to set, Fiddah ta wood would inform her about it and Ḥadrat Sayyidah to would raise her blessed hands for supplication. (Mirat-it Manajth, pp. 320, vol. 2) It is better to ask a concise supplication at that moment; for instance the following Qurănic supplication:

O our Lord! Give us goodness in the world and give us goodness in the Hereafter and secure us from the torment of Hell. (Part 2, Süra-tul-Baquruh, Verse 201) (Mirit-ul Maniijih, pp. 325, vol. 2) One can recite Durûd Sharif as well with the intention of supplication as Durûd Sharif is itself a magnificent supplication. It is preferable to supplicate between both sermons by heart without raising hands and without uttering anything verbally.

14 Million & 400 Thousands

Released from Hell Every Friday

The Holy Prophet And Appendix I said, "There are 24 hours in day and night of Friday, there is not a single such hour in which Allah Jests does not release six hundred thousand (such sinners) from Hell for whom Hell had become due." ("Ali Manifit, Manual Abi Va la. pp. 291. 235, wil. 3. Bodii 3421-3471)

Security from Grave Torment

The Holy Prophet And settlement is said, "The one who dies during the day or night of Priday, he will be saved from the torment of the grave and will be resurrected on the day of judgement with the seal of martyrs." (Hilpatal Andro, pp. 181, vol. 3, Hottl 3629)

Sins between Two Fridays Forgiven

Hadrat Sayyidunā Salmān Fārsī (22,000,000) narrates that the Holy Prophet (20,000,000) said, "The one who takes bath on Friday, attains the purity (sanctification) that was possible for him, applies oil and perfume available at home, heads (towards the Masjid) to offer Şalāh, does not cause separation between two people, i.e. does not sit between two people by intrusion, offers the Şalāh ordained for him and stays silent during the Imām's sermon, his sins committed between this Friday and the previous one will be forgiven." (Sahih Bukhārī, pp. 306, vol. 1, Hadīī 883)

Sawab of 200 Years' Worship

Hagrat Sayyidunā Şiddīq-e-Akbar and Hadrat Sayyidunā 'Imrān bin Haṣīn માટ્ટ કે હતા narrate that the Holy Prophet તેના તેના કે કહ્યાં કે said, "The one taking bath on Friday, his sins and misdeeds are removed; when he proceeds (to offer Ṣalāh) 20 good deeds are written for his every step." (Ma'Jam Kalin, pp. 139, vol. 18, Hadis 292) According to another narration, the Sawāb of 20 years' good deeds is written for his every step.

When he finishes the Şalāh, he is given the Sawab of 200 years' worship. (Al-Mu'jom-ul-Away-tip Tabrani, pp. 314, vol. 2, Hadit 3397)

Deeds Presented to Deceased Parents Every Friday

The Holy Prophet And the Analysis of Jacobs and Jacobs and Jacobs and Jacobs and Thursday whereas they are presented to the Prophets Allah and parents every Friday. Pleased by (your) good deeds, the beauty and brilliance of their faces enhance. Therefore, fear Allah Jacobs and do not grieve your deceased ones by committing sins." (Nanoadir-ul-Usid, pp. 266, vol. 2)

Five Special Good Deeds for Friday

Hadrat Sayyidunā Abū Sa'īd من العلامة narrates that the Holy Prophet على المعالى المع

- 1. Visiting a sick person.
- Attending a funeral Şalāĥ.
- 3. Fasting,
- 4. Offering the Jumu'ah Şalāh.
- Freeing a slave, (Saluh ibn Hibban, vol. 4, pp. 191, Hadri 2760)

Heaven Becomes Due

Hadrat Sayyiduna Abu Umamah an Jacob san narrates that the Holy Prophet is said, "The one who offers Jumu'ah Şalah, fasts (on the same day), visits a sick person, participates in a funeral and attends a Nikāh (marriage) ceremony, Heaven will become due for him."

(Ma'Joan Kobir, pp. 97, vol. 6, Hadik 7484)

Avoid Fasting on Friday Alone

It is Makrub-e-Tanzihi to fast specifically on Friday or Saturday alone, However, if Friday or Saturday falls on any sacred date such as 15th Sha'ban or 27th Rajab etc. there is no harm in fasting on these days. The Holy Prophet Andrew Lands and Said, 'Friday is Eid for you. Do not fast on this day unless you add another fast on its preceding or succeeding day." (Amarghib Watsarkith, pp. 81, vol. 2, Hodis 11)

Sawab of 10,000 Years' Fasts

A'la Ḥaḍrat Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān ﷺ says, "It is narrated that the fast of Friday together with that of Thursday or Saturday is equivalent to 10,000 years' fasts." (Fatawa Radawlyydh (Jad id), pp. 653, vol. 10)

Beside the Graves of Parent

The Holy Prophet Assault And Service Said, "The one who visits the graves of either of or both of his deceased parents on Friday and recites Surah Yasin over there, will be forgiven." (Al-Kamil ft Durga-in-Rijal, vol. 6 pp. 260)

Forgiveness 3000 Times

The beloved and blessed Prophet Assistantial Said, "The one who visits the graves of either of or both of his parents on every Friday and recites Sūrah Yāsīn over there, Allāh Assīs will bless him with forgiveness equivalent to the total number of Sūrah Yāsīn's letters," (hipaf-us-Sādai-il-Managin, pp. 272, vol. 14)

Dear Islamic brothers! The one who visits the grave of either of or both of his deceased parents on Friday and recites Surah Yasin over there, he will be successful. المُعَامَّةُ there are 5 Rukū' (sections), 83 verses, 729 words, and 3000 letters in Sūrah Yāsīn, if these figures are correct before Allāh المُعَامِّةُ, the reciter will get the Sawāh of 3000 forgiveness.

Souls Congregate

The one who recites Surah Yasin during the day of Friday or at Fridaynight (the night between Thursday and Friday) will be forgiven. (Amarghib Wattoriab, pp. 298, vol. 1, Hadri 4) Since souls congregate on Friday, one should visit graves on this day; further, Hell is not blazed up on this day, (Dur-re-Mukhtar, pp. 49, vol. 3)

A'lā-Ḥaḍrat Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān ﷺ says, "The best time of visiting graves is the post-morning-Ṣalāĥ time on Friday." (Fatowa Radawiyyah (Ind ād), pp. 523, vol. 9)

Excellence of Reciting Sura-tul-Kahf ()

Hadrat Sayyiduna 'Abdullah ibn 'Umar had a see narrates that the Holy Prophet Andrew 2000 In Said. The one reciting Sürah Kahf on Friday. Nür (Refulgence) will elevate from his feet up to the sky that will be brightened for him on the Day of Judgement and his sins committed between two Fridays will be forgiven." (Auorghab Wanarhib, pp. 298, vol. I-thadis 2)

Another narration says: "The one reciting Sūrah Kahf on Friday-night (the night between Thursday and Friday), Nūr will be brightened for him from where he is present up to the blessed Ka'bah," (Sumon Daring), pp. 546, vol. 2. (Ludis 3402)

Excellence of Sura-e-Hamim Addukhan (المعامة المنافقة)

Hadrat Sayyidina Abū Umāmah & Jain jar narrates that Holy Prophet Jandrade Jain Ja said: "The one reciting Sūrah-e-Hāmim Addukhān on Friday or Friday-night, Allāh Jasz will make a house for him in Heaven."

[Mu jam Kaliti, pp. 264, vol. 8, Uodis 8026]

One more narration says that he will be forgiven. (Jämi' Tirnici, pp. 407, vol. 4. Hodis 2898)

Forgiveness Asked by 70,000 Angels

The Holy Prophet Assaultate January and a said: "The one reciting Sûrah Hamûn Addokhan on Friday-night, 70,000 Angels will do Istighfar (ask for forgiveness) for him." (January Tirmies, pp. 406, vol. 4, Hadis 2897)

All Sins Forgiven

After the Jumu'ah Şalāh

Allāh خديث says in the 10th verse of Sūra-tul-Jumu'ah (Part 28):

قَاِدًا قُصْيَتِ الصَّلُوةُ فَانْتَشِرُوا فِي الْأَمُّضِ وَالْتَغُوا مِنْ فَضَلِ اللهِ وَاذْكُرُوا الله كَثِيرُ الْمَاكَثِيرُ الْعَالَكُمُ تُقَلِحُونَ ٥

Then, when (Jumu'ah) Şalāh is finished, disperse in the land and seek the bounty of Allāh Jana, and remember Allāh Jana much hoping that you would succeed.

(Kanzul Iman [Translation of Quran])

Commenting on the foregoing Ayah, Ḥaḍrat 'Allāmah Maulānā Sayyid Muḥammad Na'im-ud-Dīn Murādābādī at the writes in Khazā-ain-ul-'Irfān, 'Having offered Friday Ṣalāh, it is permissible for you to occupy yourselves in earning livelihood, or gain Śawāb by acquiring (religious) knowledge, visiting the sick, attending funerals, visiting scholars or performing other such pious deeds.'

Attending a Gathering of Islamic Knowledge

Attending a gathering of religious knowledge after Friday Şalāh is preferable. Therefore, Ḥujja-tul-Islam Ḥaḍrat Sayyidunā Imām Muhammad Ghazāli المنابعة habbo narrates that Ḥaḍrat Sayyidunā Anas bin Mālik المنابعة says, "This verse does not refer to worldly trade and business (only), rather, it refers to seeking knowledge, visiting brothers, visiting the sick, attending funerals and carrying out other such activities." (Kīmiya e Sa'adm, pp. 191, vol. 1)

Dear Islamic brothers! There are eleven conditions for rendering Jumu'ah Şalāh Wājib; if even either of them is not found, it will no longer remain Fard. However, if someone still offers it, his Şalāh will be valid; and it is preferable for (such) a sane, adult male (for whom Jumu'ah is not Fard on account of the absence of any condition) to offer Jumu'ah Şalāh. If a minor offers Jumu'ah Şalāh, it will be regarded as Nafl because Şalāh is not Fard for him. (Dur-n-Mukinir-o-Rod-dul-Miduār, pp. 30, vol. 3)

11 Pre-Conditions for the Obligation of Jumu'aĥ Şalāĥ

- Being settled in city
- Health (Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah is not Fard for a patient. Here, patient refers to the person who cannot get to the Masjid where Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah is held or even though he can get to the Masjid, it will result in the prolongation of his disease or delay in cure. The ruling of patient applies to Shaykh-e-Fām as well).
- Being a free person (Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah is not Fard for a slave; his master can prevent him.)
- 4. Being a man
- 5. Being an adult

- Being Sane (The foregoing two conditions, i.e. adulthood and sanity are necessary not only for the obligation of Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah but also for every other worship.)
- 7. Having the faculty of sight
- 8. Having the capability to walk
- 9. Not being imprisoned
- 10. Not having the fear of the king, thief etc. or that of any oppressor.
- Not having the true fear of harm due to rainfall, snowfall, tornado or cold weather. (Bahir-y-Shart'id, pp. 770, 772, vol. 1)

Those for whom Şalāh is Fard but Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah is not Fard on account of any Shar'i exemption, are not exempted from Zuhr Salāh on Friday; such people have to offer Zuhr Şalāh in lieu of Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah.

The Sunan and Mustahab-bat of Friday

The Mustaḥab-bāt of Jumu'ah include proceeding to offer Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah in initial time, using Miswāk, wearing nice white clothes, applying oil and fragrance sitting in the first Ṣaf (row) while having a bath is Sunnah, (Faiawa-e-Ālaungiei, pp. 149, vol. 1, Ghunyah, pp. 559)

The Time of Ghusl on Friday?

 with the same Wudū (made during the bath). However, the most authentic verdict is that the time for Friday's bath starts from the break of dawn." (Minth, pp. 334, vol. 2)

The foregoing account also clarifies that Friday's bath is not a Sunnah for women, travellers etc., for whom Friday Salah is not Wajib.

Friday's Bath is Sunnat-e-Ghair Muakkadah

'Allamah ibn 'Abidin Shami ekalakkan says, "Having a bath for Jumu'ah Şalāh is one of the Sunan-e-Zawāid; (and therefore) the abandoner of Friday's bath will not be objected to." (tead-dat-Mahar, pp. 138, vol. 1)

The Excellence of Sitting Closer During the Sermon

Hedrat Sayyidunā Samurah bin Jundab at 200 to narrates that the Holy Prophet And Sayidah Jo said, "Be present at the time of the sermon and sit close to the Imam because the farther a person remains from the Imam, the later he will enter Heaven, though he (a Muslim) will definitely enter the Heaven." (Saman Ahā Dāwād, pp. 410, vol. 1, Hodii 1108)

No Šawáb of Jumu'aĥ

The one who talks while the Imam is delivering the sermon is like a donkey carrying a burden. Similarly, the one asking his companion to get silent during the sermon will not gain the Sawab of Jumu'ah (Ṣalāĥ). (Marmad Imam Almed, pp. 494, vol. 1. Hadis 2033).

Listening to the Sermon Silently is Fard

The acts that are Ḥarām during Ṣalāh such as eating, drinking, greeting, saying Salām, replying to Salām and even inspiring someone to righteousness are Ḥarām during the sermon as well. However, the Khaṭib (the deliverer of sermon) can inspire someone to righteousness.

Il is Fard for all the attendees to listen and remain silent while the sermon is being delivered. Staying silent is Wājib even for those present so far from the Imām that they cannot listen to the sermon. If someone is seen committing any misdeed, he may be prevented either by the gesture of hand or nod of head; preventing him by uttering any word or sound is not permissible. (Bahār-e-Shari'at. pp. 774; vol. 1. Dur-re-Mashiār, pp. 39, vol. 3)

Listener of Sermon is not allowed to Recite Even Durud Sharif

If the Khatib mentioned the blessed name of the Exalted Prophet January January during the sermon, the listeners should recite Durud in their hearts; reciting Durud verbally at that time is not allowed. Likewise, uttering and a law is not allowed on listening to the blessed names of companions of the Exalted Prophet during the sermon. (Bahar-e-Shert'en, pp. 775, vol. 1, Durne-Makhar pp. 40, vol. 3)

Lästening to the Nikāḥ Sermon is Wājib

In addition to the sermon delivered for Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah, it is also Wājib to listen to other sermons such as the ones delivered for Eid Şalāh, Nikāh (Islamic Marriage) etc. (Dar-re-Makhar, pp. 40, vol. 3)

Business Becomes Impermissible as Soon as the First Ażān is Uttered

As soon as the first Ażān is uttered, it is Wājib to start making effort to get to the Masjid for öffering Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah; it is also Wājib to put off trading and other activities contrary to the preparations for Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah. Similarly, sale and purchase while proceeding to Masjid is also impermissible and trading in the Masjid is a severe sin. If the one having meal hears the voice of Ażān for Şalá-tul-Jumu'ah and fears that he may miss Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah in case of having meal, he has to stop eating and proceed to the Masjid for offering Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah. One should get to the Masjid in a dignified manner for Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah. (Bohar-e-Shuri at. pp. 775, vol. 1, Dur-re-Mukhtar pp. 42, vol. 3, 'Alamgirt, pp. 145, vol. 1)

These days, people have drifted away from religious knowledge; like other worships, people commit sins as a result of making mistakes in listening to sermon. Therefore, it is my humble request that the Khaţīb (deliverer of sermon) make following announcement every Friday prior to the Ażān of Khuṭbah before sitting on the pulpit and earn hoards of Sawāb:

Seven Madanï Pearls of Sermon

- A Ḥadīš says, "The one who passes over people's necks on Friday, makes a bridge towards Hell." (Jami' Timiti, pp. 48, vol. 2, Hadīš 513)
 One of the explanations of this Ḥadīš is that people will enter the Hell trampling up on him. (Bahār-e-Shor) ot, pp. 761, 762, vol. 1)
- To sit facing the Khatib is a Sunnah of the blessed Companions Application
- 3. Some of our past saints always said, "One should listen to the sermon in the sitting-posture (as one sits in Qa'dah), folding hands (under navel) during the first sermon and placing them on thighs during the second; Jassa diesal he will earn the Sawah of offering two rak'at Şalāh. (Mirāt-al Memājih, pp. 338, val. 2)
- 4. A lā-Ḥaḍrat Imām Aḥmad Razā Khān المنافظة says, "When one hears the blessed name of the Holy Prophet المنافظة blessed during the sermon, he should recite Durūd in his heart as it is Fard to remain silent during sermon." (Fatāwā Raskneigyah (Jod ūl), pp. 365, vol. 8)

- It is stated in 'Durr-e-Mukhtar, "During the sermon, eating, drinking, talking (even saying شَاهُ اللهُ), replying to someone's greeting, and inspiring others towards righteousness, all are Ḥaram." (Dur-re-Mukhtar, pp. 39, vol. 3)
- 6. A'lā Ḥaḍrat બ માનાવાર says, "Walking during the sermon is Ḥarām. The reverent scholars માના મુખ્ય મુખ્ય even say that if someone enters the Masjid during the sermon, he must stop wherever he is without proceeding further as walking would be an act and no act is permissible during the sermon." (Farana Radamovah (Jad Id), pp. 333, 104.8)
- A'là Ḥaḍrat at die at lor says, "During the sermon, even looking somewhere turning the head is Ḥarām." (1616, pp. 334)

An Important Ruling of Leading Şalā-tul-Jumu'aĥ

With regard to the leading of Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah there is an important matter of which people are quite inattentive. Şalā-tul-Jumu'ah is considered like other Şalāh and everyone is allowed to lead Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah; it is impermissible as leading Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah is one of the responsibilities of the Islamic ruler or his deputy. In the states where Islamic Sovereignty does not exist, the greatest Sunnī Scholar having correct beliefs can lead Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah as he is the substitute of the Islamic ruler in issuing Shar'ī rulings; Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah cannot be held without his permission. If there is no such scholar, the one appointed by common people can lead the Ṣalāh. In spite of the presence of a scholar, people cannot themselves appoint anyone else, nor can just a few people appoint someone as the Imām on their own behalf. Holding Ṣalā-tul-Jumu'ah in this way is not proven (in Islamic history). IBahār-e-Shari'at, pp. 764; vol. 1)

Bedridden Mother's Recovery

An Islamic brother living in Karachi states 'My mother was too ill even to rise from her bed. Even the doctors had disappointed us declaring that she would not recover. I had heard that the prayers of those who travel with Madani Qafilah of Da'wat-e-Islami are answered and illnesses are cured. Therefore, I also decided to travel with Madani Qafilah. I reached the huminous beadquarters [Markaz] of the Madani Training Centre where I expressed my intention to travel with a Madani Qafilah for three days. The Islamic brothers instantly made arrangements.

In the company of the devotees of the Prophet, our Madant Qafilah reached a village near Şaḥrā-e-Madinah of Bāb-ul-Madinah. Karachi, and Sindh During the Qafilah, I informed the Islamic brothers of my ailing mother and her serious condition, upon which they comforted me and said prayers for my mother. Making individual effort, the Amir of the Qafilah persuaded me to travel with another Madani Qafilah for 30 days; I also made the intention. Throughout those three days, I prayed for my mother, weeping and beseeching for her recovery.

On the third day, I had a dream in which I saw a pious man whose face was shining profusely. He said, 'do not worry about your mother, days are as she will get better,' After the Madani Qafilah I returned home. As I knocked, the door opened, my eyes lit up as it was my bed-ridden mother who opened the door. I kissed her feet with joy and told her of the dream. I then travelled with another Madani Qafilah for 30 days after seeking her permission with the devotees of the Prophet.

Excellence of Durad Sharif

The Prophet of Rahmah, the intercessor of Ummah, the owner of Januah Andrew Januah is said, 'The one who recites Durud Sharif upon me hundred times on the day and night of Friday. Allah Jank will fulfill his hundred needs; seventy of the Hereafter and thirty of the world. (Tärikh-e-Dimishq la hin Asakar, vol. 54, pp. 301)

Entry into Heaven becomes Wājib

The narration on the part of Sayyidunā Mu'āz bin Jabal (2016) says, "The one spending the following five nights worshipping Alfāh (1945), will surely enter the Heaven: the nights of the 8°, 9°, and 10° Zil-Hajjah (3 nights), the night of Eid-ul-Fitr, and the 15° night of Sha'bān (Shab-e-Barā-at).' (Amushib Wattarhib, vol. 2, pp. 98, Hashī-2)

A Sunnah Prior to Proceeding for Eid Şalāh

Sayyidumā Buraidah & Justico states, "On the day of Eid-ul-Fitt, the Holy Prophet Andrew Jo would go to offer Eid Salāh after eating something while, on Eid-ul-Adhā, he Andrew Jo would not eat anything unless he Andrew Jo had offered Eid-Salāh," (Timutat, Hadii 542, vol. 2, pp. 70) Similarly, in Bukhārī Sharīf, there is another Hadis narrated by Sayyidunā Anas & Justico Jo. "On the day of Eid-ul-Fitt, the beloved and blessed Prophet Andrew Joseph Jo would not go until he Andrew Justico ate a few dates in odd numbers." (Soliib Bukhārī, Butli 1953, vol. 1, pp. 328)

A Sunnaĥ of Heading to Offer

Eid Şalah and Returning after it

It is narrated by Sayyiduna Abū Hurairah was seen see that the Holy Prophet Language Jumple would go to offer Eid Şalāh from one path and would return from the other one. (Timie: Hodis 541, vol. 2, pp. 69)

Method of offering Eid Şalāĥ (Ḥanafi)

First make the following intention: "I intend to offer two Rak'at Ṣalāh of Eid-ul-Fiţī (or Eid-ul-Aḍḥā) with six additional Takbīrāt, for the sake of Allāh Jass- following this Imām."

Having made the intention, raise the hands up to the ears, utter and then fold the hands below the navel and recite the Sanā. Then raise your hands to your ears, utter and leave them at sides; then raise hands to ears again, utter and and leave them at sides; then raise hands to ears once again, utter and and fold them. In short, hands will be folded after first and fourth Takbir while they will be left at sides after second and third Takbir. In other words, hands will be folded when something is to be recited in Qiyam after Takbir, while they will be left at sides when nothing is to be recited. Then, the Imām is to recite Ta'aw-wux and Tasmiyah in low voice whereas Surah Fatihah and another Sūrah will be recited loudly. Thereafter, he will perform Ruku'. In the second Rak'at, the Imām is to first recite Sūrah Fatihah and another Sūrah aloud.

After the recitation, the Imam as well as all the followers will utter three Takbirāt (the Imam would utter loudly and the followers in low voice) raising their hands to the ears each time and leaving them at sides; then Rukū' will be performed with the fourth Takbir without raising hands and the rest of the Ṣalāh will be completed as per usual method. Standing silent between every two Takbirāt for the amount of time in which where can be uttered thrice is necessary.' (Bahār-e-Shurī'ur, vol. 1, pp. 781; Durr-e-Mukhūr, vol. 3, pp. 61 etc.)

For whom Eid Şalāĥ is Wājib?

The Şalah of both Eids (i.e. Eid-ul-Fiţr and Eid-ul-Aţlhā) is Wājib. However, it is to be noted that Eid Şalāh is not Wājib for everyone, instead, it is Wājib only for such people for whom Jumu'ah Şalāh is Wājib. Further, neither Azan nor Iqāmat is uttered for both Eid's Şalāh. (Bahār-e-Sharī'at, vol. 1, pp. 779; Durr-e-Mukhtār, vol. 3, pp. 51)

The Sermon of Eid is Sunnah

The pre-conditions for the offering of Jumu'ah Şalah apply for the Eid Şalah as well. The only difference lies in Sermon which is a precondition for Jumu'ah Şalah whereas it is a Sunnah for the Eid Şalah. Similarly, the Sermon of Jumu'ah Şalah is delivered before the Şalah while that of the Eid Şalah is delivered after the Şalah. (Hohar-x-Shari'at, vol. 1, pp. 779; 'Alamştr, vol. 1, pp. 150)

The Time of Eid Şalāĥ

The time of both Eld's Şalāh starts 20 minutes after sunrise and continues till Niṣf-un-Nahār-e-Shar'i, However, it is Mustahab to delay Eid-ul-Fitr Şalāh and offer Eid-ul-Aḍḥā Şalāh early, (Bahār-e-Shart at. VI., P781; Durr-v-Mukhaar, V3, P60)

What to do if Somebody Misses a Part of the Eid Jama'at?

If someone joins the Jama'at in the first Rak'at after the Imām has uttered the Takbīrāt, then he should utter the three Takbīrāt (other than the Takbīr-e-Taḥrīmah) instantly, even if the Imām may have commenced recitation. Utter three Takbīrāt only, even though the Imām said more than three Takbīrāt. If the Imām bent for Rukû' before you uttered Takbīrāt, then don't utter them in a standing posture, instead, perform Rukû' with the Imām and utter the Takbīrāt in the Rukû'. However, if the Imām is in Rukû' and you think that you can utter the Takbīrāt and join the Imām in Rukû', then utter them whilst you are standing, otherwise, utter $\mathbb{E}^{\delta'}(\mathbb{E})\mathbb{E}^{\delta'}(\mathbb{E})), perform Rukû' and then utter the Takbīrāt in Rukû'. If the Imām raises his head from Rukû' before you finish the Takbīrāt in Rukû' then do not utter the remaining Takbīrāt; they are no longer required.

If you joined the Jama'at after the Imam had performed the Ruku' then do not utter the Takbirat, utter them when you offer the remaining part of your Salah (after the Imam has performed Salam). Do not raise your hands when uttering the missed Takbirat in Ruku.'

If you join the Jamā'at in the second Rak'at, then don't utter the missed Takbīrāt of the first Rak'at now, instead, utter them when you perform the remaining part of your Şalāh. Likewise, if you succeed in uttering the Takbīrāt of the second Rak'at with the Imām, its all right, otherwise, the same ruling as mentioned above with regard to the first Rak'at would apply. (Bahāra: Shari'at wit. 1, pp. 782; Durr-e-Mukhār, vol. 3, pp. 64; 'Atamgāri. vol. 1, pp. 151)

What to do if Someone Misses the Whole Jama'at?

If someone missed the whole Jama'at of Eid-Ṣalāb, whether he couldn't join the Jamā'at at all or his Ṣalāh became invalid due to any reason after joining, then if possible, he should join Jamā'at elsewhere; otherwise he cannot offer it (without Jamā'at). However, it is preferable for him to offer four Rak'āt of Chāsht Ṣalāh, (Dure-e-Mukhim, V3, P67)

Rulings for the Khufbaĥ (Sermon) of Eid

After the Eid Şalāh, the Imām should deliver two Sermons. The acts that are Sunnah for the Jumu'ah Sermon are also Sunnah for the Eid Sermon; likewise, the acts that are Makrūh for the Jumu'ah Sermon are also Makrūh for the Eid Sermon. There are only two differences between both the Sermons. Firstly, it is a Sunnah for the Imām not to sit before the first Sermon of Eid Şalāh whereas Imām's sitting before first Sermon of Jumu'ah is a Sunnah. Secondly, in the Eid Sermon, it is a Sunnah for the Imām to recite £51 421 nine times before the first Sermon, seven times before the second Sermon and Jourteen times before coming down from the pulpit while uttering these Takbīrāt is not Sunnaĥ for Jumu'ah Sermon, ¡Bahār e-Shart'at, VI, P783; Darre-Makhter, VJ. P67; 'Alangiri, VI, P150)

Twenty Sunnaĥ and Desirable Acts of Eid

Following acts are Mustahab on the Eid Day:

- Getting hair cut (Get your hair cut according to Sunnah, not according to the English styles).
- 2. Cutting Nails.
- 3. Having a bath.
- 4. Using Miswāk (This is in addition to the one used during Wudu).
- Wearing nice clothes, either new or washed ones.
- 6. To apply perfume.
- 7. Wearing a ring (Islamic brothers are allowed to wear only one silver ring which weighs less than 4.5 Masha. There must be only one gem in the ring; they shouldn't wear the ring without a gem either; there is no limit for the weight of the gem. They are not allowed to wear more than one ring. Men cannot wear the ring made of any other metal except silver with the afore-mentioned conditions)
- 8. Offering Sala-tul-Fajr in the Masjid of one's locality.
- Before going to Eid-ul-Fiţr Şalāh, eating some dates in odd numbers such as 3, 5, 7 etc. If dates are not available, then eat something sweet. If nothing is eaten before the Ṣalāh, there will be no sin, but if nothing is eaten till Salā-tul-ʿIshā, he will be rebuked.
- Performing the Eid Şalāh at a place that is designated for performing the Eid Şalāh (Eid-Gāh).

- Going to the Eid-Gah on foot.
- Although there is no harm in using conveyance, walking on foot is better for those who can do so; there is no harm at all in returning by conveyance.
- Going to the Eid-Gah from one path and returning from the other path.
- Paying the Şadaqa-e-Fitr before the Eld Şalāh (this is better, but if you couldn't pay it before the Eld Şalāh, pay it after the Şalāh).
- Expressing happiness.
- 10. Donating Şadaqah in abundance.
- II. Heading towards the Eid Gåh (Şalāh area) calmly, in a dignified manner, with lowered gaze.
- Shaking hands and embracing one another after the Eid Şalāh as Muslims usually do; it is a good act because it expresses happiness. However, embracing a young attractive boy may lead to allegation.
- Utter the following Takbir in low voice while on your way to the Eid-Gah to offer Eid-ul-Fitr Şalāh and utter it loudly while heading for the Eid-Gah to offer Eid-ul-Adha Şalah.

Allāh المحالات is the greatest. Allāh المحالة is the greatest. There is none worthy to orthy of worship except Allāh المحالة and Allāh المحالة is the Greatest and all the praise is for Allāh.

(Bahar-e-Sharf'at, vol. 1, pp. 779; 'Alamgirt, vol. 1, pp. 149, 150, etc.)

A Mustaḥab Act for Eid-ul-Aḍḥā Ṣalāĥ

In most cases, there are the same rulings for Eid-ul-Adhā as for Eid-u Fitr. However, there are a few differences; for example, it is Mustaha not to eat anything before the Eid Şalāh on Eid-ul-Adhā regardless a whether or not one is performing the sacrifice (of cattle), but if on eats something, still there is no harm. (Managin, vol. 1, pp. 152)

Eight Madani Pearls for Takbīr-e-Tashrīq

- 1. The Takbir "aki aki "ki Taki" si Takbir once loudly is Wajib where takbir e-Tashriq. Uttering this Takbir once loudly is Wajib where uttering it thrice is preferable after all Fard Şalah that were offere with the primary Jama'at of the Masjid from the Fajr Şalah of 9 to the "Asr Şalah of 13" Zil- Hajja-tul-Haram. (Buhare-Shari at vol. 199, 779 to 780; Tanair ad-Almar, vol. 3, pp. 71)
- 2. It is Wājib to utter Takbīr-e-Tashriq immediately after performing the Salām. However, one may utter the Takbīr as long as he had done any such act that negates the Binā (resumption, rejoining of Ṣalāh. For instance, if someone exited the Masjid or invalidated his Wudū deliberately or engaged in talking, though forgetfully Takbīr would no longer remain Wājib for him in all these case However, if his Wudū became invalid unintentionally, he should utter the Takbīr. (Durr-e-Mukūrūr & Rod-dol-Muhtār, vol. 3, pp. 73).
- 3. Takbīr-e-Tashrīq is Wājib for the one residing in a city or the Muqtadī following a resident Imām in Ṣalāh even if the Muqtadī (the one following the Imām in Ṣalāh) is a traveller or a village however, if travellers and villagers do not follow a resident Imām in Ṣalāh, Takbīr is not Wājib for them. (Durr-e-Mukhar, VI, P74)

- If a resident offered Salah under the Iqtida of a traveller, Takhir will be Wajib for the resident, but not for the traveller Imam. (Durve-Mukhtur & Bud-dal-Mukhar, vol. 3, pp. 73).
- It is not Wājib to utter Takbir after Nafl, Sunnah and Witr Şalāh. (Bahārs-Shart'et, vol. 1, pp. 785; Rad-dal-Muhār, vol. 3, pp. 73)
- It is Wājib to utter Takbir after Salā-tul-Jumu'ah; one should utter it after the Şalāh of Eid-ul-Adḥā as well. (1814)
- Takbir is Wājib for the Masbūq (the one missing one or more Rak'āt), but he is to utter it having performed his own Salām (after offering his missed Rak'āt), (Rad-dal-Mahar, V3, P76)
- Takbir is not Wajib for the Munfarid (the one offering Şalalı individually), (Ghaniya-tul-Mustamii, pp. 526. Religimar brook brosse) However, he should also utter it as, according to Şahibain, Takbir is Wajib even for the Munfarid. (Bahar-e-Shart'or, VI. P786)

The Blessing of Maktaba-tul-Madinah's Booklets

An Islamic brother from Bahawalpur (Punjab) says: "I had been extremely fond of watching films due to the wicked company and environment at school; I used to travel to even other cities like Labore, Okārah and Karachi just to see films. I would even go to girls' colleges to tease the girls because of the evil effects of watching sex appealing films. I was also habitual of shaving my beard daily. Even worse, I started working for theatres and circuses endangering my life. My family was extremely worried and concerned.

One day, my father consulted the responsible Islamic brother of Dawat-e-Islami in our local area and decided to send me with the Madani Qafilah. On the last day, the Amir gave me a booklet entitled 'Black Scorpions' to read. When I read the booklet, I became very fearful, I immediately repented and decided to keep a beard. Having returned from the Madani Qafilah, I also took part in the weekly Sunnah inspiring ljtima' and purchased the audio-cassette speech entitled 'Dhal Jaey gi yeh Jawani' from Maktaba-tul-Madinah. When I returned home and heard the cassette, my entire world had changed.

العد فو المحدود المعدود الله I not only began to offer Şalāh punctually but also started the Madanī work of Dawat-e-Islami. المعدود علامة (up to the time of making this statement), I am doing the work of Dawat-e-Islami as a Madanī Qāfilah Žimmahdār in my city."

40 Madanī Wills

From Madinah-e-Munawwarah

> Afsos chand ghariyan Taybah ki reh gai hen Dil men judai ka ghan tufan macha raha kay

Alast A few moments of my stay in Madinah are left The grief of detachment from Madinah is causing a storm in my heart

My heart is gloomy. The grief of detachment from Madinah has made me desperate. It seems as if someone has snatched smile from my lips. Shortly, I would have to leave Madinah. Alas! My heart would break. The moments of departure from Madinah are emotive as if: An infant has been detached from mother's lap and he keeps on looking back with longing eyes that his mother will call him back, put him in her lap, embrace him to her chest and put him to sleep by singing a hillaby.

Now, with broken heart, I am going to mention my 40 wills; my wills are also directed towards all the brothers and sisters associated with Dawat-e-Islami. Further, my children and other family members should also pay attention to these wills. Would that I am blessed with martyrdom under the shade of the Green Dome and the Minarets in Madinah-e-Munawwarah whilst beholding the most Reverent Prophet Associated by Would that I am blessed with burial in Januat-tul-Baqi. Alas! Otherwise, wherever it has been destined...

Madinah I: If I am found in last breath, perform all rites according to Sunnah. Turn my face towards the Holy Qiblah and straighten my arms and legs: Read out Sūrah Yasin to me as well as Na'ats written by Imam-e-AhI-e-Sunnat Maulana Shah Ahmad Razā Khān Ahmad Razā khān Ahmad his each and because his work is in total conformity with Shari'ah and his each and every couplet is an exegesis of the Qur'an, Hadīs and the sayings of the saints AMMINAD.

Madinah 2: After the soul departs from body, perform all rites according to Sunnah e.g. hastening in shrouding and burial as making delay for gathering a large number of people is not Sunnah. The rulings described in Part-IV of Bahar-e-Shari'at should be followed.

Madinaĥ 3: The size of the grave should be according to Sunnaĥ. Make a Laḥad as it is Sunnaĥ.

Madinah 4: The inner walls of the grave must be earthen. Fire baked tocks should not be used. If it is unavoidable to make brick wall inside, thister its interior sides with mud.

Madinah 5: If possible, recite Surah Yasın Sharif, Surah Mulk and Unrud-e-Taj and blow on interior side of the plank.

Madinah 6: The shroud, according to Sunnah, should be purchased from my own money. In the case of my destitution, it may be purchased from Halal money of any Sunni having correct beliefs.

Madinah 7: Ghus! (Ritual Buth) may be given by the one having beard and Imamah and abiding by Sunnah. (I would consider it disrespect if sayyid gives Ghus! to my dirty body)

Madinah 8: During Ghusl, the Sitr-e-'Awrat (from navel to the complete inces) must be covered properly. If two shawls of brown or any other lark colour are spread from the navel up to the knees, the risk of the opearance of the shape of Sitr would probably come to an end. However, water must flow on every part of the body.

Madinah 9: If shroud had been wet with Zam Zam or water of Madinah or both, it would be a privilege for me. Would that some Sayyid Sahib dorn my head with green 'Imamah!

Madinah 11: In the same way, write مُعَدُّدُ اللهُ عُمُعَدُّ اللهُ مُعَدِّدُ اللهُ عَلَيْهِ اللهُ مُعَدِّدُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ اللهُ مُعَدِّدُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلِيهُ اللهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلِيهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهُ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلِيهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلِيهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلِيهِ عَلَيْهِ عَلِي عَلَيْهِ عَل

Madinah 15t If available, sprinkle the dust of Madinah on my face substantially. If possible, place thorns of Madinah over my eyes and a thorns are not available, then place the seeds of dates of Madinah.

Madinah 16: Abide by all the (relevant) Sunnah while carrying the funeral,

Madinah 17: In the funeral procession, all Islamic brothers are requested to recite the Na'at 'Ka'bay kay Badr-ud-Dujā Tum Pay Karoron Durūd' written by Imām Ahmad Razā المنافقة (Other Na'ats may also be recited but only the ones written by the scholars of Ahl-e-Sunnah)

Madīnaĥ 18: The funeral Ṣalāh should be led by a practicing Sunoi scholar having correct beliefs or by any Islamic brother who abides by the Sunan or by my sons if they are capable. However, it is my desire that Sādāt-e-Kirām be given preference.

Madinah 19: Would that Sādāt-e-Kirām lower me in grave with their blessed hands!

Madinah 20: Making a cavity in the wall of grave towards face, placin it 'Ahad Namah written in handwriting of some Islamic brother who abides by Sunnah. Also place holy print of the blessed shoes (Na'l e-Pāk), picture of the green dome, Shajra Sharif and other Holy relics. Madinah 21: Would that I get burial in Januat-tul-Baqi'! Otherwise, bury me in neighbourhood of some Beloved of Allah المحافقة. If it is not possible either, then bury me wherever the Islamic brothers desire, but do not bury me in a seized piece of land as it is Harām to do so.

Madinah 22: Utter Ażan by the grave.

Madinah 23: Would that some Sayyid Sahih perform Talqin!

Madinah 24: If possible, those who love me should sit around my grave after the burial for 12 days or for at least 12 hours and keep me

Madinah 26: If supplication of my forgiveness and donation of Sawab is made to me abundantly and persistently, it will be a great benevolence for me, Madinah 27: Everyone should stay steadfast on the path of Ahl-e-Sunnah according to the true Islamic teachings of Imam-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat Maulánā Shāh Ahmad Razā Khān 🚁 🕬.

Madīnah 28: Avoid the company of religious bigots as keeping their company is a great obstacle in having a good end.

Madinah 29: Stick to the devotion and Sunnah of the beloved and blessed Prophet المتعالمة المعالمة ال

Madinah 30: Never become negligent in offering of daily Şalāh, Ramadan Fasting, Zakāh, Ḥajj and other obligatory acts and Sunnah.

Madinah 31: Important will: Always remain loyal to Markazi Majlise-Shūrā of Dawat-e-Islami. Obey every such command of its every member as well as your every Nigran that is in conformity with Shari'ah. I am fed up with the one who goes against Shūrā or Dawat-e-Islami's any other responsible brother without a Shar'i permission. Madinah 32: Every (slamic brother should take part in local visit for calling towards righteousness at least once a week from beginning to end and should travel in Madani Qafilah for 3 days every month, 30 days every 12 months and at least 12 months continuously within his lifetime. For the attainment of steadfast reform of character, Islamic brothers and sisters should fill in the Madani In'amat card daily and submit it to their Zimmahdar (overseer) every month.

Madinah 33: Keep on spreading the message of love and Sunnah of the Holy Prophet المناس المعالمة in the world.

Madīnah 34: Keep on struggling against false beliefs, bad deeds, worldly desires, Harām earnings and prohibited fashion etc. Further, keep on calling towards righteousness with sincerity and Madanī sweetness.

Madīnah 35: Avoid anger and peevishness like plague otherwise, religious services will become difficult for you.

Madinah 36: It is a Madani request to my heirs to abstain from earning worldly wealth through my books and cassettes of speeches.

Madīnah 37: Follow the rulings of Shari'ah regarding my inheritance.

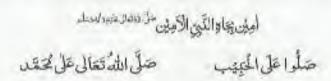

Madinah 38: I have forgiven, in advance, anyone who swears at me, causes me harm, injures me or hurts my feelings.

Madinah 39: No one should avenge those who distress me,

Madīnah 40: If someone martyrs me, I have personally forgiven my rights and I also request my heirs to forgive him. If, by virtue of the intercession of the Prophet المحالية المحالية

Method of Burial and Shroud

Masnun' Shroud for Man

(1)Lifāfaĥ (Cloak), (2) Izar (Sarong) (3) Kameez-

Masnun Shroud for Woman

In addition to above three, woman's shroud contains two more parts; (4) Breast cover, (5) Head cover. (A Eunuch should also be given a shroud like that of a woman)

Details Regarding Shroud

- The shawl for Lifafah (Cloak) should be longer than height of the corpse such that it can be tied at both ends.
- The Izar (Sarong) should be from the top of the head up to the feet i.e. smaller than Lifafah by the length which was required for tying the Lifafah at both ends.
- The Kameez should be from the neck up to below the knees and should have same length on front and back sides. It should be sleeveless and without side-cuts. Man's Kameez should be torn over the shoulders and woman's Kameez should be torn towards the chest.
- Breast cover should be from the breast up to the navel and even better if it is up to thighs.

(Note: Since ready-made shroud may not necessarily be according to the height of the deceased, it is better to arrange for cloth as per need)

Method of Bathing the Corpse

Burning incenses or frankincense, move them around the bathing plank 3. 5 or 7 times. Lay the corpse on plank as laid in the grave. Cover the body from navel up to below the knees. (Nowadays, the Sitr of the deceased is covered with a white shawl during the bath, which causes unveiling. Hence use some thick brown or dark coloured cloth so that private body may not show up because of wetness. It will be even better if it is double-folded). Now, covering his hand with some piece of cloth, the one giving bath should wash both the excretory organs of corpse first. Then, make Wudu of deceased as done for Salah i.e. wash. the face 3 times, wash the arms including elbows 3 times, moisten the head (Mash) and wash the feet up to ankles 3 times). Wudu of the deceased does not include washing of hands up to the wrists, rinsing of the mouth and washing of the nose. Instead, wet some cotton wool and clean the teeth, gums, lips and nostrils with it. Then wash bair of head and heard. Now, making the deceased lie on its left side pour tepid water (water boiled with berry leaves is preferable) from head up to the feet such that the water flows up to the plank. Then, making the deceased lie on its right side, flow water in the same way. Now make the deceased sit by supporting its back and move hand at the bottom part of the belly softly, If something is excreted, wash it away. Repetition of Wudu and Ghusl is not needed. At the end, pour camphor-mixed water from head to toe three times. Gently dry the body with some clean cloth. It is Fard to pour water once on entire body and pouring if thrice is Sunnah.

Give fragrant smoke of incense to the shroud 1, 3, 5 or 7 times. Then spread in such a way that the Lifafah is spread first, then Izar over it and then the Kameez. Place the corpse on it and make it wear the Kameez. Now apply fragrance on the beard (if there is no beard, then apply on chin) and on all the body. Apply camphor on the organs at

Method to Shroud Corpse of Woman

After making the deceased woman wear the Kameez, divide her hair in two parts and place them over the Kameez on the chest, Place the head cover under the back and extend it up to the chest, covering the head with it like a face-veil. Its length should be up to below half of the back and its width should be from one car lobe to the other. Some people put the head cover like the way women put on in their lives; this is contrary to Sunnah, Then wrap the Izar and Lifafah as described earlier. At the end, tie the breast² cover with some string after placing it over the breasts up to the thigh.

Burial after the Funeral Şalāfi3

- It is Mustahab to place the corpse towards Qiblah side of the grave so that it may be lowered in to the grave from Qiblah side. Do not bring it from head side (into the grave) by placing it at foot side of the grave.
- As per requirement, 2 or 3 pious and strong persons should go down into the grave. The body of a woman should be lowered by her Maharim, if they are not present, the relatives may do it, and if they are not present either, pious persons may be asked to do it.

- Lay the corpse on its right side and make it face the Qiblah. Untie the strings of Lifafah; even if not untied, there is no harm in it.
- Close the grave with unbaked bricks. If the ground is soft, wooden planks may be installed.
- 7. Now put dust ento the grave. It is Mustahab to put dust thrice from head side using both hands. On putting dust first, utter رَفِيَهَا نُولِنَا وَاللهُ اللهِ اللهِ
- It is Makrūh to put dust more than that was brought out in digging of the grave.
- Make the grave slanting like hump of a camel. Do not make it four-cornered (as it is made after a few days of burial, using bricks).
- The grave should be about 8 inches high or a bit more than that. ('Alampiri, vol. 1, pp. 166)

On Thursday (Rabi'-ul-Ghouš 1422 A.H., 12th July 2001), the brother of late Navid 'Atjari का का का का had a dream in which he saw his deceased brother who said, "You don't come to my grave. At least come and see what has happened to my grave!" The day the dream was seen it rained heavily. Accordingly, the brother went to the cemetery and reached the grave which had been ruined due to Thursday's heavy rain. On Sunday morning, about 7:30 a.m., the brothers of Navid 'Attari and 8 Huffaz brothers of Dawat-e-Islami went to the grave, عليه المعالمة المعالمة عليه المعالمة المعا In the presence of many people, the gravedigger opened the grave; everyone was astonished to see that the body of late Navid 'Attari अर्थाकी इंडेन्ड्रेड was in exactly the same condition in which it was laid to rest. The body was still fresh, he was still wearing the blessed turban and his shroud was undamaged. Both his hands were tied as if in Şalāh. Four Islamic brothers picked his body up from the grave. There was a powerful fragrance coming from the body and the grave. Having mended the grave, the brothers laid Muhammad Navid 'Attari Attari Attari to rest again. May Allah عندمال bestow His mercy on Navid 'Attari عندمال Allah عندمال عندمال المعالم and forgive us all for his sake.

Method of Fătiḥaĥ

Secured from Hypocrisy and Fire (of Hell)

Hadrat Sayyiduna Imām Sakhāwi reports: The beloved and blessed Prophet Andrew June 3 said, "One who sends Durūd once upon me, Allah Andrew bestows him with ten blessings and the one who sends Durūd ten times upon me, Allah Andrew bestows him with hundred blessings, and the one who sends Durūd hundred times. Allah Andrew inscribes between his eyes that he is freed from hypocrisy and the fire of Hell and he will be kept with the martyrs on the Day of Judgement," (Al-Quad-al-Badi, eq. 233, Mansar-ar-Riyaum, Beiran)

Those whose parents or anyone of them has passed away should not be heedless of them. They should visit their parents' graves and keep making Iiṣāl-e-Šawāb. Here are five blessed sayings of the Holy Prophet of the blassed sayings of the Holy Prophet of the blassed sayings.

1. Šawab of an Accepted Hajj

"Anyone visiting the graves of one of or both of his parents with the intention of Sawab will earn the Sawab of an accepted Hajj and the one

Lower of Salah

visiting their graves in abundance, angels will come to visit his grave (when he dies). (Kanc-ul-'Ummāt, vol. 16, pp. 200, Hadii 45336)

2. Reward of Ten Hajj

"The one who performs Ḥajj on behalf of his father or mother, Ḥajj would get offered on their behalf and he himself will gain Sawāb of ten Ḥajj." (Darie-Quint, vol. 2, pp. 229, Hadis 2587)

Jaji he should make the intention of performing it on behalf of his deceased parents so that they would also gain the Sawab of Hajj. The one doing so will get Sawab of ten Hajj. If either of the parents passed away without performing Hajj despite it being Fard, one should get the privilege of performing 'Hajj-e-Badal' on behalf of his deceased parents. (Details of 'Hajj-e-Badal' can be found in the book 'Rafiq-ul-Haramain' published by Maktaba-tul-Madina).

3. Charity on Behalf of Parents

"Whenever anyone of you donates Nafl charity, he should do so on behalf of his parents so that they would also gain its Šawāb without any reduction in the Šawāh of the donor." (Shu'uh-ul-huan, v6, P205 Hadis 1911, Dat-ul-Kutuh-ul-'Ilmiyyoh Beirut)

4. A Cause of Reduction in Sustenance

"When a person abandons making supplication for his parents, his sustenance is cut off," (Kuna-ul-'Ummāl, vol. 16, pp. 201, Hadis 45548)

5. Excellence of Visiting Graves on Friday

"The one who visits the grave of either of or both of his parents on Friday and recites Sûrah Yasin over there will be forgiven." (Pin A'di fil Kanal, rol. 6, pp. 260)

Dear Islamic brothers! The mercy of Allah Ask is enormous. The portals of His mercy and bounties are open even for the Muslims who have passed away. Here is a narration about the immense mercy of Allah Ask. Read and rejoice!

Shrouds Torn off

Hadrat Sayyidunā Armiyā Azibak, a Prophet of Allah Jask, once passed by graves of some people who were being tormented; a year later, when he passed by the same graves again, he noticed that there was no punishment. He implored in the court of Allah Jask. 'Yā Allah Jask! Previously, they were being punished but now their punishment has come to an end (what is the reason?)!' A voice said, "O Armiyā! Their shrouds tore to pieces, their hair fell out and their graves were obliterated, so I had mercy on them and I always have mercy on such people." (Sharb-us-Sudār, p. 313)

Three Virtues of Conveying Šawāb

The Blessings of Du'ā (Supplication)

The Holy Prophet And the State of Said, "My Ummah will enter the grave with their sins but it will come out of graves without sins as their sins are forgiven by virtue of the supplications of the Muslims," (Al-Mu'jam-al-Ansat, vol. 1, pp. 509, Hadti 1879)

Waiting for Iişal-e-Sawabi

The beloved and blessed Prophet Acoustical Seconds and, "The state of a deceased person in his grave is like that of a drowning man; he walk anxiously for supplication from his father, mother, brother or friends when anyone's supplication reaches him, he finds it better than the world & whatever is in it. Allah Allah bestows the Sawāb gifted by alive relatives upon the deceased like mountains. The gift of the alive to the dead is to say prayer of forgiveness for them." (Sharab-Imān, vol. 6, pp. 203, Hadil 1965)

Excellence of Supplicating for Forgiveness of Others

'Anyone who makes the supplication of forgiveness for all the Muslimmen and women, Allah Jasse writes a good deed for him in return for each and every Muslim men and women.' (Majma an-Zawaid, vol. 10, pp. 357, Hadis 1753%)

An Easy Way to Earn Billions of Good Deeds

Dear Islamic brothers! Sway with delight! We have got an easy way of earning millions and billions of good deeds! Obviously, there are millions of Muslims in the world at the moment and billions of Muslims have passed away. Therefore, if we make supplication of forgiveness for the whole Ummah, we will attain the treasure of billions of good deeds. I have written below a supplication for myself as well as for all the Muslim men and women; recite it (with Durud Sharif once before and after the supplication), 3434-4450, you will get hoards of good deeds.

Translation: (Ya Allah المربة Forgive me and every Muslim man and woman)

Recite the foregoing supplication in Arabic or English or in both languages right now and, if possible, make it your habit to recite it after five daily Salah.

Bay sobab bakhsh day nuh püch 'amal Năm Ghaffar hay tayrā Yā Rah كالماء

Refulgent Attire

Once a saint saw his deceased brother in a dream and asked, "Does the supplication of the living people reach you (the dead)?" He replied, "Yes, By Allah Jest! The supplication comes to us in the form of refulgent attire that we wear," (Sharis-us-Sudār, pp. 305)

Refulgent Tray

When anyone sends the Sawab of good deeds to a deceased person, librail Allowing places the Sawab in a refulgent tray and stands with it near the grave and says, "O dweller of this grave! Your kin has sent a gift, receive it." On hearing this, he becomes happy whereas his neighbours (the deceased of his neighbouring graves) feel grieved on their deprivation. (Shork-us-Sudur, P308)

Sawab Equal to the Number of Deceased

The one who recites Sūrah Ikhlāş eleven tīmes in a graveyard and sends its Sawāb to the dead, he will get the recompense equal to the number of all the dead (buried in the graveyard), (Koshf-ul-Khifa, vol. 2, pp. 252, Badis 2629)

Deceased Would Intercede

The Prophet of mankind, the peace of our heart and mind, the most generous and kind and so the state of the said. "The one who passes by a cemetery and recites Sûrah Fātiḥah, Sũrah Ikhlāṣ and Sũrah Takaśur over there and then makes the supplication: 'Yā Allah Jose! Send the Sawāh of whatever Quran I have recited to Muslim men and women' so those buried in the cemetery will intercede for him on the Day of Judgement." (Sharp-nat-Sadār, p. 311)

Šawāb of Süraĥ Ikhlāş

Hadrat Sayyidunā Hammād Makki ﴿ said that one night he went to the graveyard of Makka-tul-Mukarramah where he fell asleep. (In the state of dream) he saw that the deceased buried in the graves were standing in groups, Seeing them, he asked as to whether the Day of Judgement had taken place. They replied, 'No. The thing is, a Muslim brother recited Sūrah Ikhlāṣ and sent us its Śawāb which we have been distributing among ourselves for a year.' (Sharh-us-Ṣadūr, p. 312)

A Well for Umm-e-Sa'd har lead on

Hadrat Sayyidunā Sa'd bin 'Ubādah ar Jisan aka asked, "Yā Rasülnilāh Janga sa Jisan Jel My mother has passed away (I want to give some Sadaqah (charity) on behalf of her), which Sadaqah would be the best for her?" The Holy Prophet also sa Jisan Jisan Je replied, 'Water,' So, Sayyidunā Sa'd an Jisan se got a well dug and said, "This is for Sa'd's mother." (Suman Abū Dawan Sharif vol. 2, pp. 180, Hadis 1081)

Dear Islamic brothers! Sayyidunā Sa'd sa sasas declared that the well was dug for Sa'd's mother, which meant that the digging of well was almed at donating Sawab to the mother of Sa'd معن تعصل The foregoing narration also made it clear that there is no harm for the Muslims in relating a goat or cow etc. to saints by saying sentences like, "This is the goat of Sayyiduna Ghaus-e-Pak & database' as it also means that the sacrifice of this goat is aimed at just donating its Šawāb to Sayyiduna Ghauš e-A'zam مند كلة عند Normally, people also relate sacrificial animals to each other; for example, if you ask a person who is wandering along with his sacrificial cow as to whose the cow is; he will reply, 'Mine' and it is not considered objectionable either. Therefore, if there is no objection to saying such sentences, no objection can be raised to saying 'This is the goat of Ghaus-e-Pak' as well. In fact, Allah dasse is the real Owner of each and every thing, Moreover, whether it is the sacrificial cow or the goat of Ghaus-e-Pak, the name of Allah Jajar is mentioned at the time of slaughter of each sacrificial animal. May Allah remove satanic whispers!

أمِيْن بِهَا وِاللَّهِيِّ الْأَمِيْنِ عَلَى اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى عُومَةً مَا اللهُ تَعَالَى عَلَى عُمَمَّد

18 Madanī Pearls of Donating Šawāb

- One may make the Iiṣāl-e-Sawāb¹ of each and every deed such as Fard, Wājib, Sunnah, Nafl, Ṣalāh, fasting, Zakāh, Ḥajj, delivering a speech or Dars, travelling with a Madanī Qāfilah, acting upon Madanī In'āmāt, call towards righteousness, studying a religious book or making individual effort etc.
- 2. Holding gathering for the recitation of the Holy Quran and serving meal to participants on the 3rd, 10th and 40th day of someone's death or solemnizing his death-anniversary are all commendable deeds, as these are also the means of liṣāl-e-Sawāb, By Shari'ah, the absence of the proof of impermissibility about holding such rites is itself a proof of permissibility. Moreover, living people's making supplication for the deceased is proven by the Holy Quran and the whole concept of liṣāl-e-Sawāb is based on this Quranic proof. Therefore, verse 10 of Sūrah Ḥashr, part 28 says:

And those who came after them submit: O our Rab الحصاد Forgive us and our brothers who preceded us in the faith.

(Kanzul Iman (Translation of Quran))

3. The expenses for the meals served on Sawyam (the 3rd day of demise), death anniversary etc. can be paid from the bequest of the deceased provided all the inheritors are adult and they all give consent either. If even a single heir is not adult, it is extremely Haram to do so. However, an adult inheritor can arrange for the

- meals from his own share, (Derived from Rahar-e-Shart'es, vol. 1. Part-IV. pp. 822)
- If the family of the deceased cook food on Sawyam, only the Faqirs (destitute people) may eat from it (the rich should not). Hold. p. 853)
- Iīṣāl-e-Sawāb may be made even to a day's old deceased baby: Sawyam etc, may also be held.
- Sawāb may also be offered to the living Muslims and even to those who have not yet been born.
- Šawāb may be donated to Muslim Jinns as well.
- 8. Solemnizing Giyarliwin Sharif, Rajabi Sharif (the death anniversary of Sayyiduna Imam Ja'far Şādiq Ala Jisala Jaba on the 22nd of Rajab) etc. is permissible. It is not necessary to serve pudding in a "Kunda" (an earthenware pot used to serve) only; it may be served in other plates etc. as well. It may also be brought out of the house.
- The meal served for sending Sawab to the saints is called 'Nazr-o-Niyaz' (in Urdu). This Niyaz (meal) is "Tabarruk" (Sacred) and may be consumed by the rich as well as the poor.
- Serving the meal of Iişal-e-Sawab to guests is not a condition; if the family members eat it themselves, there is no harm in doing so.
- 11. If one makes the intention of sending Šawāb to saints for the meal he eats each time, it would be wonderful. For example, at the time of breakfast, he may intend, 'May the Šawāb of this breakfast reach the Holy Prophet 上海海道道道 法 as well as all other Prophets 建筑 through him!' Similarly, at the time of lunch, he can make intention, 'May the Šawāb of this meal that I have eaten (or will eat) reach

⁻ The air of sending the reward of good deeds.

Sayyiduna Ghauš-e-A'zam wə as well as all other saints of the Likewise, at the time of dinner, he may intend, 'May the Šawāb of this meal that I am about to eat reach Imam-e-Ahl-e-Sunnat Imam Ahmad Razā Khan at the saw as well as all other Muslim men and women!'

- Whether Sawab is donated before the meal or after the meal, it is correct in both ways.
- 13. If possible, reserve 1% money of your total daily sale (rather than daily profit) for the Niyaz of Ghaus-e-A'zam; the employees should save at least 3% of their monthly salary with the same intention. Either distribute religious books or spend this money on any virtuous act. Assistance you will see its blessings for yourself.
- To establish a Masjid or Madrasah is Sadaqa-e-Jāriyah (Perpetual Charity) and a best mode of Iisal-e-Šawāb.
- 15. "Dàstân-e-'Ajib", "Shahzāday kā Sar", "Das Bībiyon ki Kahāni", and "Janāb-e-Sayyidah kī Kahāni" etc. are all fabricated and false tales; never read them. A pamphlet entitled 'Waşiyat Nāmah' (Will) consisting of the dream of a man called "Shaykh Aḥmad" is distributed; it is also false. This pamphlet mentions the benefits of getting it photocopied and distributed in a particular quantity and harms otherwise; do not believe it at all.
- 16. Even if Šawāb is donated to innumerable Muslims, it is hoped by the grace of Allah that complete Sawāb will be given to each of them. It is not so that Sawāb will be divided amongst them. (Raddid-Muhtār, vol. 7, pp. 180, Derived from Bohāre-Shari'ai, vol. 1, Part-IV, pp. 850)
- 17. The Sawāb of the one donating Sawāb is not reduced at all; rather, it is boped that he would get Sawāb equal to the total amount of Sawāb he donated to each and every person. For example, someone performed an act of piety for which he was given (the Śawāb of) ten good deeds which he donated to ten other deceased Muslims. Now, each of the deceased would get ten good deeds and the sender of Śawāb would get one hundred ten. If he donated Śawāb to one thousand deceased, he would get ten thousand ten and so forth, (Bahār-e-Shori'a), vol. 1, Part-IV, pp. 850) līṣāl-e-Šawāh may be made to the Muslims only. Making līṣāl-e-Śawāb to a disbeliever or an apostate (Murtad) or calling them 'Marḥūm' is Kufr (blasphemy).

The Method of lişal-e-Šawab

The intention of heart is sufficient for the donation of Sawab. For instance, if you give a rupee as charity or recite Durûd once or tell someone a Sunnah or carry out call towards righteousness or deliver a Sunnah-inspiring speech or perform any other good deed, you should make intention in your heart like this: 'May the Sawab of the Sunnah that I have just told reach the Holy Prophet And Andrew !' Sawab will reach him.

Further, Sawab will also reach to all of such people for whom intention was made. In addition to the presence of intention in heart, utterance of verbal intention is a Sunnah of the blessed companions and assume as mentioned in the Hadis which describes that Sayyiduna Sa'd same had a well dug and then said, 'This is for Sa'd's mother.'

The Traditional Method of lişal-e-Šawab

The Muslims' traditional method of donating Sawab especially for serving meal is very nice. The method is as follows: Put in front all such meals or a little portion from each item along with a glass of water whose Sawab is to be donated. Then, reciting مُنْفِرُهُ اللَّهُ عُلُوا الرَّحِيْدِ recite Surat-ul-Kāfirūn once:

Method of Supplication for Donating Šawāb

Prophet And Add James James James James and its Sawah to every Muslim human and linn born from the age of Sayyiduna Adam Adam Adam to date as well as all those who will be born till the Day of Judgement. During this, mention the names of the saints to whom Sawab has to be especially donated. Likewise, donate Sawab to your parents, relatives and Murshid (spiritual guide). (The deceased whose names are mentioned during the supplication get pleased by it.) Then, finish the supplication as usual. (If a little amount of food items and water was placed in front, mix them into other food and water).

Be Ware!

Whenever Niyaz or any other type of ceremony is held at your home and the time of congregational Salah approaches during the ceremony, take all the guests to the Masjid for Salah with Jama'at making individual effort provided there is no Shar't prohibition. Ceremonies should be scheduled at such a time that the time of Salah does not fall within the scheduled program so that the participants would not miss Jama'at due to laziness. There will probably be no difficulty in offering Salah with Jama'at if lunch is served immediately after Zuhar Salah or dinner is served after Isha-Salah. Even then, if the time of Salah approaches, the host, the cook, the guest and those involved in serving the food should all offer Salah with Jama'at. Missing the Jama'at of Salah just for Niyaz of saints is a grave blunder.

Method of Visiting the Shrines

One should pay visit in the court of the saints from the direction of their feet as, in case of coming from their back side, they would have to bother to look back turning their head. Hence, one should present himself at the shrines of the saints from the direction of the feet of the saint facing the face of the saint and making his back face the Qiblah.

Laws et Solah

Thereafter, he should stand at a distance of at least two yards and say Salām in the following words.

Then, recite Sürah Fätthah once and Sürah Ikhläs 11 times (with Durüd once before and after it). Now, raise hands and make Iīşāl-e-Šawāh as per the forgoing method. Mention the name of the saint as well while making Iīşāl-e-Šawāh. Then, make supplication. It is stated in the book 'Aḥsan-ul-Wi'ā' that prayers (supplication) are answered in the proximity of the Beloved of Allah Jasa.

The Blossoming of Sunnah

By the Grace of Allah Asa's Sunnahs of the Holy Prophet - Sales Is the Low are extensively learnt and raught in the congenial Madani Buvinonment of Dawatse Islami, a global non-political movement for the propagation of Qurun and Sunnah.

It is a Madani request to spend the whole night in the weekly Sunnah Inspiring Diloral commencing after Salat al-Magliob every Thursday in your city. Italitualize yourself to a punctual travel in the Madani Quillah with the devotees of the Holy Prophet in order to learn the Sunnah and fill out the Madani In'amat booklet daily practicing Filtre-Madinali (Madani Contemplation) and submit it to the Zimmadar (relevant representative of Dawate-Islami) of your locality. By the blessing of this, howelfile all you will develop a mindset and a yearning to protect your faith, adopt the Sunnalis and be averse to site.

Every Islamic brother should develop the Madani Mindset that "I must strive to reform myself and people of the whole world down the state"

In order to reform ourselves, we must act upon the Madam Infamiliand to reform people of the entire world we must travel in the Madam QaBlah and adultate.
